Turner Station ladies at colorful luncheon

...with Lulu Jones Garrett

By SHIRLEY KYLE

Over 100 ladies will dine with the New Life Guild of New Life Presbyterian Church, Saturday, at Sollers Point High School cafeteria in Turner Station.

The hostesses, headed by club president Harlet Wells, have planned a program featuring music and informal table games for their guests, not to mention the fact that 30 lucky ladies will receive door prizes.

And bright fall colors will spark the decorations in the cafeteria and on the tables.

BALTIMORE LADIES are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Dorothea Towles, who will model her fabulous wardrobe of Paris originals and styles from Charm Centre, Nov. 12, at Booker T. Washington Junior High School auditorium.

The Alpha Alpha Sigma Chapter of the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority is presenting the fashion show. Proceeds will be used for the sorors' scholarship fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Curtis of St. Mary's County recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. The happy couple boast of their 11 children, 42 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

PARTY PRATTLE — Twelve junior "pirates" were on hand last Saturday to help their "captain" Miles G. Harrison Jr. celebrate his eighth birthday.

Donned in their pirate garb and armed with daggers, the young ones enjoyed an afternoon of games and songs.

The unique motif was carried out in the table decorations from the skull and cross bones on the cake, to the treasure chest, carved from a loaf of bread, and loaded to the hilt with cookies and chocolate filled "pieces of eight."

The "pirates" spotted at the Lester Wallace, John Wallace, affair were Thomas Daniels, Wayland Jones Jr., Milkie Burwell, James Wood Jr., Samuel Horne, Lance Walker, Skipper Bell, Pennsylvania; Theodore, Bacote, Kitty Peck, Jimmie Lons, Washington; Juanita McCargo.

Also Mr. and Mrs. William Nash, Louise Henson, Clifton Cole, Mr. and Mrs. James Ross Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Otho Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. John Madden, Gladys Dixon, Bertha Wilson, Don Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. John Felton, Norma Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. James Ross Jr.

ELLSWORTH SHETTA entertained the Chippettes at their regular monthly meeting at the Civic League House, on McCulloh St.

Before the final plans for their Sweet Sixteen ball were completed, the members discussed at length their participation in the Maryland League of Women's Clubs of which the Chippettes are affiliated.

It was decided that the club would stress the seventh point, which has to do with institutions. They will collect clothes etc for the Goodwill Industries during the year.

After the business meeting guests who arrived to participate in the fun for the evening were Robbie Chisell, Miriam Brown, Mary Maiden and Steve Harris.

RESUMING THEIR monthly get-together after the summer vacation, the Alpha Wives made merry Tuesday night in their first fall meeting at the residence of their president, Olivia Dixon on McCulloh St.

Twenty two members joined in the festivities in the beautiful blond maple-paneled Dixon club cellar.

Plans were laid for a money-raising project, preparatory to inaugurating a scholarship fund. A new hostess arrangement was also agreed upon.

Present were Hortense Winder, Ella Edemy, Vashti Matthews, Josephine Kembers, Mattie Connor, Lucille Fitzgerald, Hilda Higgins, Mary Pitts;

Also Louise Dennis, Mae Campbell, Audrey Davis, Otyce Froe, Anita Hawkins, Alma Gray, Marguerite Brown, Maxine Higginbotham, Mary Oliver, Margaret Driver, Francis Mackay.
