U. S. SHIPPING BOARD RECRUITING SERVICE

From A. L. Sterling, Enrolling Agent

R. U. READY?

A. L. Sterling, the 237 E. High St. druggist, recently appointed recruiting agent for the U. S. Shipping Board to enroll young men in Chestertown for service in the Merchant Marine, received and executed his official oath of office. He will use his store as a recruiting station, and will "sign on" husky young Americans between 21 and 30 for training on a squadron of school ships maintained by the Shipping Board. The training is preliminary to service on merchant vessels for the duration of the war, and the men enrolled for it are exempted from the draft.
