Jack and Jill club sets two picnics for the fall

...with Lulu Jones Garrett

By SHIRLEY KYLE
(Substituting for Mrs. Garrett who is on vacation.)

The local chapter of the Jack and Jill hub jumped right into the fall season set for work after a summer rest.

First thing on the list are two picnics, one for the eight and nine-year-olds, the other for the senior group.

Priscilla Lansey will chaperone the junior picnic at Fort Smallwood, Saturday, while the seniors, whose affair was postponed last week due to rain will make up for lost time, Saturday at Gwynns Falls Park.

AT THE opening meeting, Monday night at the YMCA, Blanche Hughes, club president, appointed committees which will function throughout the year.

Working with Anethia Williams, chairman of the Infantile Paralysis Committee (the organization's national project) will be:

Senora Reckling, co-chairman; Julia MaDaniels, Corrine Provcope, Corrie Allor, Evelyn Bass, Vashil Matthews, Ruth Jennifer Elise Clark, Hermione Harden, Alice Branson, Emthia Hughes, Elizabeth Culver, Catherine Murphy and Audrey Brooks.

(Last year this group raised more than $200 for the March of Dimes. The entire group of chapters raised more than $15,000, throughout the United States.)

The Jack and Jill Day Committee will be headed by Olga Parker. Her committee will be:

Mildred Murphy, Romaine Jones, Marjorie Kearse, Marguerite Daniels, Mamie Woodford, Ray Tabb, Virginia Love, Evelyn Stewart, Sara Browne and Max Williams.

The Family Relations Committee has Elsie Session as chairman.

Serving with her are: Marjorie Moses, Helen Lee, Mabel Perkins, Betty Julien, Helen King, Elsie Robinson, Genevieve Spencer, Wilhelmina Garner and Mary McPherson.

THE HOUSING Committee has Catherine Jackson, chairman; and Hilda Higgins, Dorothy Koger and Vernice Wynn.

Journalists are Ida Smith, chairman; Betty Phillips, Jean Turpin, Marsia Stokes and Alicen Lang.

Public Relations includes Monterey Clay, chairman; Ambia Patterson, Gwendolyn Grinage, Ethel Harris, Ann Wayne, Catherine St. Clair, Helen Burwell, Irene Templeton.

Magic Circle Children's Theatre Committee has Margaret Armstrong as chairman; Ethel Covington, Charlotte Hackett, Bernice Brandon, Charlotte Mebane, Gwendolyn Lassiter.

Other committees includes hospitality; headed by Inez Henderson; membership, Charlottee Mebane; program chairman Grace Burkett, with Vernice Wynn as co-chairman.

Other officers of the Jack and Jill are

Senora Reckling, vice - president; Virginia Parks, recording secretary; Carolyn Willis, corresponding secretary; Doris Oswell, treasurer; Cordelia Johnson, financial secretary; Charlotte Shervington, journalist; and Margaret Proctor, parliamentarian.

STRONG 'MAN' — Joseph Linwood Yates is only four months old but already he can stand under his own power in the hands of his mother, Mrs. Mary R. Yates of 532 E. 23rd St., Baltimore. Joseph weighs 15 pounds, 14 ounces. His dad works at Bethlehem Steel.

Miss Shirley M. Loggins is married to John Albert Ross Jr.

In one of the loveliest weddings of the season, Miss Shirley Mae Loggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Loggins, became the bride of John Albert Ross Jr., here Saturday at high noon.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Ross of this city, and Mrs. Cora F. Ross of Jacksonville, Fla.

The double - ring nuptial Mass in Saint Peter Claver Catholic Church, was read by the Rev. Edward V. Casserly, S. S. J., of Washington who was assisted by Fr. O'Connor and Fr. O'Rourke.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original designed by Mrs. Pearl Reed Brown of Hartford, Conn. and Philadelphia, who also designed the gowns of the bridesmaids.

• • •

THE BRIDAL GOWN was of re-embroidered imported tulle lined with duchess satin in an ivory color. The formal princess gown was topped with matching coat that stopped at a brief jacket in front and flowed into a sweeping train.

She wore no veil, but her satin crown, embroidered in seed pearls and brilliants, was coifed about her face and she carried a bouquet of white Full mums tied with white satin ribbons enroute to the altar.

The bouquet was offered to the Blessed Virgin following the marriage rites. From the altar the bride carried a white prayer book marked with orchids.

ATTENDANTS WERE Miss Delores Loggins, her sister, maid of honor, Miss Ametta Shim of Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss Louise Parker of Newark, N. J., Miss Beatrice Ross of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hughes of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Goldie Cherry of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Lucia Garth of Chicago, Mrs. Marie Rivers of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Lillian Johnson and Dr. and Mrs. William Brown of New York, and Mrs. Pearl Brown of Philadelphia.

They wore off - face veils into stole and carried bronze Fuji mums. The gown worn by the maid of honor was in deep rose, enhanced by a tulle train which duplicated that of the bride.

Philip R. Hall was best man. Ushers were Wesley L. Stubbs, Donald E. Rigby, Lawrence E. Carter, James L. Campbor, all of this city.

• • •

PAUL NEAL was at the organ and the choir of St. Peter Claver Church provided the vocal numbers.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Loggins entertained for several hundred guests at a reception in St. Peter Claver's Hall in honor of the newlyweds.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Loggins wore a sheath gown of mauve silk, with brown accessories and a corsage of orange delight.

Mrs. Ross, whose corsage was the duplicate of Mrs. Loggins, was gowned in an ivory lace sheath embedded with brilliants, and matching accessories.

For her wedding trip to Chicago, the new Mrs. Ross wore a three-piece tweed ensemble, in charcoal brown and black and black accessories.

She is a graduate of Morgan State College and Catholic University and was, until her marriage, on the staff of Catholic Charities, here.

Mr. Ross graduated from Hamiton Institute. The couple will be at home at 2013 Lewis Ave., Long Beach, Calif. after Oct. 17.

• • •

AMONG OUT - OF - TOWN guests at the wedding and reception were Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Elerbe, son of Mrs. Ellen Elerbe, 2806 Ellicott Drive., who was second prize winner in the second annual Healthy Baby Contest, sponsored recently by Carnation Milk Co. and the AFRO-AMERICAN, celebrated his third birthday, Saturday.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—Clayton E. Elerbe, son of Mrs. Ellen Elerbe, 2806 Ellicott Drive., who was second prize winner in the second annual Healthy Baby Contest, sponsored recently by Carnation Milk Co. and the AFRO-AMERICAN, celebrated his third birthday, Saturday.

WELCOME MARYLAND STATE TEACHERS — See TEACHER-TESTED FASHIONS — at Charm Centre

Miss Valeria Butler, former Asst. Mgr. of Charm Centre is now a 1st grade instructor at school 122. Miss Butler is very active in civic affairs. She is a member of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, bookkeeper of Ames Methodist Church, Secretary of the Unity Investment Building and Loan Association, Secretary of Christian Social Relations, Local Church Activities of the Ethel M. Newman Guild of Ames Memorial Methodist Church, Secretary, Status of Women for the Wesleyan Service Guilds of the Washington Annual Conference of the Methodist Church. Miss Butler says that Charm Centre's clothes carry her any place and she is always assured of being well dressed when outfitted from Charm Centre. Miss Butler's ensemble is a smart two-piece in tweed and jersey. The tweed skirt with flecks of white on black has fringe around hem and flap of wrap around semi-flare skirt. The rich rib-bugging blouse in black jersey has collar and neck trim made of same material as skirt. A scholarly example of the costume look—a primary fashion favorite. The hat, smooth French velour, very small and worn back from the brow, with a gold braid band and vari-colored sequin disc and shells.

Mrs. Carrie Scott, instructor at school 180 (Cherry Hill Jr. High) is a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, secretary of Union Baptist Church Sunday School and a member of the Smart Set Social Club. Mrs. Scott says that Charm Centre is always able to fit her in the difficult half size that she wears. Her coat is fashioned of imported rainbow tweed in tuxedo style. Pretty but practical, sturdy but smart. Just right for school and those important teachers' meetings. Muted colors of blue, pink, lavender, orange, navy and black enable this coat to be worn with all colors of accessories. "The Head-huger" a beige stitched felt hat, that is the perfect compliment to this stunning coat.

See Teacher-tested and Career Girl Fashions at Charm Centre's Fall and Winter Fashion Show, Thursday, October 20th, 2nd floor, Dress Salon.

Mrs. Edna O. Gray, vice principal of Douglass High School is a very, very busy lady in the community. She is past Supreme Basileus of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Chairman of Committee on Administration of the Madison Ave. Y.W.C.A., Member of the board of directors of the Baltimore Y.W.C.A., Chairman of the board of Christian Education, Providence Baptist Church, and 1st president of Maryland League of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Gra ysays, "Like its name Charm Centre's apparel gives to the well dressed woman, charm, grace and the highlight of fashion. The staff is always gracious and each one takes a personal interest in satisfying the needs and desires of her customers." Mrs. Gray has chosen a two-piece "Grayette" created of soft synthetic fabric that looks like wool. The slim dress is brown with neckline treated with the same material as the gold boucle boxy jacket with tab belt at the side. Remove the jacket and a complete dress is revealed, with elbow length sleeves, nipped-in waistline, sheath-like skirt with kick pleat in back. Sophisticated and smart for the fashion minded smart executive.
