Come To The Church Of Your Choice
For A Spiritual Blessing

HYMN OF THE MONTH

"There Is A Fountain Filled With Blood"

THERE IS A FOUNTAIN FILLED WITH BLOOD

There is a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains.
Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains,
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains.

The dying thief rejoiced to see that fountain, in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away.
Wash all my sins away, Wash all my sins away,
And there may I, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away.

Thou dying Lamb, Thy precious blood Shall never lose its pow'r,
Till all the redeemed Church of God Are saved to sin no more.
Are saved to sin no more, Are saved to sin no more,
Till all the redeemed Church of God Are saved to sin no more.

E'er since, by faith, I saw The stream Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme, And shall be till I die.
And shall be till I die, And shall be till I die,
Redeeming love has been my theme, And shall be till I die.

Then in a nobler, sweeter song, I'll sing Thy pow'r to save,
When these lips shall be silent in death, Each one must sing the pow'r to save.
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song, I'll sing Thy pow'r to save,
When these lips shall be silent in death, Each one must sing the pow'r to save.

Seminarian enrolls at St. Mary's Seminary

Peter Joseph George, 22, of Bridgeport, Conn., had enrolled in the St. Mary's Seminary to study to become a parish priest.

The medium - height, brown - skinned seminarian, who wears a black cassock, hopes to be assigned to the diocese in his hometown after completing his six-year study here.

MR. GEORGE, who did his preparatory study at St. Thomas Seminary, in Bloomfield, Conn., is the first of his Catholic family of seven children to pursue the vocation as a servant of God.

"It has been my life's ambition to become a priest," he said in a low, reverent voice.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel George, of Bridgeport, Mr. George is the fourth oldest child. He has two brothers and four sisters. His father is a laborer; his mother a housewife.

Daddy Grace's mansion, church up for tax sale

MONTCLAIR — The former mansion owned by one of the town's most distinguished white families, and a church property, bought by Bishop C. M. (Daddy) Grace two years ago have been advertised for sale "for taxes for 1954."

The former mansion which the titular leader of the House of Prayer for All People uses as a private residence when visiting his congregations in North Jersey was taxed in 1954 at $3,080.80. It is located on Orchard Mountain Ave. in a fashionable residential area.

THE CHURCH property located on Lloyd Rd., rear, was taxed in 1954 at $28.80.

THE PROPERTIES are listed in the advertised sale by town officials as:

"The United House of Prayer for All People of the Church on the Rock of the Apostolic Faith, a corporation of New Jersey."

BISHOP GRACE'S largest congregation in the state is located in Newark.

They are housed in the former Savoy Theatre on Springfield Ave., which "Daddy" bought in 1952 and is now estimated to be worth $200,000.

Bishop Grace's real estate holdings in apartment houses, housing projects and church buildings across the country are estimated in excess of 15 million dollars.

October 'Christmas' for child who may be dying

If for awhile the traditional, hobgoblin antics of "trick or treat" should be substituted with the "Wise Men's" spirit of bearing gifts, little Rodney Nickens could really enjoy Christmas in October.

Rodney, age 8, who lies very ill in Children's Hospital, with lukemia, could be made very happy with gifts, "get-well" cards or any little token which the public might like to send him.

He is not expected to live until Christmas arrives could, therefore, enjoy a visit from St. Nick now, while there's still time.

RODNEY, who has a normally healthy twin brother, Ronald, is one of the eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Nickens, 4928 Meade St., NE.

The Nickens' five boys and three girls' ages range from 11 down to seven years.

Mrs. Gladys Nickens, the mother, said Rodney had talked about a bicycle and a record player for Christmas, and she would like for him to have them before it is too late.

SHE ALSO solicits the prayers of the public for her little son. "He talks of prayer all of the time," she said.

"He is a very brave and thoughtful lad," she added, but on every visit, he always says, 'Mother, pray for me'."

So wouldn't it be much more fun for the small fry to bring cheer to a little sick boy by playing Santa Claus in October than to engage in ghostly imp games of destruction so prevalent on Halloween?

GROWN UPS alike can share in this project by sending gifts, games, cards or maybe even donations toward a bicycle or record player for little Rodney.

The address is 4928 Meade St., NE, Washington, D.C. Donors are advised to hurry. The doctors say there isn't much time.

Willie Reed Won't Go Back To Miss.

CHICAGO (ANP) — Willie Reed, 17 - year - old witness for the state in the Till murder trial, said here that he will not go back to Mississippi to testify in the kidnaping trial of Roy Bryant and J. W. Milam.

Bryant and Milam are charged with taking Emmett Till from the home of his uncle. The act caused were acquitted earlier on charges of murdering the 14-year - old Chicago youth.

Mrs. Edith Thomas, 37, mother of Reed, told reporters here:

"Under no circumstances will I permit my child to risk his life a second time. Willie told the Tallahatchie County jury all he knew at the murder trial. His testimony is there if they want it."

REED, WHO is recovering from a nervous disorder at Michael Reese hospital here, was quoted as saying that he is afraid to go back there." His mother added:

"Do you think I want my boy killed? If I let him talk before the LeFlore County jury next month, God only knows what might happen to him."

The governor of Mississippi, Hugh White, is quoted by a Chicago paper as saying that if Reed doesn't want to testify, that's his' business.

"IT'S ALL a lot of propaganda anyhow. There is no danger that anyone should frightened any witness," White is quoted as saying. He added that he has no power to compel the youth to testify.

White also announced that the prosecutor in the kidnap trial will be Stanley Sanders of Indianola in Sunflower County, and Tiflore County Judge Arthur Judan will preside at the trial.

Mrs. Thomas said that when her son is released from the hospital he will move in with her. She said she did not know how he left Mississippi or where the expense money came from.

MOSES WRIGHT, uncle of Till, who pointed out Milam and Bryant at the murder trial, has stated definitely that he will go back to Mississippi and testify against the two white men at the kidnap trial.

William H. Huff, attorney, has said he will request that Reed, Wright, and Mrs. Amanda Bradley return to Mississippi to testify at the trial. He said that Mrs. Bradley, mother-of the slain boy, will not have to go back.

Huff said he will file separate $100,000 damage suits against each of the defendants. He had stated that he would take this course of action if the men were not given the death penalty on the murder charge.

MEANWHILE, reaction to the trial continued to be expressed. The general board of the National Council of Churches of Christ passed a resolution that said responsibility for "violation of human personality on racial grounds rests upon the entire nation."

In Drew, Miss., Alonzo Bradley, brother of Amanda Bradley, has been found safe on a plantation. Earlier reports had said Bradley had been killed or chased out of the state by a mob of white men.

According to reports, Bradley said no one had molested him and he felt his wife would be safe if she returns to Mississippi. He said he had been able to contact his wife only once since she left.

In New York, Mrs. Ruby Hurley, southeast regional secretary of the NAACP said the Till trial "convinced most Mississippi officered persons that if the law won't protect them, it is up to them to protect themselves."

NAACP rally in Jersey City

JERSEY CITY — The local NAACP Branch will open a membership drive and pay tribute to Emmett Louis Till, the young Mississippi mob victim, on Sunday, October 16, at a Freedom Fund rally at the YWCA, 270 Fairmount Ave.

J. Mercer Burrell of Newark, noted civil rights lawyer and counsel for several fraternal organizations will be the principal speaker.

Other speakers will be: Mr. Roman representing Mayor Berry; Leon Grant, principal of Lincoln School No. 27, and the Rev. Ercel F. Webb, pastor of Monumental Baptist Church.

The goal of the drive is 1,000 members.

Mrs. Cordelia Greene Johnson, president of the Branch, invites all churches, fraternal and civic organizations, clubs and other groups to attend the rally in large numbers, and send gifts for the Freedom Fund.

DR. ALLEN

AMBASSADOR SIMPSON

MASONS

500 to attend Scottish Rite convention

WASHINGTON

Dr. Willard W. Allen, grand master of the Southern Jurisdiction, Scottish Rite Masons, will be presented with the Star of Liberia Monday, by Ambassador Clarence L. Simpson on behalf of the government of Liberia.

The John Wesley AME Zion Church, 14th and Corcoran Sts., NW, will be the scene of the official opening of the 99th annual convocation of the United Supreme Council, Southern Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Masons.

More than 500 officials and delegates to the Supreme Council will attend the convention Oct. 16-18 at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, 1633 11th St., NW, and the Masonic Temple, 10th and U Sts., NW. The Scottish Rite order includes all 32nd and 33rd degree masons.

The anniversary sessions of the fraternal order will open with the third man with them? Where are the two missing witnesses? Nobody cares.

Motions went through the motions, and the motions were enough to muffle the wails coming from the northern white press. The judge was honorable; the prosecutor trifled with him; who can quarrel with a jury verdict?

But the jury was all white, in an area two-thirds Negro. And of that one was an upright judge and a special-prosecutor when the case was rushed to trial without adequate preparation or investigation?

THIS WAS only the final scene of a lynching, hastily covered with a thin veil of respectability by a shrewd governor.

The same governor, Hugh White, as chairman of the Legal Education Advisory Committee, has just put forward a plank program to fight desegregation which calls for abolition of compulsory public schooling and legislation to "prohibit intermingling with state law under cover of federal authority."

Hugh White is himself the leader of Mississippi's racists and antifascists.

BEFORE THE WAR and the witch hunt, where there were small organizations like the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, there would have been public meetings of protest under mixed auspices. It shames our country and it shames white Americans that the only meetings, in Harlem, Baltimore, Chicago and Detroit, have been Negro meetings.

Those whites in the South and in the North who would normally have been moved to act, have been intimidated out of public life and into inactivity. To the outside world it must look as if the conscience of white America has been silenced, and the appearance is not too deceiving.

Basically all of us whites, North and South, acquiesce in white supremacy, and benefit from the pool of cheap labor created by it.

WILL THE NEGRO take this latest outrage? Unless Negroes rouse themselves to make their indignation felt in some dramatic way, nothing will be done in Mississippi or in Congress. A. Philip Randolph last Sunday suggested a march on Washington like that which dramatized the FEPC fight before Pearl Harbour.

If two thousands of Negroes to converge on the Department of Justice and demand action against the murderers of Till, and of the other Negroes whose recent murderers have gone unpunished in the South, such a demonstration would have an impact.

The AMERICAN Negro needs a leader and him, and we need the American Negro to lead us. If he does not provide leadership against the sickness in the South, the time will come when we will suffer a terrible price for allowing a psychopathic racist brutality to flourish unchecked.

The South Is Sick

That is meaning of Till murder

EDITOR'S NOTE — The following is reprinted from L. A. Swing's STONE'S WEEKLY, a Washington newsletter.)

Next to the President's collapse, the worst news of the week was from Mississippi. The jury at Sumner brought in two verdicts, not one. The immediate and visible decision was that J. W. Milam and Roy Bryant were not guilty of killing a 14-year-old colored boy.

The other, unspoken, unintended, unconscious but infinitely more significant verdict was a verdict of guilty against all the rest of us and our country.

There are scenes at the murder trial which impeach themselves unforgettably: The Negro reporters, as they walked into court one day after lunch, being hailed by the Sheriff with "Hello, N- - - s."

MRS. BRADLEY, the mother of the victim, testifying that she told her son before he left for the South, "to be very careful. He spoke and to say 'yes, sir' and 'no, ma'am' and just to behave." Bradley's sister was asked to get down on your knees.

Mrs. Bryant's sexy whopper (which Judge Swango in his credit kept from the jury) that this 14-year-old boy with a speech defect had grabbed her round the waist, solicited her with an unprintable obscenity and told her "I've been with white women before."

J. A. SHAW JR., the foreman of the jury, quoted by the press what the jury thought of Mrs. Bradley's testimony replying, "if she tried a little harder, she might have got out a body."

Emmett Till's battered body, with the bullet hole in the right temple and the gaping hole in the back of the head, as if broken in by a rock, testified to a manical murder.

Those who killed him were sick men, sick with sexual hate. The murder and the trial could only have happened in a sick countryside. Where else would a mother be treated with such elementary lack of respect or compassion?

Where else would the defense dare put forward the idea that the murder was somehow justified? Where else would anyone else would newspapers somehow make it appear that those, at least were men, the men who killed the boy but those who tried to bring the killers to justice? There is a sickness in the South. Unless cured, there may come an uspring from it crimes as evil and immense as the crematoria of Hitler.

IF MILAM and Bryant did not kill Till, then who did? Nobody in the South asks the question, at least publicly. Who was the visit.

"MILAM TOLD HIM 'I want the boy that did that talk at Money (the place where the whistling incident took place.'

"Moss said Emmett Till arose and dressed. Moss's wife was aroused by the noise but Milam told her to go back to bed, that he and I want to hear them springs.' She quietly returned to bed.

"Milam and Bryant took Till to a car and drove away in the direction of Money.

"The trial was adjourned."

"A 64-year-old entered man pointed to a hushed court yesterday to two white men in the dock and whispered, 'That's them.'

"MOSE WRIGHT, the 64-year-old man, said he recognized the two men who took away his 14-year-old nephew because they said the boy gave a wolf whistle to the wife of one of them.

"Emmett Till, on a visit to Sumner, Miss. from Chicago, was alleged to have been beaten to death by the two. His weighted body was found later in a river.

"Moses Wright was the first prosecution witness at the Sumner murder trial, which saw two brothers J. Milam and Roy Bryant.

"Uncle Mose,' asked the prosecutor, 'what time did you go to bed on the night of Aug. 23?' He said it was about 1 a.m. An hour later there was a knock at the door.

"Mose said a man called, 'Preacher, Preacher, this is Mr. Bryant and I want to talk to you and the boy.'

"Milam was at the door with a pistol in his hand.

"Mose pointed at the men before him and said Milam and Bryant were the two who made
