Local Officers Made Investigation

Sheriff Carter and Deputy Perkins made an investigation last Saturday night concerning the actions of a lady who was here from Baltimore or somewhere else. The suspicions of Postmaster Bowers were the first aroused when the lady, calling herself Miss Young, of Baltimore, appeared at the postoffice, asking many questions concerning the town. Mr. Bowers informed the sheriff, who immediately started an investigation. The lady registered at the Voshell House as Mrs. Nicholas Zarakes, of Washington, and upon being questioned as to her business here by State's Attorney Vickers and Sheriff Carter, at Voshell House, became very indignant, threatening to have the law on them, but finally stating that she was here contemplating the purchase of a certain business She left town Sunday morning.

The local officers did right in investigating the case, even though the lady made the object of her visit clear to them when they made the investigation.
