SCENTS A HUN SCHEME IN REPORTS OF FAMINE

London.—News that comes out of the enemy territory should always be regarded with suspicion, and it may be that the dispatches describing food riots in Austria-Hungary are concocted in order to lure the Allies into relaxing the vigor of their efforts. Such is the opinion expressed here by Lord Robert Cecil.

"There is no doubt," he says, "that the Germans have made a practice of spreading just such reports as these. Their idea seems to be to lull their enemies to sleep and prevent them from taking the necessary steps. Then they hope to catch them unprepared."

Unpreparedness would, of course, take the form of allowing wastefulness in food to raise its head again or to ease up a notch in production. Food, coupled with staunch fighting men, will win the war. Lack of food may most easily lose the war. Whatever the facts may be, it is the part of wisdom to assume that the clamor in Hungary is caused not more by real suffering there than by a desire to create undue optimism in Allied countries, and through it a lack of food in the hard winter that is ahead.

Certainly it is hard to understand how the German censorship would permit the publication of such stories as have been reprinted here of late. These stories tell of mobs driven by cavalry charges away from Vienna bakeshops, of an attempt upon the life of the Emperor Charles, and of attacks upon the German Embassy in the Austrian Capital. A leading Vienna paper declares that the people of Austria will have to exist for at least six weeks on little more than salads and certain vegetables, while former Premier Tisza told the Hungarian Parliament that several provinces were reduced to one-third and even one-quarter of the amount of food necessary to maintain the population in health.

Lord Robert Cecil's advice, however, is sound. It is all right to hope that internal trouble caused by food shortage may cost Germany one of her confederates. But it would be the height of folly for any Allied country to abate one jot its effort to keep up a full flow of supplies to the battle-front. "Food Will Win The War," but it will be a long fight, and no Allied nation dare be so sanguine as to place over-much confidence in dispatches that hail from a German address.

SAVE AND SHIP BEEF.

The order putting severe restrictions upon the consumption of beef is a sign that in the fight with food "circumstances alter cases" just as surely as they do in the tussle with shells and bullets at the front. Meatless days were in vogue for a while, a reserve was built up here, and that order rescinded. Now comes a prohibition of the serving of roast beef in public eating places save at the midday meal on Monday and a request that private homes cut their consumption of clear beef to one-and-one-quarter pounds per person per week.

This simply means that a demand overseas has arisen for beef and that it is up to us to save and ship. Our army and our allies must be fed. Their demand this month is for heavy shipments of beef and, considering all the other equally valuable foods available in Maryland, the Maryland Food Administration is confident that this State will do all it is asked—and more

SPOON BREAD.

(Official recipe.

Two cups water, 1 cup milk (whole or skim), one cup corn meal, one tablespoon fat, two eggs, two teaspoons salt.

Mix water and corn meal and bring to the boiling point and cook five minutes. Beat eggs well and add with other materials to the mush. Beat well and bake in a well-greased pan for 25 minutes in a hot oven. Serve from the same dish with a spoon. Enough for six.

WAS YOUR BACON ABOARD?

"I've just been down to the Clyde and seen such a fine fleet of food ships come up the river. It was such a comfort?" So a Scotch woman wrote to a relative over here this week in her letter of thanks for a packet of tea and sugar which she had sent.

Think of it, perhaps some of the bacon you didn't eat and the beef you gave up for that fish were on those welcome boats on the Clyde.

"Our rations have been an ounce and a half of ten per week and ten pence of meat, but now we're getting plenty of bacon."

This is more of her comforting message to all good food patriots here.

One hundred thousand American soldiers went overseas in ONE WEEK. That means that food for one hundred thousand more men must go overseas EVERY WEEK.

GROWS FORTY WEEKS OF GRAIN.

London.—For some years prior to the war the United Kingdom produced only sufficient wheat to provide its population with bread for ten weeks in the year. This year, if only average yields are secured, it will be in the position of being able, on its own account, to furnish forty weeks' supply of breadstuffs for the entire population on the present scale of consumption. That is to say, ten-thirteenths of the bread eaten in the United Kingdom will be made from home-grown breadstuffs. Shipping space totaling 2,400,000 tons is thus saved.

"We are tightening our belts," says a prominent Y. M. C. A. worker back from overseas, "in order to free the boats to take the boys from the United States to help win the war. Milk, for instance, is now on the ration list of only the sick and small children."

At Private Sale

I will sell at private sale all that farm known as "The Wethered Turner's Creek Farm," lying in the Second Election District, on the waters of Turner's Creek and the Sassafras River. This farm contains about 300 acres of land, and is one of the most beautiful locations in Kent County. The water view from the dwelling is unsurpassed, broken by the hills of Kent and Cecil County, while the land is a medium loam and easily responds to cultivation and improvement. It yields fine crops of grass, hay, wheat, corn, tomatoes and asparagus, for which the soil is extremely well adapted. The frame dwelling is situated on a rolling eminence, enjoying a commanding sweep of the surrounding country.

The waters abound in fish and wild fowl. The farm shores are noted as being one of the best duck and gunning places in Kent County.

TERMS OF SALE.—$15,000, possession given Jan. 1st, 1919. The place is now occupied by Mr. Ralph W. Shallcross, who will take pleasure in showing it to any intending purchaser. One-half the purchase money may remain on the farm at 5 per cent for either 5 or 10 years at the option of the purchaser.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2042.

Bessie May Lambert
vs.
Thomas Clarence Lambert.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Divorce, "a vinculo matrimonii," for the Plaintiff, a resident of Kent county Maryland, from the defendant. The Bill states:

1. That on the 7th day of October, 1902, she was married unto Thomas Clarence Lambert, with whom she resided in Kent County, in the State of Maryland, until about the 8th day of July, 1914.

2. That the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband, the said Thomas Clarence Lambert had always been kind, affectionate and above reproach; the said Thomas Clarence Lambert has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation. Your Oratrix does not know her husband's whereabouts but when she last heard from him he was said to be in the State of New Jersey.

3. That your Oratrix and the said Thomas Clarence Lambert have three children born to them from said marriage, the eldest of whom is a girl, and her said husband since he deserted your Oratrix has never seen her nor his children and has contributed only $30 towards the support of his children, but has never contributed to her or their support during the last three years or longer.

It is thereupon this 28th day of June A. D. 1918 Ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 29th day of July next, giving notice to the said Thomas Clarence Lambert, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of August next to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

U. S. SHIPPING BOARD RECRUITING SERVICE

A. L. Sterling, recently appointed enrolling agent for the U. S. Shipping Board Recruiting Service, reports numerous inquiries from young men, who prefer serving their country in the great war on the sea rather than on land. Most of the would-be recruits want to know what the pay is while training. They are informed that it is $30 a month, plus board and lodging, and the use of a uniform. After approximately two months on a training ship, the Merchant Marine recruits are placed in the crews of cargo or passenger vessels, for mercantile voyages to various quarters of the globe. They are exempted from military service.
