

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

Mr. Frank Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Turner, of Worton, who is with Uncle Sam's forces at Camp Meade, was home for the week-end.

Lieut. J. Thomas Kibler has been acting captain in France for several months. We would not be surprised any time to hear of him being commissioned captain.

Mr. Richard Collins, of the U. S. Merchant Marine, was home again for the week-end.

Many Kent County boys have, no doubt, been taking part in the drive of the allies against the Huns in one way or another and we feel just proud of the way all the U. S. lads have beaten the Huns the past week.

Mr. Maurice Larrimore, who had been mate on the steamer "B. S. Ford" for about a year, enlisted as a second class seaman recently in Baltimore. Mr. Larrimore, when asked what branch of the service he wanted to go into brought much applause from the crowd present by remarking "the branch that will take me to France the quickest."

The "Baltimore Sun" on Sunday contained an excellent picture of Lieut. Norman Crouch, who is in France in the aviation branch of the service.

Lieut. Frank B. Hines, of Chestertown, sent word Tuesday that he had arrived "over there."

Private Jewell F. Armstrong, of the 29th Co., 154 Depot Brigade, has been transferred from Camp Meade to Fort Niagara, N. Y.

Capt. G. Allen Jarman has received orders to report at the Medical Officers' Training Camp, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for a course of instruction.

We were glad to see our old friend, Reeder Spedden, of Houston, Texas, in town on Monday. Mr. Spedden held a very responsible position with the Emergency Fleet Corporation at a big salary. Mr. Spedden has now enlisted in the army. Mr. Spedden was a well-known Washington College athlete and was one of the best men in a pinch ever seen here.

Mr. Toughy Moore, a former W. C. student and athlete, who was reported killed in France some time ago, recently took dinner with Mr. Reeder Spedden, in Houston, Texas. Mr. Moore was greatly amused by the report of his death and sends his regards to his Chestertown friends.

Mr. Walton, of Texas, who came to Washington College with Coach Kibler's great athletic combination—Walton, Enright, Bourland—is now a lieutenant, and, by the way, is married.

Mrs. Annie Price, of Millington, has received a letter from her daughter, Miss Alida, who is nursing in France. Before offering her services as a Red Cross nurse, Miss Alida was a nurse in the Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., and formerly lived near Millington.

The work of enrolling 1,000,000 women of the United States pledged to sell one-half of the fourth Liberty Loan of $6,000,000,000 was begun last week at a conference of representatives from all parts of the country under the auspices of the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee.

Camp Meade authorities have placed 88 conscientious objectors to war on farms, where they will help to feed the army, and are subject to orders the same as soldiers in uniform. They are not to be allowed to go to their own home county or neighborhood and are to make a report once a month to military authorities.

Mr. Colin Stam left Monday for naval Reserve duty at Hampton Roads.

Mr. Rolph Townsend, of the Quartermaster's Division, of near Baltimore, was a guest of his parents, S. P. Townshend, Esq., and wife, for the week-end.

Mr. Milton Hubbard, a former W. C. boy, has enlisted in the aviation branch of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hirons were deeply gratified to receive a letter from their son, R. Norman Hirons, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces in France on Friday last. This is the first letter they have received since May 13, at which time he was in a base hospital. Mr. Hirons is well.

Cards have been received from Messrs. Harold Matthews, J. Hall Denny and Frank Lambert, Jr., announcing their safe arrival in France.

Corporal Charles Hodgkins, of Camp Dix, has been home on a furlough.

Privates Nathan Chaires, Eli Elliott, Graham Nelson and Charles Brown spent Sunday home.

Mr. Harold Chance has enlisted in the Navy in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gill have word from their son, Lee, who is in France, to the effect that he is well.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson received a letter from their son, Dr. W. Houston Toulson, recently. Dr. Toulson is close to the front line and writes that during a recent trench raid his uniform and entire outfit was stolen by the Germans. A companion physician who went to France with Dr. Toulson is a prisoner in a German camp.

Mr. Elmer Batchelor, son of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Batchelor, of Chestertown, has arrived safely in France.

Out of the forty-five who went to Camp Meade from Kent some weeks ago, only five remain in camp. The rest have gone over.

Mr. T. Kemp Bordley has resigned his position at the Wilmington Shipyard and will enter the army in the near future.

Mr. Norman Peterson, one of the first of the Kent boys to enlist, did not go over to France with the balance of his division, but is doing police duty at Camp McClellan.

The following list of young men from Kent county left Wednesday for Camp Meade on the boat: H. A. Schelts, Kennedyville; H. F. Brice, Betterton; J. L. Copper, Rock Hall; R. C. Carr, Rock Hall; W. C. Bolter, Rock Hall; E. F. Dodson, Wilmington; W. S. Beck, Rock Hall; Conlyn E. Noland, Chestertown; Charles Brown, Millington. Mr. Noland was made captain of the company until Camp Meade was reached.
