To Establish Motor Parcels Post Route

Messrs. Opyke and Mullen, inspectors from the Philadelphia Postoffice, were in consultation with Posmaster Bowers this week in reference to the establishment of a motor parcels post route from the lower part of this peninsula to Wilmington, Philadelphia and other northern cities. They have made a thorough inspection of the peninsula and will recommend its establishment. Chestertown will be a center for feeders from Rock Hall, Tolchester and Betterton. By the establishment of this service farmers and truckers will be enabled to reach the above markets with their produce which will be a convenience and will prove profitable to them.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES.

Mr. Dave Connelly, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown, is now at Camp Meade and says he feels better than he has for years.

Mr. L. Bates Russell has received a card announcing the safe arrival of his son over seas.

Private Walter Taylor, of Camp Dix, N. J., spent several days at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, near Rock Hall, recently and had the misfortune to slip and fall against the engine while fishing with his father. Dr. W. W. Beall took two stitches in one of the young man's legs.

Mr. John G. Moore, of Betterton, has arrived safely in France.

Hudson Maxim, the noted inventor, says regarding the way to make peace with Germany: "There is but one way to peace, and that is the road to Berlin. The German military ring must be broken and so shattered that it can never be reunited. Those who have been responsible for the rape of Belgium and France; those who have been responsible for the heinous outrages upon the civilian population over-ridden by Germany; those who have been responsible for torpedoing passenger vessels and hospital ships, and for dropping aerial bombs on shore hospitals; those who have been responsible for the killing and maiming of women and children in London and Paris, have placed themselves beyond the pale of any peace arrangements." And this seems to be about the opinion of civilization the world over.

Mr. Jewell Armstrong has been transferred from Camp Meade to Camp Niagara, New York.

The whole of Kent county is again saddened to hear the news that Mr. Henry Elliott Taylor, the young son of County Treasurer Harry E. Taylor, is severely wounded as a result of the recent battle in France. Mr. Taylor enlisted with Uncle Sam's forces in Wilmington, Del., about a year ago. We all trust that his injuries prove not as bad as the report indicates. The following telegram was received by his father Tuesday: "Mr. Henry E. Taylor, Worton, Kent Co., Md. Deeply regret to inform you that it is officially reported that Private Henry Elliott Taylor, machine gun battalion, was severely wounded in action July 15: McCain, the Adjt. Genl."

Another of Kent's former sons lost his life last week when Jesse K. H. Jones, son of the late A. O. Jones, of Worton, went down on the transport "Justiana," which was sunk by a submarine boat. He was employed in the engine room of the boat. Mrs. Coleman, of Baltimore, his nearest relative received notice that he was missing.

Messrs. Fred Ford, L. B. Russell, Jr., Julian Carter, John Comegys and several more Kent boys have landed safely somewhere over there.

Information was received during the past week of the safe arrival overseas of the following Chestertown young men: Messrs. Murrell Dunbracco, Maxwell Blakeney, W. T. Henry and Percy Chambers.

The local draft board has been notified that no registrants can, in the future, enlist.

Corporal Joseph Lambert, of Camp Meade, visited his mother, at the Voshell House, on Sunday.

Relatives of Private Walter Collison of Piney Neck have received information of his arrival in Italy.

Miss Emma Cooper, daughter of Mr. S. F. and the late Mrs. Anditha Cooper who recently enlisted as a nurse, was called last Friday for overseas duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford have received a letter from their son, Olin B. Stafford, who is in England. Mr. Stafford is well.

Jas. T. Hurtt, of Georgetown, Md., who enlisted in June has been called and is stationed at Cape May, N. J.

The following will go to Camp Meade on Wednesday morning: W. N. Bowen, Potomac Mills, Va.; Delbert McGuire, Locust Grove; Walter A. Clayton, Golt; Roaby Kelly, Rock Hall.
