Basketball clinic at Morgan Sunday

The Baltimore Board of Officials will play host to the annual CIAA basketball clinic at Morgan State College on Sunday.

The sessions will get under way in the Hurt gymnasium at 9 a.m., with BBO president Reggie Watts in charge. Dr. William P. Burghardt, director of physical education, will address the group.

Officiating techniques, rules changes, discussion and color slide demonstrations will occupy a major part of the period.

Spingarn triumphs

Spingarn High won the District cross-country championship Wednesday at American University, scoring a low 39 points against Dunbar High's 41.

Nimrod group eats wild game, elects

The annual Wild Game dinner was held Saturday evening in the club room of Nathan E. Harris, 1215 Madison Ave.

A menu of deer, wild turkey, and geese, rabbits, ground hog, squirrel and opossum was served, after which officers were elected.

* * *

JAMES O. LAND of Cambridge, Md., and John H. Murphy Jr., Baltimore, were elected to serve as president and secretary respectively of an organization representative of the group present, to be known as the Maryland Wild Life Game Association.

A special meeting will be held at Cambridge, Md. in the early spring to perfect final plans to perpetuate the organization.

IT WAS agreed that the ultimate purpose of organization was, to purchase suitable acreage, anywhere, upon which a game preserve would be laid for the exclusive benefit and use of the membership.

Among those present were: James O. Land, Cambridge, Md., and L. Bedford Gamby, New York, N.Y.;

Dr. T. W. Anderson, Walter Brown, Alexander B. Caldwell, C. S. Cormick, James T. Dorsey,

Paul Edwards, Clifton O. S. Gross, William Hart, Nathan Irby, Dr. Louis A. Johnson, John J. Jetter, Howard Kelson, William J. Lee, J. O. Payton, John Propter, Albert Rogers;

Phillip Rogers, William J. Simms, Howard E. Washington, Howard Wright, Nathan Yoby and John H. Murphy Jr., all of Baltimore.

Mixed cast for 'Money Fighter'

Paul Kostopoulos, a former professional boxer turned playwright, has an interracial cast in "Money Fighter," scheduled for the Unity Hall Theatre, January 26-31.

The story is an expose of the fight game and includes several actual bouts, plus a bit of romance.

"The Blenders," promising young tan harmony group, will sing in one of the lighter sequences.

IN THE BIGTIME NOW—Charley Sifford of Philadelphia, became the first tan golfer to win a major tournament in the United States last week, when he took down first money in the $11,500 Long Beach Open, in Los Angeles, Cal. He shot a 7-under par 64 on his final round to tie Eric Monti, a veteran of the pro circuit, then beat Monti in the playoff.

Tom Wilson still tops with pros

Touchdown Tommy Wilson, former star at Hillside High School, Durham, N.C., for the sixth consecutive week, held the lead in rushing among National Football League players.

The fleet Los Angeles Rams halfback, totalling 501 yards in 99 attempts, is setting the pace in both gaining and in average. His lead of 37 yards over his nearest pursuer, Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns, is good for 5.1 yards per carry.

There are five tan backs among the first ten in NFL rushing, three of them in the top four runners.

Brown, Cleveland's active young rookie, has gained 464 yards, good for second place. His 115 carries make him the busiest ball carrier in the pro loop. Jim's per-rush average is 4.7 yards.

* * *

OLLIE MATSON holds down fourth place among the ground gainers, with Hugh McElhenny being third. The Chicago Cardinals ace has covered 463 yards to be second best in average with 4.9 yards for each of 89 tries.

John Henry Johnson of Detroit, and Willie Galimore of the Chicago Bears, are ninth and tenth in rushing. The former has totalled 334 yards, the latter 331.

* * *

JACK McCLAIREN of the Pittsburgh Steelers, has taken over the lead in pass receiving. The former Bethune-Cookman College luminary has taken 31 tosses, to go out in front of the league veteran stars, Bill Howton, Harlon Hill, Johnny Carson, etc.

Matson is second to the Bears' George Blanda in scoring with seven touchdowns and 42 points. Ollie's Cardinal teammate, Dave Mann, is third in punting with a 43.9 average.

STILL ANOTHER Redbird teammate of Matson and Mann, Woodley Lewis, is fifth in punt returns and fourth in kickoff returns.

Baltimore's Milt Davis has intercepted five passes during the campaign to be tied for third in that department.

NC leads CIAA offense, Delaware best at defense

DURHAM, N.C. (CIAA News Service).—North Carolina College (4-1-0), with an average of 287 yards in 6 contests leads the 18 college CIAA in total offense this week.

The Eagles are also the loop's top rushers with 195 per game.

Delaware's Hornets (3-1-0) in 6 games have held opponents to 106 yards to gain the top defensive spot.

The Lincoln Univ. Lions (6-3-0) are the forward passing standouts for the week. In 4 games the Lions hit 20 of 40 for a total of 211 yards or 53 per game and 2 TDs.

* * *

CLIFTON JACKSON of NCC continues as individual standout in rushing and total offense. The Eagles' chief ground gainer has rushed 74 times for 632 yards and an average of 105 each affair.

Fred Hall of Elizabeth City continues as the loop's top passer with 17 of 31 heaves completed in 6 games for 309 yards and 3 TDs.

Another repeat leader is Morgan's J. Buckson who in 6 games caught 15 passes for 169 yards.

* * *

CHARLIE NAYLOR, Delaware, is scoring leader. He tallied 6 TDs and registered 7 conversions for 43 points in 6 games.

Charlie Robinson of Union with a 36-yard average for 23 kicks in 6 games is punting leader.

For complete statistics, see attached sheets.

Morgan eyes 5th straight

HAMPTON, Va. — Coach Eddie Hurt and his 26-man Morgan State College football squad, arrived here today (Friday) to await tomorrow's traditional battle with Hampton Institute.

The Golden Bears, seeking their fifth straight triumph, will be tangling with one of the CIAA's most improved outfits. Coach Ben Whaley's young Pirates were off to a slow start, but the freshman-loaded Buc squad is believed ready to play at peak form.

* * *

THE HURTMEN are expected to rely on the talented right arm of quarterback Jack Dennis, second in passing in the conference as of the most recent tabulations.

His favorite target, most likely, will be end Joe Buckson. The latter is even better rated in the CIAA statistics than his quarterback. Buckson is leading in pass receiving.

Machen KO victor over Hurricane

SAN FRANCISCO — Eddie Machen, of Redding, Cal., scored a tenth round technical knockout of Tommy Hurricane Jackson here Wednesday night in a nationally televised boxing bout.

The victory further entrenched the West Coast pride as No. 1 challenger to heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

At no time between the opening gong and the action by referee Frank Carter in stopping matters at the close of the tenth, was there any doubt that Machen would rack up his 24th straight win. He has never lost.

Jackson, landing not more than two solid punches in the entire 30 minutes, was never in the running. He was floored in the first round for a count of five and pounded virtually at will by the local youngster thereafter.

* * *

EDDIE OPENED a cut under Jackson's eye in the fourth and by the eighth round, the St. Albans, N.Y., battler could barely see out of the optic. From the sixth round through tenth, Jackson grimaced every time Machen shot a blow to the ribs. In his effort to defend against the body assaults, the Hurricane left his head wide open. That was when Eddie flailed away at the Jackson chin and eye.

* * *

ALTHOUGH referee Carter stopped the fight at the end of the tenth round, the bout goes in the record books (under California regulations) as a tenth round TKO.

The point scoring had Machen well ahead. Carter had Eddie on top 100-84, Judge Vern Bybee tallied it 100-85, and judge Jack Silver scored 99-87.

Jackson was the heavier of the two. His 201 pounds had a six-pound advantage over Machen's 195.

Sweepstakes lottery asked for tax relief

"There is no future for us at this time in a reduction of taxes. . .so, something of this nature, sooner or later, has got to be done. . .we are going to need some form of legalized lottery to reduce our taxes."

First District Councilman William Bonnett used this argument to back a resolution he co-sponsored in the City Council Tuesday afternoon, proposing a sweepstakes lottery operation in connection with the Preakness at Pimlico's race track to avoid further city tax increases.

The resolution requested that Maryland's General Assembly initiate necessary constitutional amendments to Section 36 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland, to authorize such a city-controlled lottery as a new source of revenue to meet increasing municipal expenses, rather than increased taxes.

* * *

SECTION 36 of Article 3 in the State's constitution specifies that no lottery grant shall ever hereafter be authorized by the General Assembly.

Mr. Bonnett stated that he did not have at hand all necessary facts of such an operation, but added that it was worthy of study.

City Council President Leon Abramson noted for the record that he agreed with Mr. Bonnett that something relative to a sweepstakes lottery might have merit as a tax relief. He referred the resolution to the Budget and Finance Committee.

Presenting the resolution with Mr. Bonnett were first District Councilman James J. Duffy and Joseph J. Staszak.

Berry Clips Mark In Cross-Country Run

Cheyney State Teachers College walked off with the team trophy and Morgan States Bob Berry captured the individual first place honor at Howard Universitys first annual Veterans Day cross - country run Monday.

In the process he swift Morgan ,thinclad cut 19 seconds off the, previous course record.

Cheyney placed four men in the first 10 to finish and amassed a team score of 31, 19 points better than second place Morgan.

The CIAA 2-mile champion, Bob Berry, justified being tabbed the pre-race favorite.

Leading all the way, he raced the three and half miles in 15 minutes, 30 seconds, eclipsing the course record of 15:49 set Oct. 5 by Sydney Douse of West Chester.

THE DUEL expected between Berry and Lincoln Universitys Jim Kimani, a much heralded African who runs the distances without any training, failed to come off. A cold kept Jim out of action.

Eugene Tildon, ex-McKinley Tech ace, was the first Howard finisher, taking fifth place.

The teams finished this way: Cheyney 31, Morgan 49, Lincoln 71, Howard 81, Maryland State 109. Other schools participating — Delaware State and Bowie State Teachers — had less than five entries.

A FIELD OF 48 toed the mark for the start of the race in brisk but sunny 50 - degree weather. All were bunched as they bolted out of Howard Stadium, but Berry soon took over the lead as the runners swung around the Reservoir and never relinquished it.

As the thinclads came off the hill down First St. into Bryant St., Berry increased his advantage and pulled further away as they negotiated the tough 6 St. upgrade. By the time, the Morgan ace moved into the Stadium for the final swing around the Stadium track he held a 30-yard edge on the runner - up, Sydney Douse, of Cheyney.

The Cheyney team, coached by Bill Shields, was awarded the team trophy in a brief ceremony at the conclusion of the race. The first six runners to finish also received trophies.

Flippant Colts invade den of Chicago Bears

CHICAGO — Baltimore's flippant Colts, upset winners over the Chicago Bears in a previous encounter, tussle the defending Western Conference champions Sunday at Wrigley Field in another vital National Football League test.

Both teams are on the rebound. Baltimore, after winning its first three starts, dropped three in a row before returning to the win column against the Washington Redskins.

* * *

THE BEARS got off to a slow start this season, dropping four out of their first five. They've won two in a row since then, however, and coach Paddy Driscoll's club has a "back-to-the-wall incentive Sunday.

Viewers of the contest may very well be treated to a personal duel between two of the finest young runners in the NFL, if the game reverts to a battle on the ground. The Bears have a rookie sensation in Willie Galimore, former Florida A and M scatback, and the Colts will try to match him with their own flashy sophomore, Lenny Moore.

A loss to the Colts would be Chicago's fifth of the season and practically eliminate the Bears from the Western Conference title chase.

Orioles' Boyd joins Gunthers

Bob Boyd, slugging first-baseman of the Baltimore Orioles, has joined the sales staff of the Gunther Brewing Company, it was announced early this week by Warren Carroll, director of marketing for the firm.

Boyd will be employed by Gunther as a sales representative, working in the Baltimore, Washington and Annapolis areas, until the first week of February. Later in February, he will leave to report in at the Oriole spring training camp.

"The Rope" led Oriole batters with a sparkling .317 average in 1957, good for fifth place in the American League batting derby. The 1957 season was his sophomore year with the Baltimore club. He and his family reside at 3132 Pressman Street.
