U. S. SHIPPING BOARD RECRUITING SERVICE

A. L. Sterling, recently appointed enrolling agent for the U. S. Shipping Board Recruiting Service, reports numerous inquiries from young men, who prefer serving their country in the great war on the sea rather than on land. Most of the would-be recruits want to know what the pay is while training. They are informed that it is $30 a month, plus board and lodging, and the use of a uniform. After approximately two months on a training ship, the Merchant Marine recruits are placed in the crews of cargo or passenger vessels, for mercantile voyages to various quarters of the globe. They are exempted from military service.
