Rivers Chambers estate to wife, brother and sister

Ulysses G. Chambers of Philadelphia and Mrs. Frances Watkins of this city, brother and sister of River Chambers, claimed a half of his estate under the law of distribution, this week.

Mr. Chambers well - known owner of several Chamber music orchestras, died suddenly on May 16. He left no will. The legacies to the brother and sister were relatively small, however, because the bulk of the Chambers holdings were jointly in his name and that of his wife, Mrs. Olga Chambers. Mrs. Chambers was also administrix of the estate.

AN INVENTORY indicated that the personal estate of the orchestra leader amounted to $23,097.43.

This included $15,837.48 in cash, property at 1130 Etting St., estimated to be worth $5,000; two watches, $30; a ring $125; an accordion, $10, and postal savings, $2,997.43.

In earlier action, Mrs. Chambers, petitioning the court to allow her to pay a funeral bill of $1,455, said that she and her late husband jointly owned property valued at approximately $75,000.

THE ADMINISTRATION account, filed Monday, showed that from the sale of the estate of $23,097.43, $14,297.90 was left after expenses and taxes were paid.

Distribution showed that the widow received the regulation $2000 plus a half of the residue.

Ulysses Chambers and Mrs. Watkins each received $1,250 from the Etting St. property and $1,824.47 in cash.

Training instead of punishment

Cornelius Brady, 17, 1309 N. Chapel St., got a chance on Monday in Traffic Court to give the city's Police Department some favorable publicity.

Arrested on Conveiyn and Chester Sts. last Wednesday as he drove someone else's truck, young Mr. Brady was charged with reckless driving, operating without a license and failing to stop after an accident.

Instead of giving him the full treatment, Magistrate George Cavenagh put the youth on probation for one year and provided that he get the benefit of the city's traffic safety education.

During this training for the next year, young Brady will be given the chance to learn to be a good driver with the aid of movies, practice, and the explanation of traffic laws.

Inmate who made own appeal denied reversal

ANNAPOLIS — The Court of Appeals refused Tuesday to reverse a forgery conviction prepared by a 43-year - old prison inmate who has a criminal record dating back to 1929.

The inmate, William H. Jackson, 1625 Faith Lane, Baltimore, was sentenced to the term in the House of Correction in March after a jury in Jackson's defense in the court of Judge Carter found him guilty on Jan. 7 of forging and cashing a $76 check in a tavern.

Disposition of the case was held up when Jackson requested the State to provide him free of charge a transcript of the trial proceeding in order to for a new trial.

The Baltimore Supreme Bench in a split decision denied this request.

AT HIS TRIAL Jackson argued his own case before jurors and cross examinated witnesses, although provided with a court - appointed attorney whom he attempted to discharge.

During the proceeding this week the Court of Appeals refused to accept any of the ten arguments submitted by Jackson as grounds for reversal of his conviction.

Jackson's petition appeal was the first to be granted under a Supreme Court ruling (Griffin vs. Illinois) in which it was held that "destitute defendants must be afforded as adequate appellate review as defendants who have money enough to buy transcripts."

The State furnished the inmate with a trial transcript and offered to appoint counsel, although he refused. Costs come from, will be paid out of the Governor's emergency fund, pending legislation to designate where funds for similar appeals shall come from.

Swiss Deputy head tours post system

Dr. Albert Morant, deputy secretary general, Berne, Switzerland, was in the city Monday for a general inspection of the parcel post system of Baltimore.

The inspection included the entire building with particular emphasis on the Greller Sorting System, diverters, controls and memory devices.

He was taken on the tour by William F. Laukaitis, postmaster of Baltimore and Curtis Creswell, superintendent of the parcel post system.

Self-defense plea wins freedom in man's death

A self-defense plea won an acquittal in Criminal Court of Judge Henry Davis, 17, of the 100 block N. Central Ave., who faced a murder charge resulting from the death on August 18 of Lindsay Hauser, 22, of the 1200 block E. Fayette St.

Testimony given Chief Judge Emory H. Niles revealed that the accused youth and Mr. Hauser were with some other persons in the home of Otis Davis, 1200 block E. Fayette St., young Davis' brother, on August 17, and a dispute arose between the two over change from $5 after the purchase of some whiskey.

YOUNG DAVIS contended that when he went to a nearby liquor store with Mr. Hauser, who had given the $5 from him to buy the liquor, the clerk stated that he had given Mr. Hauser the correct change.

The accused youth stated that Mr. Hauser attacked him on the outside of the store, and that he ran back to the home of his brother with Mr. Hauser following. He said Mr. Hauser again attacked him there, and he struck him one time with his fist. Mr. Hauser, he said, fell backwards, striking his head against the pavement.

The fight occurred, Judge Niles was told, on the late evening of August 17, and Mr. Hauser died the next day at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he had been taken after the altercation.

Charge pending in Poe Homes killing

"Charges against William McKinley Johnson will be filed soon."

That was the comment of police Thursday following the return to Baltimore of a 32-year-old man who is being held in connection with the fatal shooting of his wife.

A fugitive from justice since April 16, Johnson was arrested by FBI agents in a suburb outside Buffalo, N.Y. two weeks ago.

He was brought back to this city last Friday by local detectives.

Johnson's wife, Mrs. Beulah Johnson was shot in the mouth, head and heart as she fell from her home in the Poe Homes housing project in the 900 block of W. Lexington St.

People not coming to see magistrate so much this week

Magistrate Linwood G. Koger Sr. said Wednesday the docket at Northwestern was running lighter than at any time during his two and a half years there.

"I don't know what has happened but for nearly a week the docket has been lighter than I've ever known it," he said.

Magistrate Koger said he had handled only about 150 cases in the last seven days while the average is about 1,000 a month, or approximately 250 a week.

Annually Northwestern Police Court handles better than 13,000 cases and is the busiest court in Baltimore.

In Memoriam 1

BROOKS — In loving memory of our dear husband, Mr. Jesse Brooks, who departed this life November 2, 1956:

What would we give his hand to clasp,
His patient face to see,
To hear his voice in cheery tones
Once more,
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife.
And clasp each other hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
Devoted Wife,
LEE AND CHILDREN

BURROWS—In loving memory of my dear husband, RICHARD A., who passed away, Nov. 2, 1954:

When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
For a loved one gone.
If you would only come home
Or not at all my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you dearest Richard,
Three years ago today.
Devoted Wife,
LOSSIE.

CAMPBELL — In loving memory of my beloved husband, DEWITT CAMPBELL, who passed away November 1, 1956:

I did not stand beside you,
To see your life depart,
But when I heard that you were dead,
It almost broke my heart.
My dear husband what to say,
I still remember well,
You had a word to say,
You bade no one farewell.
No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who have lost yet tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence.
Your wife who loved you so well.
Your memory is as dear today
As in the hour you passed away.
YOUR LOVING WIFE.

DANGERFIELD—In loving memory of my dear son, LLOYD on his birthday, October 29, who passed away July 27, 1955:

Peaceful be thy rest dear loved one,
It is sweet to breathe your name,
In life we love you dearly
In death we do the same.
DEVOTED MOTHER
DORSIA DANGERFIELD,
Grandmother
ELLA KELLY,
Aunt
HILDA RICHARD
and Uncle,
WALTER RICHARD.

DIXON — In loving memory of my dear wife, LUCILLE, who passed away November 1, 1956:

My love cannot tell how I miss her,
My heart cannot know what to say.
My home doesn't know how I miss her,
It's a home that is lonesome today.
A weary hours, Her days of pain,
A weary nights are past,
Her everpatient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Husband,
DAN.

LANGSTON — In loving memory of our dear brother and uncle, DAVID J., who passed away five years ago, October 31, 1952:

Five years have passed since that day
When the one we loved was called to rest.
God gave him home
It was His will
Within our hearts he liveth still.
LOVING SISTER, BROTHERS, NIECES AND NEPHEWS

LAWSON—In loving memory of our beloved wife and mother DELMA LAWSON, who departed this life November 1, 1955:

We placed a rose upon your grave,
One for the passing year,
In doing so the church bells chimed,
A symbol of blessings, Mother dear.
God made us a wonderful Mother,
A mother who never grew old
He made her smile of the sunshine,
And he molded her heart of pure gold.
God made us a wonderful mother,
But He took you, dear Mother, from us.
We live each day playing such a part,
And time has healed our broken hearts.
The tears we shed are all in vain,
We know they never bring you back again,
Your love and memory still precious to us,
Our most treasured possession forever will be
God only knows that we're lonely and blue,
Someday we'll meet and Heaven will be our Heaven too.
Devoted Husband,
LAWRENCE
and Daughters,
TYMOTHINE JOHNSON
VIVIAN ADDISON

ROBINS — In loving memory of my beloved husband, DEWITT ROBINS, who departed this life November 2, 1955:

Sad and sudden
Was the call
Of one so dearly
Loved by all.
A bitter grief,
A shock severe,
It was to part
With one so dear.
I often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say goodbye,
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did our best,
To God grant you eternal rest.

In Loving Memory of

The Late Rev. Simon Williamson, D.D.

In loving memory of the late Rev. Simon Williamson D.D. who departed this life on November 7, 1956

We want you to know you are never forgotten,
That the old, old days, hid in memory sweet
Are still a part of our lives that we cherish
Without them so much would be incomplete.
And you are mixed up with so much we remember,
Your name so often we utter in prayer,
Never forgotten, on earth, or in heaven
Always the child of God's tenderest care.
Lovingly submitted,
Faith Baptist Church
Rev. Walter E. Paige, Pastor.
