BONES AND BAGS.

On account of the war many of our supplies of Bones have been cut off, and in order to get all the nice dry country bones possible, we have determined to pay about twice as much for dry bones as we used to pay, if they are delivered at our factory.

The country boys should pick up all they can and bring them to us instead of selling them to the junk dealers.

We will also pay the highest market price for good second hand Fertilizer Bags. Please communicate with us.

Very truly yours,

The Peerless Fertilizer Co.,

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

A BIT OF ADVICE

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache, headaces or dizzy spells, if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning, if the kidney secretions are irreugular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Chestertown residence desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of a Chestertown citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth?

Mrs. S. E. Kirby, Queen st., Chestertown, says: "About six years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Stam Drug Co., with very good results. I was troubled with slight disorder of the kidneys and had backache."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kirby had. Foster Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Duyer on Monday received a letter from their son, Corporal Colin F. Duyer, who is in France with Uncle Sam's troops. Corporal Duyer says he is well situated in France; that the scenery is beautiful and the wine—which is the national drink—is splendid.

Jack Enright, the former well-known W. C. Athlete, is well again and in a hospital unit.

Letters from Sergeant Thomas Herbert Skipper received since he arrived in France, indicate that he is well.

The "Baltimore Sun" contained a picture on Sunday last of Mr. Albert Spalding, known as the "fighting fiddler." He is the brother of Master Raymond Tucker, of Chestertown, who lives with Capt. and Mrs. James Tucker.

A letter from Mr. William Blyman, who is with Uncle Sam's forces in France, states that he has seen some active fighting recently, having been in two attacks and one defensive movement.

The pictorial section of the "Baltimore Sun" of Sunday contained a photo of Capt. Gault Applegarth, formerly road engineer of Kent County.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks received a letter from their son, Sergeant Irving Sparks, who is in France. Sergeant Sparks says he recently saw Lieut. J. T. Kibler walking along a street of a city on the Marne in France To say these two young men were glad to meet each other is putting it mild.

The transport "Collander" which was torpedoed a month or so ago on her return trip to America, carried a number of Chestertown and Kent Co. boys over to France.

Letters were received by the parents of Messrs. L. Bates Russell, Jr., and W. F. Russell, Jr., mailed in France, this week. These young men were among the first to enlist in Kent Co. when the war started.

From present indications it is quite probable that the draft ages will be extended to from 18 to 45 years. This will bring a large number of additional men to the colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hicks were much gratified to hear from their son, Sergeant Leon Hicks on Monday. Sergeant Hicks now has a gold stripe on his arm, signifying that he has spent six months in active service. He says one of the amusing sights to soldiers who have seen active service is to see a bunch of new men ducking and dodging when a bomb explodes somewhere around.

Mr. Earle Duyer, who enlisted at the beginning of the war and who has been stationed at Waco, Texas, for over a year, was a guest of his parents for a few hours on Sunday. It is understood that Mr. Duyer will soon "go over."

A letter from Mr. Charles Lee Gill, who is in France, states that he is delighted with the country there.

Lieut. Norman Crouch recently wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Crouch, from France, that he expects to join the "bombing squadron" of the allies. This squadron will be made up of the most expert of the English, French and American aviators, who will bomb the forts and arsenals along the Rhine river and make living in Germany in general disagreeable for ly:

The "Philadelphia Bulletin" published the following dramatic poem, entitled "Der Nacht" ("The Night"), on Tuesday evening:

Der Tag arrived. The Teuton struck
And like the Malay ran amuck.
The dripping deeds by devils done
Will live to haunt each dying Hun—
To crawl before the Future's eyes
Through centuries and centuries.
Weird wails of women at the feasts
Of swinish, soulless, sodden beasts;
Shrill cries of babes—of little ones
Flung to the Moloch of the Huns—
Shrill cries above the rolling drum,
It was "Der Tag!"
Ded Tag had come!

Now comes Der Nacht—God's awful Night—
To be the shroud of German Might!
In vain the German war lords flay
Their sodden slaves into the fray.
In vain their legions seek to face
The Manhood of the human race!
Before this bright and knightly train
The Baby Killers fall like grain
Before the scythe! In terror dumb
They see "Der Nacht!"
Der Nacht has come!

Private Granville Ashley has written his aunt, Mrs. William Durding, a most interesting letter, describing a recent trip to Camp Forrest, Lytle, Ga.

A letter was received from Sergeant Julian Carter, from France, this week.

Many Kent County boys have sent home the following autograph letter from King George of England recently:

"Soldiers of the United States, the people of the British Isles welcome you on your way to take your stand beside the armies of many nations now fighting in the Old World the great battle for human freedom.

"The Allies will gain new heart and spirit in your company. I wish that I could shake the hand of each one of you and bid you God speed on your mission."

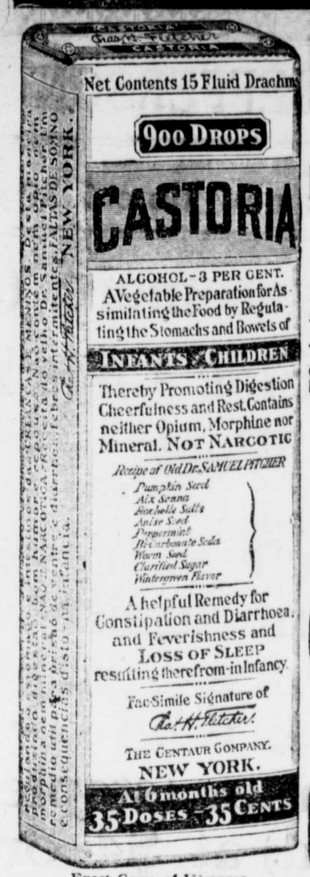

Private Charles Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Price, of near St. Paul's, has been transferred from a camp in Georgia to Anniston, Ala.

Mrs. Thomas Rich has received a letter from her son, Mr. Bernard Rich, from France, recently. He tells of a splendid trip across the ocean.

Capt. J. Paul Jacobs is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Jacobs, in Millington. He has been in foreign service for about six months.

Pennsylvania has sent 168,575 men into service through the draft.

The death of Miss Wilhemina Hurlock occurred Saturday night at the home of her nephew, Mr. W. M. Hurlock, near Kennedyville, from Bright's disease, aged 75 years. She was the sister of the late John S. and Wm. J. Hurlock. The funeral services were held Tuesday, conducted by the Rev. Peter Schauer; interment was in Blackiston church yard, near Kenton, Del. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of arrangements.
