ANNOUNCEMENT.

To Friends and the Public:

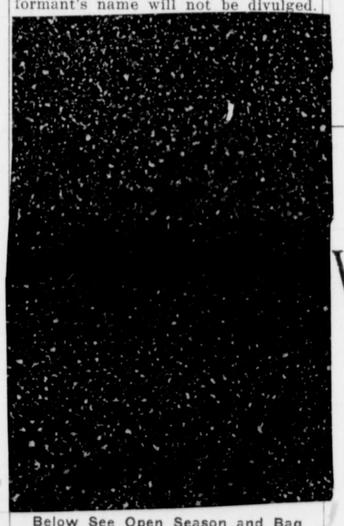

Relative to my recent appointment by the Conservation Commission of Maryland as District Deputy Game Warden for Cecil, Kent and Queen Annes counties, to enforce the law and conserve the Game and Fish for the benefit of our people at home and those across the waters defending our country, it is my desire to briefly state for the benefit of all concerned, the obligations and duties incurred by me through this acceptance, desiring most earnestly the co-operation of friends and citizens of these counties in helping me to conform to the requirements and the enforcement of our Game, Fish and other laws. Realizing that it is the duty of each citizen to help enforce the State and county laws, if you are or wish to become a highly respected citizen of this or any State, it behooves you—First, to become a part of that State and conform with its laws. It is not my desire, because of empowered authority, to encroach on or encumber any one's rights, and I would like to end my term as State Officer without the prosecution of a single violator, but this can be accomplished only by the assistance of my friends, and the public at large familiarizing themselves with our laws and thereby become non-violators.

I most respectfully solicit your hearty support in helping me enforce our State and County Laws and sharing that which is due us—the world's highest respect.

In performing my duty in accordance with the solemn oath required which is the most binding obligation to the people of our State, I will, without fear or hesitation, enforce our State Game, Fish and other Laws under my jurisdiction, regardless of who the violator may be, and I sincerely hope my frankness of explanation will be sufficient to warrant the public's recognition of my duties and wishes and the State's power.

Believing it advisable for the benefit of those interested in our State's welfare and a protection for all, we will later publish in this paper the State Game and Fish Laws, enacted by our last General Assembly. Should there be any questions that you may wish to ask pertaining to game or fish, it will give me great pleasure to consult with you in person or by letter.

The Conservation Board has requested that I recommend a number of reputable citizens from the counties under my supervision for the appointments of Local Deputy Game Wardens. These appointments make the appointees, state officers, without a stated salary, the compensation being one-half of the fines imposed for violations. Those wishing to be more patriotic and loyal to our State in helping conserve our Game and Fish food, aiding materially in helping win this great war, will without delay inform me of their desire and I will consider their application for appointment. Information pertaining to the violations of our State Game and Fish Laws will be treated strictly confidential and informant's name will not be divulged.
