Ames Methodist plans 100th anniversary Oct. 13-27

The 100th anniversary of Ames Memorial Methodist Church, Carey and Baker Sts., will open on Sunday, Oct. 13, with a series of programs lasting throughout the day.

The celebration will extend until Sunday, Oct. 27, when activities will be climaxed with a historical pageant portraying 100 years of Christian service in the City of Baltimore.

This Sunday's program will open with the 11 a.m. service at which the sermon will be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Frank J. Frye. The 3:30 p.m. services will be under the auspices of the Ames Church school and the Commission on Christian Education, Clarence Robert, superintendent.

The address will be by the Rev. Levi B. Miller Jr., executive secretary of the Washington Conference, Board of Education.

The day will close with an evangelistic hour at 8 p.m.

ON TUESDAY at 9 p.m., a fellowship service will be held with the Presbyterian Churches of Baltimore and vicinity. This will be under the auspices of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Virginia Tabb, president.

The sermon will be by the Rev. Reginald J. Davis of the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church.

Baptist Churches of Baltimore and vicinity will be represented at the Wednesday night services.

Dr. J. Timothy Boddie, pastor of New Shiloh Baptist Church and president of the State Baptist Convention, will be the speaker.

Thursday's services will be given over to the AME Churches. The sermon will be by Dr. W. P. Mitchell, pastor of Payne Memorial AME Church.

A musical recital by the Mt. Zion Methodist Senior choir will be held on Friday.

Theme of the observance will be "Advancing With Christ Through the Ages."

The Council roster, however, showed six laymen and seven clergymen tried Bishop Nichols and that the vote to acquit him was cast by four clerics and six laymen.

Bishop Nichols was transferred from the Florida district to the Cuba, South America area.

ATTORNEYS for the Bishop filed sworn affidavits with the Council charging two members of the lower church with making prejudiced statements in advance of the trial.

Bishop Nichols sought in vain to have them disqualifs themselves.

Judge Perry said the Council did not act upon these affidavits, but limited itself to the seven specific charges of whether Bishop Nichols had directly or indirectly mishandled money.

ticized a general conference which, because it had named so large a number of laymen to the Judicial Council, said laymen "dominated" the Council.

Foreign members of the Council were unable to attend the Cleveland deliberation because of the distance.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery
Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that doctors were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Jackson enters decree in Nichols' acquittal

CLEVELAND — A decree of the AME Judicial Council finding Bishop D. Ward Nichols not guilty of maladministration was issued Tuesday of last week.

Judge Perry B. Jackson of the Cleveland Municipal Court, president of the Council, wrote the decision for his associates.

The Council is the AME's Supreme Court.

ITS SESSIONS were held Sept. 5 to 7 in Cleveland's Hollenden Hotel, with 13 black-robed counsellors around a table.

THE ATMOSPHERE, dignity and decorum of a Federal court room prevailed. Bishops occupied front seats and some 50 spectators were present.

Mrs. Sadie T. M. Alexander, attorney for the church, contended Saturday, the Council did not have jurisdiction to go into the facts of the case.

Also, she refused to say whether or not she feels both sides were "fairly heard." She said the answer depends upon what one means by "fairly heard."

Copies of the record of the lower church court in two volumes were provided for counsellors as well as bound copies of the briefs of the lawyers for the church and Bishop Nichols.

The council divided 10 - 3 in favor of Bishop Nichols.

COUNSELLORS, avoiding technicalities, found there was no evidence that the Bishop had personally received a penny.

Testimony did not support the alleged charges, Judge Perry stated.

Asked if the three dissenting counsellors had asked to file a minority report, Judge Bergy said: no.

A so-called minority report filed by the Rev. P. D. Q. Wallace and published recently in a church weekly, came as a surprise.

Town's social doings mount with calendar

With Lula Jones Garrett

Love the hop, skip jump of this town's activities. One September day you're pining because there's little to do. The next October day you're complaining because you can't possibly manage the load of activities dumped on your calendar.

Clubs, of course, are swinging out on all cylinders.

When the Links dashed to Frederick, Md. to that very swank home of the Charles Hicks to be entertained by Marie, last week, they set up plans for a Halloween party (with husbands as guests) at the new Barrington Rd. home of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Burwell; maybe a trip to New York, surely a Christmas party and a summer affair (their annual picnic) at Arundel - On - The-Bay.

AND WHEN THE SIGMA Wives met with Ellen in The Billy Russels' super new Powhatan Avenue club room they were itching to get done with the business at hand so they could ogle the last word in thrree - level beauties facing Mondawmin lake that is the Russell home.

Business was the final planning for their showing of "Magic in Fashions" to be given this Sunday at the YWCA. Reva Lewie, former honor art student at Morgan, now teaching at Booker T. Washington Junior High School No. 130, is chairman. She promises a special surprise in addition to fashions for the whole family, from meddlrs to daddies.

With plans squared away, the guests had a chance to admire the Russels' dream house, with its specially built furniture, remote controlled hi-fi, glass walled rooms with wall-to-wall drapes, and the latest in club rooms. Truly a dream.

Co-hosting with Mrs. Russell were Catherine Greene and Leliya Blackwell, Naomi Carper is president.

THE RACHEL TAYLOR Wesleyan Service Guild had smoothed out all the wrinkles in their plans for the presentation of their "Music By Three," a concert on the 27th.

That afternoon (5:30 p.m.) you will hear Penelope Johnson, violinist; Thomas J. Donahue, tenor, and Robert Harris, pianist, all graduates of Lulliard, in Metropolitan Methodist Church.

Verda Gosnell is chairman of this affair, and her co-chairman is Florence Murray.

BUTTONS AND BOWS will have 112 kiddies at their annual costume party on the 26th. Morgan State College Refectory will be the setting for the affair. And on the 19th, how will one tear oneself between the Woman's Auxiliary workshop at St. James Episcopal Church, and the Baltimore Urban League Guild's one - day conference at International Center YWCA? The next afternoon (the 27th, beginning at 3 p.m.) the Spencer G. Dobson Circle will present an autumn musical tea . . . at which Pauline Brooks will show clothes, Nellie Sheridan, hats, and the music will be provided by Arthur Warner, soloist and David C. Dobson, pianist.

THE ALPHA WIVES, led by energetic Catherine Adams, will be hosts Friday to their first autumn fiesta cocktail party and dance at the Unity Hall on Dundalk Ave. The affair has been planned to raise funds for the group's NAACP life membership and for scholarships to deserving students.

Olivia P. Dixon is serving as general chairman of the party, which is expected to attract hundreds of the state's teachers assembled for their annual convention this weekend.

SPEAKING of teen-age parties, well, Maria A. Clark celebrated her thirteenth natal day with a Tenth of her close friends Saturday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark.

The boys and girls had lots of fun playing games, dancing (to be sure), and eating.

Guests who helped her celebrate were:

Cecelia Chatman, Robert Payne, Jacquelyn Finney, Herbert Chissell, Lenore Woods, Robert H. Clark, Carol Martin, Harold Jeniffer Jacquelyn Costa;

Brooks, LaVerne Lockwood, Jo Ann Bracey, Michael Wesley Marshall, Wilhelma Garrier, William Lewis, Barbara Prestwidge, George Lottier, Carolyn Holland, James McGlothern.

Mary Ann Lassiter, Marcia Smothers, Antoinette Porter, Linda Lee, Yvonne Barnes and Brenda Winckler.

RUTH FORTUNE heads those interprising Martiniques this year.

She was elected at the opening meeting, in the lavishly furnished home of Mrs. Hester Greenway, Franklintown, Rd.

Other officers elected were Dorothea Foster, vice president; Serena Forehand, recording secretary; Myrtle Thompson, financial secretary; Susie Moore, treasurer; Dorothy Lee Davis, business manager; Alma Lyle Perry, chaplain and Beatrice Smith, editor.

Also present as the session were Irene Cooper Harris, president; Jacqueline and Julia Chandler.

New business with the Martiniques is a Rainbow Ball coming up soon. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were served after the meeting was adjourned.

ON FRIDAY, President and Mrs. Parlett L. Moore entertained in their Thomas Avenue home, the Coppin State Teachers College faculty and their wives or husbands at a beautifully arranged dinner.

Among those present were:

Dean Grace H. Jacobs, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Abernethy, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Byron, Miss Gwendolyn M. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clark, Mrs. Allie Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Dearing (Mrs. Dearing is known professionally as Dr. Lillian Dabney), Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Dedmond;

Dr. Leonea B. Dudley, Dr. Clarence J. Fields and his daughter, Miss Rhonda C. Fields; Mrs. Jeannette W. Gray, Miss V. Mae Gray and her mother, Mrs. Flora Gray;

Dr. and Mrs. Howard D. Langford, Dr. and Mrs. Richard McKinney, Miss Ruth Outlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Cardrew Perrin, Miss Louise Roane, Mrs. Corinda Waters and Mrs. Evelyn Williams.

THE REVELERS, so named because the club was organized a year ago strictly for fun and relaxation, was entertained at its opening session, Tuesday, by Mrs. Sallie Nicholas at her Madison Ave. home.

Dinner at seven was followed by bridge, with Mrs. Gwendolyn Lewis and Mrs. Catherine Mayo, of the members taking first and second prizes, respectively; and guest prizes going to Mrs. Sadie Murphy, first; and Mrs. Elsie Hunt, second. Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, who kept score, received a gift.

Other members of the club playing were Mesdames Mattie Coasey, Lillian Brown, Louise Perrin, Allegra Taylor and Phyllis McKinney. Guests also included Mesdames Vashti Murphy and Mattie Connor.

MRS. HORTENSE WILSON, of Pleasantville, N.J., was the guest in whose honor Mrs. Dorothy Evans gave a luncheon on Thursday.

Sgt. and Mrs. Wilson were through on a tour of the South. Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Adele Proctor, Mrs. Lydia Frances, Mrs. Avon Adele, Mrs. Marva Belle and Mrs. Jennie Williams.

AND LIST among other organizational activities: Virginia Manning's and Shirley Kyle's hosting of the Flower Guild of St. James Episcopal Church (Sadie Douglas presiding) Tuesday evening; The Cooperative Women's Civic League's board meeting on Wednesday night in Civic League House, with the president, Mrs. Vivian Cook shaping up the program for the year . . . deciding on participation with United Nations, the Council of Christians and Jews and Care on the international end; on the annual luncheon, locally, and checking on the City Beautiful and ward activities projects.

ROSALIE AND KILLION JENKINS hosted friends at pinochle and buffet supper.

TEACHERS AT MEETING — The annual meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association attracted these representatives of the teaching profession. Left to right: Mrs. Margaret Kane, sixth grade teacher; Miss Lillian Gooby, first grade; Miss Katherine Jones, second and third grade, and Miss Doretha Thomas, third grade. They are from the South County Elementary School.

St. James auxiliary slates conference

With a view towards enlisting the talents of all the women of St. James Episcopal Church in the church's program of worship, study, service, fellowship and gifts, a conference and workshop will be held on October 19.

The conference, under auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, will begin with Holy Communion at 11 a.m. The program will follow immediately.

THEME OF the program is "There is a Job for Every Woman in St. James."

Speakers will include:

Mrs. Van B. Shriver, vice president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Maryland; Mrs. Richard C. Sondon, devotional chairman, Mrs. J. Preston Seldon, educational chairman;

Mrs. Carlton C. Douglas, warden of the Flower Guild, Mrs. William H. Robinson of the Diocesan Executive Council; and Mrs. Ernest A. Johnson, warden of the Bragg Guild.

LUNCH WILL be served at noon. There will be no charges for the meal.

Mrs. Chandler Wynn, auxiliary president, in urging a full attendance at the conference, points out that every woman of the church is potentially a member of the Auxiliary. Her baptism confers upon her that privilege. The only necessity for membership is by participating in the Auxiliary's program.

Dr. Gladys Jones is educational chairman for the church.

COUNCIL TO MEET

The monthly State Council of Administration of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Maryland, will be held at the home of Union Memorial Post No. 8806, Union Bridge, Md., 2 p.m. Sunday, October 13.

The council will take action on the refusal of Governor McKeldin to appoint the veterans committee to study the veterans bonus question as passed by the last session of the Maryland General Assembly.

Weldon Leroy Maddox will preside.
