ESSENTIAL INDUSTRIES OF THE NATION IN FOUR CLASSES

Listed According To Their Importance To The Government

The industries of the country have been grouped into four classes, according to their relative importance. No distinction, however, has been made between any of the industries or the plants within any one class, and it was explained that no significance is to be attached to the order in which they are listed within any class. The industries or plants under Class 1 are of exceptional importance, and include those most vital to the prosecution of the war and the public, and their requirements must be fully met in preference to those of the three remaining classes.

The industries, according to their importance, are listed as follows:

CLASS ONE.—Plants principally engaged in producing aircraft, supplies and equipment, ammunition for the United States and the Allies; ordnance and small arms for the United States and the Allies; chemicals for explosives, ammunition and aircraft and use in chemical warfare; metallurgical coke and by-products, including toluol; explosives for military purposes; feed for live stock and poultry; food, including cereals and cereal products, meats including poultry, fish, vegetables, fruit, sugar, syrups, glucose, mutton, eggs, cheese, milk and cream, lard, lard compounds, oleomargarine and other substitutes for butter or lard, vegetable oil, beans, salt, coffee, baking powder, soda and yeast, and ammonia for refrigeration; fungacides, oil and natural gas for fuel or mechanical purposes (including pipe lines and pumping stations); toluol (gas plants); ships, other than pleasure craft or vessels not built for the United States or the Allies or under license of the Shipping Board, steel plants, plants producing solely steel ingots and castings by the various processes; domestic consumers of fuel and electric energy for residential consumption, including homes, apartment houses, residential flats, restaurants and hotels, coal mines, arsenals, cantonments and camps of the army and navy yards, railways operated by the United States Railroad Administration, maintenance and operation of ships, excluding pleasure craft, not common carriers, and maintenance of public buildings used as hospitals or sanitoriums.

CLASS TWO—Plants principally engaged in producing locomotive or traveling cranes, rolling and drawing copper, brass and other copper alloys, coke not otherwise classified and listed, ferro alloys, machine tools and wire rope, blast furnaces producing pig iron; steel rail mills (producing rails over 50 pounds per yard); construction work of the War or Navy Departments in embarkation ports, harbors, fortifications, flood protection, operations, docks, locks, channels, inland waterways and in maintenance and repair of same; mines producing metals and ferro alloy minerals; street railways, electric lighting and power companies, gas plants not otherwise classified, telephone and telegraph companies, water supply companies and like general utilities; railways not operated by the United States, excluding those operated as plant facilties.

CLASS THREE—Plants engaged principally in producing food not otherwise listed, tin plate and small or drinks, confectionery and chewing gum; ice, mining tools and equipment, equipment and supplies for producing or transporting oil or gas for mechanical purposes, iron and steel chains, electrical equipment, explosives not otherwise lised, tin plate and small or hand tools for working wood or metal; fuel and electric energy for domestic consumers not otherwise listed; steel rolling and drawing mills not otherwise listed; maintenance of public buildings, other than those used as hospitals and sanitariums.

CLASS FOUR—Laundries, plants engaged principally in producing and manufacturing hemp, jute and cotton bags, manufacturing chemicals not otherwise listed, medicines and medical and surgical supplies, fertilizers, fire brick, gray iron and malleable iron castings, food containers, insecticides and fungicides, soap, tanned leather and tanning extracts, cotton and woolen knit goods, textile machning, weaving and finishing, cotton and woolen knit goods, tetxile machinery, binder-twine and rope; plants engaged exclusively in manufacturing boots and shoes; plants engaged exclusively in manufacturing pulp and paper; cotton compressing; plants engaged principally in producing newspapers or periodicals which are entered at the postoffice as second-class matter; plants preserving, drying, curing, packing and storing tobacco, but not for manufacturing and marketing.

—Five thousand owners of motor trucks will have to line up from now on under a ban devised by Colonel Baughman, who says he will appoint a special deputy to be known as a truck investigator, whose duty it will be to overhaul all motor trucks now in operation in the State to ascertain the weight and engine number.

SPECIAL SUMMER COURSES

For teachers

For those who wish to prepare for a new line of work

For those who desire to do better work in the positions they now hold and to qualify for better positions.

You know "The only difference between a rut and a grave is length and depth."

Our plan of individual instruction insures to a student the instruction which HE needs, not what Tom, Dick or Harry may reqiure but what he personally needs. In other words, WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF EACH STUDENT.

Practical courses or elective studies. Reasonable rates. Satisfaction guaranteed. Students enter at any time.

Why not arrange for a special course this summer? You will never regret time or money invested in practical training, and this extra effort on your part will go farther than you think toward helping to win the war.
