Gruenther will visit Red Cross

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross, who will be the principal speaker at the Association of Commerce luncheon April 15, will visit the Baltimore Red Cross Chapter at 22nd and St. Paul Streets later in the afternoon.

The general, escorted by Frederick L. Wehr, chapter chairman, will make an informal tour of headquarters and later attend a meeting of the board of directors.

At 5:00 p.m. he will be presented to the Red Cross volunteers at an informal reception to be held in the headquarters main corridor and will make a short address. Refreshments will be served by volunteers of the Canteen Service.

Women's Civic League to present Mrs. Ruth Spencer with Lula Jones Garrett

The 35th annual luncheon of the Cooperative Women's Civil League, on April 27, will have as guest speaker, Mrs. Ruth Spencer, recently appointed member of the Washington School Board and noted civic worker in the Nation's Capital.

The luncheon, which will have only 50 guests, will be held in the Civic League House.

The league this year under presidency of Mrs. Ralph Cook, has adopted a three-point program: first to increase the number of wards throughout the city; to revive the city's beautiful program—and to institute a program in art education and appreciation.

Mrs. Vivian H. Bundy is chairman of the luncheon committee.

ON SATURDAY, when Les Amies met with Frances Gardner, the business on hand was plans for their forth coming cabaret party.

The party last year was such a success that plans had to be made on a much larger scale this year.

After the business meeting the girls retired to the clubroom for cocktails and delicious food, and the remainder of the evening playing Tripoli.

The meeting was attended by Pearl Moulton, Marjorie Carter, Delores Puryear, Natalie Dunley, Delia Saunders, Octavia Jones, Catherine Coleman, Josephine Johnson, Evelyn Gail and Ora Hardison.

THE TIME Pharatria, recently organized with the aid of Epsilon Sigma chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, have made plans for a splash party at the YMCA for orphans of Saint Gabriel's Home, as well as a party for the Home's graduates.

The club's membership is made up of some of the participants in last year's Ideal Teen-Ager Contest held by Delta, and future members will be selected from this year's contestants.

Vicki Lipscomb, Henri Ann Daniels, Sylvia Brooks and Donna Tyler are president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Others on the roster include Quanta Smith, Tulie Lang, Portia Smith, Sharon Phillips, Patricia Roberts, Gwendolyn Alston, Paula Lawson, Joan Lawson, Delores Lawe.

Also Anita Turks, Vicki Shipley, Margaret Taylor, Beverly Jackson, Norma Brown, Harriet Brown, Windy Parker, Rita Anderson, Iantha Lake, Maxine Brown, Carmen Bolton.

Also Gloria Weaver, Delores Jackson, Carol J. Poulson, Sylvia Patterson, Joan Young, Barbara Cooper, Burnetta Brown, Dale Covington, Florence Montague.

Also Ruthie Kirk, Pat Wingfield, Maxine Brooks, Sarylla Lakeman, Constance Harcum, Maxine Bates, Lurline Young, Delores Woods and Margie Mooney.

DELTA SIGMA Thetas, incidentally, are garnering bouquets, this week, for the quality and interest of their Sunday's "Town Meeting", when they featured William Worthy Jr., Foreign Correspondent for this newspaper and Nieman Fellow in journalism at Harvard University. Our Cliff W. Mackay (he's editor in chief) and Edgar Jones of the Evening Sun were other discussants and Dr. G. James Fleming, political scientist, was moderator.

There were musical interludes by Frances Hill and Gloria Stokes, organist and pianist, respectively, and readings by Rebecca E. Carroll, chairman. They packed the center with an international audience.

The Town Meeting was a national project, a five-point program stressing the theme "Releasing the Potential for Better Human Relations."

The chapter's community service committee includes Pearl Brackett, Juliette Bragg, Anne Fuller, Ethel J. Hucles, Mary Jacobs, Mary Pitts, Florence Pulley, Lelia Terry, Beryl Williams, Verda Welcome and A. Dukye Woode. Mae W. Allen is coordinator for the five-point project of the chapter.

The Baltimore Chapter of the Alumni Association of Cheyney (Pa.) State Teachers' College met on Saturday past at the home of Ralph Roberts and elected the following officers:

Ethel Rich, president; Ralph Roberts, vice-president; Clara Jones, corresponding secretary; Gertrude Williams, recording secretary; Dorothy Brock, treasurer; Lena Lee, Hazel Butler, and Amy Hawkins to the executive committee.

Present for the meeting were Lucelot Tynes, national president; Laura Butler, national treasurer and Betty Scruggs, national membership secretary all from Philadelphia.

By the way, all Chyneyites in the city are asked to get in touch with a member of the group.

AFTER THE Carl Murphy testimonial Sunday, several persons dropped by the Cliff Mackays for a chat with William Worthy, AFRO foreign correspondent, who made the daring trip into Red China last Christmas ve.

Mr. Worthy, now studying on a Neiman Fellowship at Harvard University, had been the principal speaker earlier in the day during the Delta Sigma Theta Town Meeting in Morgan Christian Center.

Invited to drop by to hear first hand of Mr. Worthy's exciting experiences were Miss Ruth Jenkins, Mrs. Ruth Roleson and Miss Marian Ziegler all of Philadelphia; Mrs. Carlita Jones of Buffalo, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris, Mrs. Vashti Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lautier, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Huskins, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Patterson, and Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy.

POT POURRI: Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Christman will be in their new Dorchester Rd. home any day now...all that remained to do this week was the redecorating of a bedroom. The Charles Fletchers (of the Harris Moving Company) are ensconsed on Gwynns Falls Parkway.

That attractive split-level at Alto Road and Lynhurst is now the maison of Mr. Thomas Parkers. And the T-V and Radio folks, the J. C. Reaveses, have taken a place at Allendale Road and Bateman.

No wonder Archie D. Williams (attorney and incidentally, broker for all the above) is turning corners on two wheels, there days...he's busier than a bee in a new mown hay field.

Tucked at Sinai Hospital Hospital this week, after surgery are Willie Valentine (Red Cross Metro Corp.) and Emm Henderson, schoolmarm, Verda Welcome is recuperating after three weeks abed.

Mrs. J. Victor Scriber is back in her Gwynns Falls Parkway home after a jaunt to Provident Hospital, where she underwent surgery. She and Mr. Scriber have incidentally just celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

The Granville H. Marshalls are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, who arrived Saturday morning at Hadley Memorial Hospital, Washington. Baby weighed six pounds, 12½ ounces, and is, of course named for the father.

This is the second child for the couple, their first is a little girl, now 1½ years old. Mrs. Marshall is the former Jacqueline Spencer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Emerson B. Spencer of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Marshall, a graduate student in the Howard University Dental School is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus W. Marshall, Sr. of this city.

And Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Dickerson (both formerly of hereabouts) became parents for the first time, Monday, when their little girl arrived at Freedmen's Hospital in Washington. This young miss tipped the scales at eight pounds; one ounce.

The father, a student in the Dental School, Howard University, is the nephew of Mrs. Susie Clark of this city. Mrs. Dickerson, the former Kathryn Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrick Brooks of this city, is on the staff of the Agricultural Service Division of the University of Maryland.

DATE DATA: The Epicureans are wearing smiles now. For a while there, the gals were a bit worried about their coming bridge party on April 27, but it promises to be quite an event, with over 100 tables vying for prizes.

Speaking of prizes, besides having a portable television as first award, they've garnered such items as silver tea service, barbecue grills, cases and cases of notables to present to the lucky winners.

Gold-embossed invitations to the annual spring formal of Delta Lambda chapter, Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity will be in the mail next week.

The affair this year for the first time is being held at the beautiful Alcazar Ballroom, Cathedral and Eager Sts., and something novel in arrangements has been planned by the social committee headed by Joseph Bracey.

The most unusual feature will be a wide balcony surrounding the ballroom for the comfort of spectators.

There will be no chairs on the ballroom floor which will be limited to dances only.

Music is to be furnished by Stan Bridges and his Green Spring Inn Orchestra, which made such a favorable impression at last year's formal at last year's formal at the Famous Ballroom.

A practice followed in New York and Philadelphia of placing a curfew on late guests is being considered for the affair.

At the majority of formal dances in New York, guests who have not arrived before a 12:30 deadline are not permitted to enter.

The guest whose costume is judged the most beautiful will garner a $100 bond when the Arts Ball on Easter Monday, Baltimore Urban League Guild holds its third annual Beaux Arts Ball.

The affair is to be in the Famous Ballroom, and decorated under the theme "Spring Fantasy." Second prize is a $75 bond (for the ladies) and third prize, $50 bond, (most mysterious). And the young woman who wins the "Miss Guild" contest will garner a $200 wardrobe.

The Guild will have Tiny Meeker's Orchestra to provide the dance music. Ruth Lee is chairman of the affair; Fannie Glascoe, of tickets; Vivian Young, publicity; Gloria Fisher, souvenir program; Olivia Dixon, contest; and Bernyce Guild members and the Urban League office have tickets.

The natives will need atomic skates for Easter week interval. Chi Delta Mu's (some 100 strong) who will hold a conclave here, are inspiring a set of entertainment, (from 1 Sun. Monday luncheon, a Tuesday afternoon card party (to entertain the wives especially) and a Tuesday night dance in the famous Ballroom.

Les Femmes Continentals are hostesses at colorful dance

Prettiest dance of the week was held on Friday night, when Les Femmes Continentals held forth in the Armory at Towson.

Added to the lighting effects were the additional decorations of colorful balsons and plaques. Guests were served from individual flower decked tables, who had on duty manned the wheeled bar which kept glasses filled.

The beautifully dressed hostesses included:

Charlotte Johnson, gay in blue tone, made with a portrait neckline and full skirt. Ada Smith, whose full-skirted red chiffon was further enhanced with roses at the side.

Susie Graham, who selected tiered skirt; Alberta Brown in blue lace, also, but with a chiffon, the new full length skirt being well sequined; Natalie Phelps, who wore blue taffeta with a big pouf at the back.

Ruth Fortune, was in a metalic champagne sheath; Elizabeth Day, also in sheath, but of multiple print; Geneva Dyson, who selected black net and tulle in tiers upon tiers to form the skirt and highlighted with a spray of flowers at the back; Zelma Johnson's frock of blue had a halter neck and a flaring skirt, and Viola Clarke wore a soft champagne chiffon frock.

* * *

THE THEODORE (Charlotte) Johnsons gave one of the numerous breakfast parties that followed the dance.

At their Pulaski St. home they had:

Gene Jackson, Bernice Craig and Clifford Darden of Washington; Nellie Mosby, Dorothy Fowler and James Warfield of Philadelphia;

Doris Wedford, Richard and Estellena Showes, Warren and Louise Clegg, Rudolph and Sarah Johnson, James Skyles, Sgt. and Mrs. Haggett, who are just in from the Philippines and any day now will be off to France.

Guests not only enjoyed the ham, eggs and coffee that the hosts provided but stayed until around until 8:30 next morning playing dominoes.

Miss Sylvia Browne is winner in Omegas' Talent Contest

Talented and attractive Miss Sylvia Browne, a sophomore at the College of Notre Dame of Maryland, took first honors in the fourth annual Talent Hunt sponsored by the Baltimore graduate chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Friday night.

The contest was held in the Carver Vocational-Technical High School Auditorium. Earl Chaney, baritone-tenor of Carver, placed second for the second consecutive year, while his schoolmate, Rufus Watkins, tenor, won third prize.

Miss Browne, a lyric soprano, won the unanimous approval of A. Jack Thomas, Mrs. Ethel Henry, and Gerald Burks Wilson, the judges, for her performance of "Un bel di vedremo" from Puccini's "Madame Butterfly." Her awards a $50 Savings Bond; a gold trophy and an invitation to represent Pi Omega chapter in the Second District Talent Hunt in Newark, N.J. in June.

THE SECOND prize, which Chaney won for his performance of a selection from Gounod's Faust, was a trophy and $25 bond, and the third prize of a trophy and $10 cash went to Watkins for his performance of "Deep in My Heart" from Sigmund Romberg's Student Prince.

The Carver students including Katie Smith and Earl Booker and Dunbar students Joan Distance and Ronald Grove had performed earlier in the same evening in the Choir Festival held by the Music Department of the public schools in another auditorium.

Other contestants, all of whom received certificates of merit, were Theodore Lee, Barbara Owens, Caolyn Ford, Barbara Smith, Dorothy White, Herbert Muldrow, Barry Shepard, Joyce Parker, Shirley Hemigan (of Douglass), Matthew Fraling, Jr. (of Morgan), and Miriam E. Lee (of Coleman Point Jr.) During intermission, entertainment was provided by the Marodells trio composed of Una Dobson, Mary Fowlkes, and Barbara Jones (all of Douglass).

W. DuBois Johnson and Sinclair Swan, Sr. were the co-chairmen of the Talent Hunt committee.

Mrs. K. Albert Harden and their daughter, Katherine, are in Boston, where, on Wednesday, he was inducted into the American College of Physicians. En route to Boston they stop-ped in New York, where he was guest at a testimonial dinner given by the staff of Belleview Hospital.

When the Eastern District of the United Golfers Association met in New York, last week, among Baltimoreans (Pitch and Putt Club) on the scene were Marie Murphy, Marphelia Winston, Lindara Houston, Mildred Carter and Theresa Freeland.

They hosts, the Bayshores, the Selective and the Dunbar golf clubs not only provided a plenty of the business at hand, but a gay dinner dance after the meeting.

Mrs. Nathan Moore (the former Shirley Franklin) and her two babies, Wanda, 7, and Nathan, Jr., 2, will leave this month for Okanawa, Japan, to join Airman First Class Moore.
