Requiem mass for W. J. Hawkins, 76

A requiem high mass was conducted from the St. Pius Church for 76-year-old William J. Hawkins Thursday morning.

Mr. Hawkins died of cancer at his home, 503 W. Lafayette Ave., Sunday afternoon following a prolonged illness. His death came two days before his 77th birthday (Feb. 12).

A native Baltimorean, Mr. Hawkins married Miss Estelle Sampson 52 years ago (Jan. 3, 1905) in Ellicott City. She and the couple's three sons and one daughter were at the bedside when he died.

"We had been expecting it for a good while," said Mrs. Hawkins, the second oldest of the three sons.

He explained that the ailing Mr. Hawkins was taken to Johns Hopkins Hospital last Nov. 7, and was returned to the home Jan. 3.

Mrs. Evelyn Frank Hawkins and 12 great-grandchildren are also among the relatives.

Interment was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mrs. Imes' estate will be divided among few

In a will drawn on March 14, 1956, 10 months before her death, Mrs. Grace McCard Imes divided her estate among her husband, Dr. G. Lake Imes, her sister, Mrs. Ruth Burgess and three friends.

It is estimated that the estate will approximate $15,000.

The friends listed in the document are Attorney Dallas F. Nicholas, A. Cornelius Jennings and Mrs. Alice B. Carter.

Mr. Jennings, an insurance and real estate dealer, is a former business associate of the deceased. Mrs. Carter had been housekeeper for Mrs. Imes for 31 years.

UNDER THE terms of the will, Dr. Imes will receive his wife's wedding ring and the remainder of the estate after bequests to Mrs. Nicholas and Jennings and Mesdames Burgess and Carter.

Mr. Nicholas will get the annual ground rent of $90 and the reversion in the premises and property at 1833 Madison Ave.

30 shares of the Consolidated Gas and Electric Light and Power Co. of Baltimore stock were given to Mr. Jennings.

MRS. CARTER was bequeathed the household property No. 2345 Druid Hill Ave. Mrs. Burgess was given the Stieff silverware.

The plated silverware went to Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. Imes stipulated that the silver should be delivered to the legatees upon the death of her husband.

Stieg'r of the will left the residuary of the estate to Dr. Imes.

MRS. IMES, civic leader for 50 years, died here on January 19, 1957, at the age of 80.

The will was probated in Orphans Court last week by Mr. Nicholas and Dr. Imes, who have been appointed administrators.

4 indicted by government for mail thefts

Four Baltimoreans were indicted by a federal grand jury on charges growing out of mail thefts.

Miss Ida Lee Jones, 38, and Raymond T. Shine, 27, both of the 1000 block Wilmer Ct., were named in a three-count indictment in connection with the Nov. 1-theft of a $157 government check mailed to Mrs. Irene V. Bias, of the Wilmer Ct. address.

Victoria G. Jones, 23, 700 block W. Lexington St., is accused of taking and cashing a $50 check belonging to Abraham Green, 956 W. Franklin St., on July 5.

Clifton E. Smith, 30, 300 block W. Camden St., was charged in theft of a United States Bond from the mailbox of Mrs. Doris B. Arledge, 223 E. Medwick Garth. The bond was valued at $50 on maturity.

Roslyn Roberts party hostess

Roslyn Roberts, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Roberts, had a "theatre" party at her home, 1937 W. Lanvale St., for a number of little guests.

They saw their favorite movie, "Lady."

Among guests were Charles Woodard, Gregory Parks, Gerald Better, Joseph Campher, Miriam Johnson, Charlene Lawson, Dennis Weed, Kay Ann, Leslie Miller, Fern Flanagan, Deborah Brewington and Pamela Young.

Dr. Butler in a coma

Stating that he does not respond at all, they added that Dr. Butler had been unconscious for three days.

His wife and the Rev. Edward G. Carroll have been at his bedside since early Thursday.

Dr. Butler has been ill since Monday, when he left his office of obstetrics and past president of the medical staff at Provident Hospital.

Singer in hospital

Ralph Biggers, 200 block N. Amity St., identified as a member of the Manchesters, a local vocal group, was being detained for observation at University Hospital this morning (Friday) after hospital authorities reported he had been taken ill at home.

No surgery yet for 'frozen lady'

"Her condition is still counted as good."

She is still with us and has no complaint. She's just as cheerful as ever, still smiling, and the doctors seem to think she is doing all right as she is.

Surgery is not eliminated from the picture, however."

The above statements from Johns Hopkins Hospital sum up the present condition of the "frozen lady."

SHE IS Mrs. Elizabeth Burton, No. 1 Jones Ave., Catonsville.

She is showing continued improvement despite the critical condition in which she was found late January.

At that time the 80-year old widow suffered severe frost bite and gangrene had set in both her legs and feet.

It was feared she might have to undergo amputation of her limbs.

Now it is possible that miracle drugs may save her from surgery.

Sanatorium is victim—No. 9

"We could find no way they broke in, so we surmise that whoever did it was hidden in the shop before we closed," Mrs. Hilda Scott Dry, 2123 W. Saratoga St. and a beauty operator at the elegant and recently opened Beautygrama Salon, 601 N. Fulton Ave. said Tuesday.

Mrs. Dry was referring to a burglary of the Beauty Queen Co. sometime between 11:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. Sunday.

Burley Caldwell, 600 block N. Fulton Ave., caretaker for the salon, reported to police that the burglar escaped with a typewriter valued at $100, an adding machine worth $100 and $18 in cash.
