Hubby accused of killing PO clerk undergoing exams

Medical officers of the Superior Bench are examining Russell A. Arledge, 52-year-old present in deportation if he is able to stand trial in connection with the fatal shooting of his wife, an attractive mother of 3.

The examination was ordered after Robert B. Watts, attorney for Mr. Arledge, filed with the court a written plea of not guilty by reason of insanity on behalf of his client.

Mr. Arledge is accused in the Nov. 19 fatal shooting of Mrs. Pearl Dursey Arledge, his 45-year-old wife.

Two girls held in 'trash can' death

"It wasn't my fault; I was home in bed," declared recently widowed Mrs. Lillian Salter, 38, 1326 Pennsylvania Ave. Thursday, shortly after she was released on her own recognizance at Pine Street Station.

Charged and held without bail for grand jury action in the stabbing of Mrs. Salter's 39-year-old husband, Julius, early Tuesday morning were: Mrs. Salter, 21-year-old daughter, Mrs. Rochella Newby, who shared the four-room room Pennsylvania Ave. apartment with her mother and step-father, Julius, and Mrs. Deborah Johnson, also 21, 1409 block Myrtle Ave.

According to Sgt. George Andrews, of Northwestern District, who investigated the case, it all started about a trash can, the deceased man had allegedly disposed of more than a week previously.

SOMETHING OF a family argument resulted when Mrs. Newby questioned him about the trash can Monday night, the two girls went to several bars looking for Mr. Salter.

At Mosher St. and Pennsylvania Ave., they caught up with him, a fight developed, and according to police, Mrs. Johnson admitted stabbing him with a paring knife. At the same time, Mrs. Newby struck him with her fists.

He then walked into a bar in the 1500 block Pennsylvania Ave. and sat on a stool. Shortly after police walked in on a routine check, he fell from the stool.

RUSHED TO Provident Hospital, Mr. Slater was pronounced dead at 1:50.

The Adolphus A. Halstead Funeral Home shipped the body to his home in Evergreen, Ala. Thursday night. Ironically: Monday in Northwestern Police Court Magistrate Samuel G. Koger, had given the deceased a suspended six fine, after he was charged with vagrancy for loitering in a bus station.

Sen. Wayne Morse heard at annual Roosevelt dinner

Hundreds of American boys will do the dying if Secretary of State Dulles should stumble over the brink in applying the Administration's proposed Mid-East stand-by economic and Military aid plan, Senator Wayne Morse declared Wednesday night.

He added that he isn't so sure of Mr. Dulles sure-footedness.

Senator Morse was speaker at the annual Roosevelt Day dinner of the Baltimore chapter of Americans for Democratic Action. He was a late replacement for Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, whose illness prevented her from being here.

SENATOR MORSE told the group that he opposed the present "government by secrecy" policy. He favored, he said, giving the American people the truth. He opposed the "evil interests controlled" vote, dealing with dictators, and giving Mr. Eisenhower the power to send troops into the Mid-East without consent of Congress.

He had no illusions about the measure being passed, he said, but added that if the American people knew the truth "it should be defeated five to one."

The Senator was presented by Dr. Martin L. Jenkins, president of Morgan State College.

Among those attending the dinner were:

Mrs. Mary L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Allen, Dr. and Mrs. Broke Allenne, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Banfield, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bright, Mrs. Revella Briscoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Daniels, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Dedmond, Mrs. Carol Diggs, Mrs. Sarah P. Diggs, Councilman and Mrs. Walter Dixon, Creston Woingust, Lillie Jackson.

Matron convicted of assault on cop denied new trial

A 23-year-old mother convicted in Criminal Court last October for assaulting an officer has lost her motion for a new trial.

Judges of the Supreme Bench turned down the new trial motion Saturday in the case of Mrs. Dorothy Hawes, 718 Lennox St., found guilty of the assault charge by a jury in the court of Judge Joseph L. Carter.

Solomon Baylor, counsel for Mrs. Hawes, argued the trial motion before the Supreme Bench.

Mrs. Hawes, who was pregnant at the time, was accused of assaulting Officer Howard Rose while he was investigating a disturbance on Aug. 19.

Man in car with 2 girls is arrested

A tall brown skinned man whom police arrested in an automobile near Friendship Airport with two blond women was charged with disorderly conduct Tuesday at Southwestern police station.

He was released on $100 bail.

A jury trial for Johnnie A. Squires, 31, of the 1800 block N. Dallas St. and the two women was asked by the state.

Also arrested in the case were Miss Louise Johnson, 23, and Mrs. Betty L. Otey, 17, both of the 1800 block of Lemon St. They were released on $500 bail.

They were charged with leading a dissolute and disorderly course of life.

Police said the father of Mrs. Otey has remarried and is now living in Orlando, Fla., and that the whereabouts of the mother is unknown.

The younger Mrs. Otey is separated from her husband, and is the mother of a 2-month old child who lives with a friend of the family in the 100 block of S. Exeter St., police said.
