Store Closes at 8 P. M., Saturdays Excepted.

ARE YOU READY FOR SCHOOL? WE ARE.

We have lots and lots of good, sturdy shoes for boys and girls—dressy, stylish patterns, healthy, comfortable lasts.

And our school shoes wear well. We do not say they won't wear out, we do say that they will last as long as any shoe you can get for a healthy boy or girl, and a great deal longer than most. The reason for this is that the makers from whom we buy are specialists in children's shoes. They know where the wear comes and they fortify these points as as it is possible to do so. Let us show you.

LOCAL MATTERS

Two Horses Killed.—An automobile driven by Mr. Edgar Smith, collided with a team belonging to the Standard Oil Company Monday morning and broke one of the horses' legs, necessitating it being killed, the other one dying on Wednesday from wounds received. The accident occurred as Mr. Rouse was coming out of the company's yard near Cemetery Hill, Chestertown. Mr. Rouse was not hurt.

Another Liberty Loan Committee.—In addition to the general county committees published in this paper last week, the following committee has been appointed, called the reception committee and composed of those who have two or more sons in the service. It is as follows: Hope H. Barroll, Esq., chairman, Mrs. G. Allen Jarman, Mrs. Annie Stam, R. H. Collins, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, J. Hall Denny, Mrs. S. E. Ford, Mrs. Ida M. Blyman, Mrs. F. G. Hines, Mrs. P. J. Cooper, J. Gale Usilton, J. E. Armstrong.

Getting Their Coal.—Chestertown coal dealers who have had such difficulty in receiving their coal, in spite of the fact that it has been paid for for several months, have been receiving it this week. Mr. C. E. Kirby received two carloads, or about 70 tons, while Mr. A. M. Culp received about 160 tons. Mr. Bacchus has had a good supply on hand all summer and has supplied his usual customers. Mr. A. S Turner will also have some coal this fall, as will also Messrs. C. W. Kibler & Son.

Reaping A Harvest From Pit.—Mr. Coleman, who has charge of the state road in the vicinity of Chestertown, tells us that over 1100 tons of gravel have been hauled from the pit from the farm of Mr. H. P. Skipper, over the river, to use on the state roads. Mr. Coleman says the gravel is first-class and that the 1100 tons is only a very small part of what is there. Should the Chester River Bridge be erected any time soon, Mr. Coleman says Mr. Skipper will reap an immense harvest from the pit.

Must Claim Exemption If You Want It.—Provost Marshall-General Crowder, after being pressed on every hand for a flat and unmistakable statement from the War Department as to the attitude local draft boards are to take of questionnaires which do not bear a claim of deferred classification, declared Tuesday that such boards may grant deferment if they feel disposed to do so, but that it is up to the registrant to make a claim if blunders are to be avoided.

Tomorrow Is Heroes' Day.—Tomorrow, Sunday, will be fittingly observed by the people of Kent county, as well as the people of the whole country, as "Heroes' Day," on which occasion due honor will be paid those who marched away to war, many of whom will not return. All churches will observe the day with special sermons by the pastors. The glory of the men who have made the sacrifice should not be permitted to fade, but should be indelibly enscrolled upon the nation's memory with those heroes of the past who have made our nation's name imperishable.

Football Again This Year.—The war will not stop football at Washington College this year. The following old men are back: Young, captain, Robbins, Manning, Purnell, Hubbard, Soper, Walls, Lankford, Willis and Sutton. The decision of the War Department to permit colleges having students' army training corps to continue football has left the W. C. schedule almost intact. The schedule is as follows: Oct. 5, P. M. C., at Chester; Oct. 12, pending; Oct. 19, Md. State College at Chestertown; Oct. 26, Mt. St. Mary's College at Chestertown; Nov. 2, Western Md. College at Chestertown; Nov. 9, Dickinson at Carlisle; Nov. 16, St. Johns at Chestertown.

Red Cross Supper.—The Red Cross of Betterton will hold a supper at the Chesapeake Hotel, Betterton, Saturday, Oct. 12. Supper 50 to 75 cents. Served from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m. Liberty Loan Meeting to begin at 8 p. m.

Farm Sold.—Mr. T. B. Durding this week sold his 80-acre frm at Rock Hill to Mr. Arthur Clifton, of Michigan, for $7000. Difficulty in getting labor to till the farm induced Mr. Durding to sell.

Publicity Campaign.—The Publicity Committee of the War Council of the Young Women's Christian Association have started a vigorous campaign planned to familiarize every man, woman and child in the state of Maryland with the work of the Y. W. C. A. One means of carrying on this campaign that is proving very effective is the distribution of literature, and Mrs. T. O. Hillen, chairman, is personally conducting this work.

Mr. Orem Injured In Auto Accident.—Mr. H. D. Orem and son, Dudley, while returning from Price Station on Monday, where they were at work, were run into by a Ford touring car, at Iron Hill, overturning their runabout, pinning Mr. Orem underneath, while his son who was driving, jumped and escaped unharmed. Mr. Orem sustained a fractuerd collar bone and broken arm and was otherwise considerably bruised. The occupants of the touring car were only severely shaken up and badly frightened, and the car slightly damaged. Dr. Norman Dudley brought Mr. Orem to Chestertown, where Drs. Dudley and Simmons rendered medical attention.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—The Floating Theatre will be here next week.

—The American Army will need about 50,000 nurses by next July, it is stated.

—Mr. O. C. Smith has a new six-cylinder Studebaker auto that is a nice looking car.

—A number of small rock were caught on the bridge by local fishermen this week.

—The Standard Oil Company has purchased a new truck for use in the oil business here.

—Hair cuts in Brooklyn are $1.00. You may compliment yourself in living in old Chestertown.

—Mr. J. D. Bacchus has the material on his property to erect a neat brick garage in a few weeks.

—Captain John Welch is building a splendid new home on the lot next to the Presbyterian Church at Georgetown.

—Kent people have enjoyed some real fall weather this week, several mornings being so cool as to almost bring frost.

—The squirrel season in Kent ends Oct. 1 and begins again November 10, with the opening of the rabbit and bird season.

—Mr. S. G. Caldwell advertises a big sale of live stock, farm implements, etc., on Tuesday, Oct. 2, at his stables near Galena.

—Hog cholera is reported on the farms of Mr. L. E. Plummer and Mr. F. Mason, of near Worton, and Mr. S. J. Lee, of near Lynch.

—A report was current recently that Sheriff Carter had a German spy confined in one of the dungeons of the jail. This proved to be untrue.

—Mrs. Carey Reinhart has lost 70 of her fine turkeys recently from an unknown disease. Mr. Kennard Aldridge also has lost a number.

—One Chestertown gentleman of mature years stated the other day that if Uncle Sam had 500 men that had the nerve and the fighting qualifications of himself that the war would be over in six months.

—If we are to heed the request that we do not start our fires until Dec. 1, it is highly important that the Weather Bureau be required to do its part.

—As to ice—the worry is over—plenty of its looms in the perspective. As to coal—the whole country is listening for what Dr. Garfield will say next about it.

—W. W. Beck, Esq., as attorney for Robert Ford, sold the Ford farm in Quaker Neck at public sale Saturday to Mrs. Henry Brown for $5,700. This farm contains 157 acres.

—Mr. William Benjamin, one of our expert decorators, has just completed putting an attractive coat of paint on the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Loud on High street.

—Beginning Tuesday, Oct. 1, the Chestertown Public Library will open Tuesday and Friday afternoons from 2 until 5 o'clock; on Saturday evenings the library will be open from 6.30 until 8 o'clock.

—Contractor W. T. Pippin hopes to have the High School building at Galena completed before cold weather. It will cos from $12,000 to $15,000. Mr. Pippin is making an attractive and comfortable building.

—We hear that Mr. Charles Schreiber has purchased the Edwards' property, adjoining Bartley's big furniture store. Mr. Schreiber, it is said, will occupy the property as dwelling and headquarters for his wholesale confectionary business.

—Mr. Leonard C. Needles has been recommended for a position as substitute city carrier at Chestertown postoffice, to succeed Julian Coleman, who has resigned to enter military service. Mr. Needles will make a good man for the place.

—Deputy Sheriff Mark Perkins has been appointed game warden at large for Kent county. This means that the game laws of this section will be enforced, as Officer Perkins has a reputation of attending to anything he has charge of.

—The Grand Jury on Tuesday brought in an indictment against Chas. H. Johnson, of Aberdeen, charging him with the murder of Major J. R. King in July last. Mystery still surrounds the motive of the crime. Johnson pleas self-defense.

—Messrs. W. Irving Walker, E. W. Corwin, H. H. Klinefelter and C. F. Parks have been appointed a committee to give instructions to anyone desiring same regarding the present and future military drafts in Queen Annes county, in the Rich Neck section.

—Lower Delaware experienced the first frost of this section of the country this fall on Wednesday night. Farmers for the past two weeks have been hoping that warmer weather would be prolonged until all late crops were gathered.

—Curtailment of the manufacture of bicycles has been ordered. Men's bicycles are to be made hereafter only in 20 and 22-inch frames, and the manufacture of racing and juvenile models, steel guards, tool boxes, metal stands and metal tanks is discontinued altogether.

—That posting machine in the Kent County Savings Bank is a dandy. It can do more and better work than several human beings. Mechanically, it is a marvel. Mr. Argus Robinson operates the machine. The Third National Bank is expecting one in the very near future.

—Reports from the City Marriage Bureau of New York show a comparative increase of more than 100 per cent in marriages among men in the new draft age of 31 to 45. At the same time there was a decrease in marriages of more than 15 per cent among men between 21 and 31 years of age.

—The local draft board has systematized the work of handling questionnaires to such an extent that they now have little difficulty in making a quick classification of the registrant almost immediately upon the receipt of the returned questionnaire. Many who registered recently have received their classification already.

—That famous photo-drama, "The Birth of a Nation," will be shown at Lyceum Theatre some time in November. This is the greatest film ever made, in our estimation, and is easily the most popular, judging from the crowds that have seen it year after year. "Pershing's Crusaders" this afternoon and night (Saturday) at Lyceum Theatre.

—The present year has been the poorest year for hook-and-line fishing in Chester River for many years. Mr. Harry C. Brown and son, however, caught some dandy trout one day last week off the "Rocks." Mr. Brown says the only time to catch trout in this section is early in the morning. Mr. Edward Wilkins, also a successful trout catcher, says the same thing.

—The Liberty Loan drive begins today, Saturday. Every man or woman in Kent who possibly can should purchase one bond at least. They are a safe investment, backed not only by the resources of the government, but by the very bulwark of civilization itself. These bonds will be redeemed just as surely as the sun rises or the tides change, or the seasons come and go.

—Marion, the 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bonn Towner, of Queen Annes, near town, drank a small bottle of medicine on Thursday by accident. The family feared that the medicine contained some drug of a poisonous nature and worked diligently to counteract its effects. The little fellow suffered no inconvenience at all from the medicine.

—The Maryland Counties were well represented at the meeting on Tuesday at the Southern Hotel, Baltimore, when the War Council of the Young Women's Christian Association took part in the general meeting of the seven war work societies that will participate in the great financial drive authorized by the government in November. These seven organizations include the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, The Jewish Welfare Board, the Salvation Army the American Library Association nd the War Camp Community Service.

DEATHS

Mr. William H. Robertson succumbed to paralysis at his home on Queen street Monday night, aged 69 years. It was Mr. Robertson's third attack of paralysis.

Mr. Robertson was one of our well known and highly respected citizens and had the confidence of all who knew him. For many years he conducted a shoe-making establishment on Queen street, but during the latter part of his life he has not been as active as he was in former years, although his shop has seldom been closed. Mr. Robertson was a veteran of the Civil War, having entered the service of the Union Army at the young age of 14. He was of a quiet disposition, but all who were intimate with him held him in high esteem.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Lula Greenwood Robertson.

Mr. Robertson was an Englishman by birth. He came to this country when a boy. It is stated by one of his friends that so eager was he to help the cause of the United States that, although but 14 years of age, he followed a Union regiment, asking to be allowed to enlist and fight. Being refused he did likewise to another regiment and finally succeeded in entering the army, being one of the youngest young men beneath the banner.

He was a member of Christ Church for many years.

Funeral services took place Thursday afternoon from his late residence on Queen street, conducted by the Rev. J. L. Ward, interment at Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were F. G. Usilton, Geo. D. Lofland, A. E. Culver, H. F. Jefferson, O. C. Smith and J. Raymond Simpers. Undertaker C. L. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

The following attended the funeral of Mr. Robertson from out of town: Mr. Robertson's brother, from Philadelphia; Mrs. Avis Davis, Mrs. Arthur Prettyman, and William Davis, wife and child, of Germantown; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Greenwood, of Bryn Myre, Pa.; Mrs. Horace Hammel of Haddon Heights, N. J.; Mr. Frank Greenwood, of Camden, N. J.; Mr. Robert Jaggard, of Camden, N. J.; Mrs. Claude Hackett, of Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Mary E. Brown, one of the oldest and most highly respected ladies of Kent county, died at the home of her son, Mr. Henry Clay Brown, at "Kentmere," near Chestertown, last Tuesday, aged 89 years. She leaves one daughter, Miss Annie R. Brown, and one son, Mr. Henry Clay Brown.

Mrs. Brown was a member of Chestertown M. E. Church for many years and took part in its activities and all work connected with it. She was an ardent temperance worker and did as much for the cause, from the very beginning of the fight against liquor, as any lady on the Eastern Shore or the State of Maryland.

She was a loveable and kind lady, one who endeared herself to all who met her. She was particularly friendly to the young folks and was a great favorite with them.

The funeral was held Thursday morning at 11 a. m., conducted Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker C. L. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements. The pall bearers were as follows: Leon Brown, W. T. Brown, John Eliason, Holt Eliason, Edward Wilkins and L. W. Wickes.

Mr. John R. Bennett, one of the prominent farmers of this county and a highly respected citizen, died at his home in Kennedyville early Thursday morning after a short illness of diabetes, aged 81 years. He leaves a wife who was before marriage a Miss Cavender, of Delaware, and two sons, James, of Wilmington, and County County Commissioner John N. Bennett, of Still Pond, also five daughters, Mrs. Susie Shallcross, at home, Mrs. Elisabeth Smyth, of Betterton; Mrs. Edward Hudson, of Chestertown; Mrs. George Bolton, of Kennedyville; and Mrs. William H. Krusen, of Still Pond. Funeral services will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. from his late home at Kennedyville, Rev. Peter Schauer, of the Kennedyville M. P. Church, officiating. The bearers will be William, Edward and Morgan Bennett, Hope B. Hudson, Christian and Lawrence Krusen and Ralph Shallcross, all grandsons of the deceased. Interment will be in the family lot in Still Pond cemetery.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

Mr. Owen Selby, one of Rock Hall's patriotic young men, who enlisted in the Naval Reserve Force, is now in training at Hampton Roads, Va. Vernon Selby, his brother, who is yet too young for the army or navy, is taking a special course in Charlotte Hall Military Academy to prepare for West Point. Both are sons of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Selby and are determined to do their bit to win the war.

Mr. Norman Crouch was slightly injured about the neck recently, when his airplane bumped to earth sharply, but he has now fully recovered and at his duties again.

Mr. W. F. Russell, Jr., in a letter to Mr. Joseph Wheatley recently, said that he had seen an airplane battle between a French airman and a German airman, the latter being forced to jump from his machine and was taken a prisoner. Mr. Russell said the German was poorly clad.

Circus Day

What is there about a circus that thrills the blood of a healthy person? What is it that makes you restless and stand up on your toes when you hear the band coming up the street playing that music with a swing and vigor only heard in a circus band? You say that circuses are all alike and when you have seen one you have seen all, but still you walk fast—or even run—right in the heat of the day in order not to miss one bit of the fascinating street parade and then when the calliope has passed, you will rush to the return street and push several children out of the way to see it all over again. Why do you do it? Think it over. Then you will go to the show "just to take the children" or possibly because your girl insisted on going and you did not wish to displease her.

It's all right to alibi yourself, almost everybody has done the same thing time and time again. Does not the flash and glare and glitter have a lot to do with your enthusiasm for circuses? Don't you like the scintilating brilliancy and gaudiness of the ensemble. Sure you do. Let's all be human when the Walter L. Main Fashion Plate Shows are in Chestertown on October 10, and have a good time. Good circuses do not come often and they are not expensive. So meet us in front of the elephants when Walter L. Main shows are in Chestertown October 10 and we will throw trouble to the winds and peanuts to the elephants.

In Memorium

In memory of Ellen Clow, wife of John E. Clow, age 70, died September 11, 1918.

One precious to our hearts has gone,
The voice we loved is stilled,
The place made vacant in our home
Can never more be filled.
Our Father in His wisdom called
The boon his love had given,
And though on earth the body lies
The soul is safe in heaven.

Farewell, mother, farewell, mother,
Peaceful be thy silent rest,
Slumber sweetly, God knew best,
When to call thee home to rest.
Farewell, mother, farewell, mother,
We must say our last farewell,
'Till we meet beyond the river,
Happy there with thee to dwell.

We miss thee from our home, dear mother,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee, mother,
We miss thee everywhere.

Oh, mother, thy gentle voice is hushed,
Thy warm, true heart is still,
And on thy pale and peaceful face
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast,
We have kissed thy marble brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now.

Gone but not forgotten.
By her daughter, E. P. S.
