D.C. march Goal here is 10,000

Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore NAACP Branch and Dr. Carl Murphy, AFRO president have been named honorary chairmen of the local committee, footing the April 18 Youth March on Washington.

Troy Brailey, president of the local Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, is chairman of the local committee and co-chairmen are Albert Henderson and the Revs. W. L. Gordon, Harrison J. Bryant and Edward G. Carroll.

These appointments were announced at the meeting last week which was attended by Rev. Philip Randolph, nationally known labor leader who is one of the national sponsors of the march.

Also speaking at the meeting was Richard Bustin, national director of the youth march.

THE PURPOSE of the April 18 march is to call public attention to the failure of President Eisenhower to speak out forcefully on school desegregation, urge state and local communities to obey the Supreme Court law against public school segregation.

An estimated 12,000 young people from all over the country participated in a similar march in October 1958.

The Baltimore committee hopes to have 10,000 local and area students join the 25,000 from throughout the nation expected to converge on the Capital by bus, car and motor pools on April 18.

Another meeting of the local committee has been scheduled for Tuesday night, March 31 at 8 p.m. in the Community House, at Sharp Street Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts.

Sgt. Whyte is 'Clarence's other wife' as police crack down on fortunetellers

Two young women, both Gypsies, were hailed into Pine St. Station Police Court on Tuesday accused of illegally pretending to foretell the future.

Magistrate at large Milton Talkin found Mrs. Shirley Marino, 18, 800 block N. Fremont Ave., guilty and fined her $100 which she paid.

Mrs. Mary Mitchell, 23, 800 block W. Baltimore St. was given probation before verdict, providing she died. She placed $25 in the Poor Box.

* * *

MRS MARINO was arrested after Sgt. Violet Hill Whyte, Sgt. Joseph Judd and Officer Clarence McGee of the North-western Police District entered her Fremont Ave. address at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Sgt. Whyte testified that she found a circular in her vestibule advertising "Sister Theresa," 823 N. Fremont Ave. as a fortune teller.

She stated: "I turned the circular over to Sgt. Judd and then Officer McGee and I, posing as man and wife, went to where Mrs. Marino answered the door as 'Sister Theresa.'

"She told us to hold out our palms and said she could foretell the future.

* * *

THE POLICE sergeant added:

"She said it would be $3 for the ordinary fortune and $5 for the one where the ashes are lighted candle.

"My 'husband' (officer McGee) paid her $5."

Sgt. Whyte continued: "She said she could cause my 'husband' to be faithful to me and for me to return Friday and bring a $20 bill, one uncooked fresh egg and two $10 bills wrapped in a handkerchief.

* * *

"SHE SAID this would remove the 'spells' and bring my 'husband' back to his senses."

Sgt. McGee also testified that 'Sister Theresa' advised him to return on Friday.

He said "She told me two people had 'spells' over me and she said for me to bring a white handkerchief, a fresh egg and a $100 bill."

* * *

MRS. MARINO, her eyes filled with tears, testified that she is a native of Alabama and did not realize that fortelling the future is illegal in Maryland.

Her husband, Peter Marino, also 18, promised the court "if you'll be lenient with her, we'll get out of town in a week or 10 days."

Police testified that Miss Mitchell "tapped" on the window of her W. Baltimore St. address on Tuesday and then came from the door and escorted them into her place.

I can find happiness for you," Police stated that she said, "you've been in trouble long enough" and they paid her $5.

False robbery report leads 'victim' to jail

Because he did not dare tell his wife that he had lost his $23 unemployment check, Clarion Junius McDonald, 27, of the 1100 block N. Gilmor St., concocted an unbelievable story Wednesday.

Authorities at the Northern District police station didn't think much of the story when they learned why McDonald had insisted that he had been robbed by an elderly blond cab driver.

Before Magistrate James Fanseen, Mr. McDonald admitted that he had filed a false police report.

He was fined $50 and costs and was committed to City Jail Thursday because he had no money to pay the fine.

* * *

ACCORDING TO police, Mr. McDonald had reported that after he picked up his unemployment check, he stopped a cab to take him to the 200 block of Read St., so that he could pay his rent.

He claimed that the driver drove him instead to St. Dunstans and Springlake Way, where he pulled out a .38 caliber revolver, removed $22.50 from his pocket and said "right here is where you get off."

To back up his story, Mr. Donald had even jotted down the cab's tag number on a book of matches.

After viewing photographs of registered cab drivers at police headquarters the alleged victim picked out a 62-year-old man.

AS A result of his identification, a surprised Joseph Gluck of the 4000 block Hilton Rd. was interrogated by police.

Later while questioning Mr. Donald police said they noted a difference in his story and finally told him they didn't believe him.

At that point Mr Donald is alleged to have confessed that the whole thing was a hoax and that he had thought up the robbery story and had written down a tag number when Mr. Gluck drove past in his cab.

No signs on Sanford Place

Protests from members of the Sanford Place Neighborhood Association defeated an application before the Board of Estimates to permit a neon sign in their block.

Approximately 12 petitioners were present at the hearing on Wednesday to protest the sign application to go for a laundrette on Sanford near Pennsylvania Ave.

A letter announcing the sign was sent to Henry B. Gatewood, who lives next door to the laundrette, saying the sign would go up in three days if not protested.

Mr. Gatewood called the attention of his neighbors to the situation and petitions began.

There is only one block of Sanford Pl., which runs from Cumberland St. to Pennsylvania Ave.

INFLATION....

Here's where inflation really hurts you

You really feel inflation when you get to the check-out counter. That is when the dollars you have in your pocket seem to vanish fast.

Some people think they benefit from a little inflation—for a while.

The awakening comes when they find they are paying more and more for less and less—that more dollars are needed for the things that cost fewer dollars a while back.

That's inflation.

Inflation is caused by a lot of things. But one of the most important is rising labor costs without a substantial increase in the nation's productive efficiency. The reason: 75 percent or more of the final cost of what you buy goes for labor.

It's kind of a chain reaction. With each round of wage and price increases, your dollars lose another chunk of purchasing power.

If things keep on this way another twenty years—or ten—or five, what will you get for your dollar? What will happen to your savings, your insurance, your pension plans . . . your children's education?

Isn't it time to stop this spiral that eventually robs you of your future security?

The American Iron and Steel Institute brings you this message from the steel industry because

Inflation robs us all

That always leaves a sense behind,
Of true companionship. We know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet, memory softens everything
The grave its victory—death its sting
We who loved you, sadly miss you,
We who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with us every day.
