Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in,—and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

LOCAL MATTERS

Waiting For Disease To Abate.—Quite a number of Kent county youths await only an abatement of the epidemic of influenza and a lifting of bans on colleges, to enter the Student Army Corps at Washington College and other institutions and begin the training for duty overseas. Many colleges have been having difficulty in securing enough students to make them eligible, but we feel sure when the ban is lifted they will be quickly filled.

Mr. Bowers injures Left Arm.—Mr. Elwood Bowers, a member of the big lumber firm of Stavely & Bowers, of Lynch, had the misfortune to painfully injure his left arm the other day. Mr. Powers was operating a plaining machine and his attention was directed elsewhere for a moment, when he put his elbow down on the running machine. His elbow was cut off, bone as well as flesh. Mr. Bowers came to Chestertown and had his arm dressed and it is now doing well.

Wedding To-night.—The wedding of Miss Miriam Warren Hubbard, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, to Lieut. George Maurice Morris, of the Ordnance Department of the U. S. Army, will take place this evening at 7 o'clock at the beautiful home of the bride's parents on Water street. For the convenience of guests from Baltimore, Washington, New York and Philadelphia attending the wedding a special train will leave Wilmington at 2 p. m.

Avoid Forest Fires In Kent.—Let every Kent countian be careful, and admonish all others to be careful, and avoid forest fires. We need all our wood. While some fires are set by negligence, a few through wilfulness or by incendiaries, and a number are started through outworn and misinformed ideas of grass production, all of them do nothing but damage, and in the end cause nothing but loss. All possible measures should be taken through public co-operation for their prevention. With fuel of all sorts higher and harder to get than ever before we have no longer wood to burn unnecessarily.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Neatly printed Trespass Notices for sale at this office at 5 cents each.

—Easton Hospital has been quarantined because of the epidemic of influenza.

—Fish of all kinds seem to be scarce in Chester river. Better blame it on the war!

—Mr. Brown's big truck run over his son, Mr. Harvey Brown, but he was only slightly injured.

—The government has fixed the price of hogs at $15.50 per 100 lbs. for the duration of the war.

—Lieut. Smith is putting the Students Army Corps through strenuous drills and hikes these days.

—The Marvil Package Co. has a large number of workmen in Klinefelter's woods getting logs for the mill.

—Moving vans from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Wilmington are familiar sights on the roads of Kent county.

—Mr. S. W. Granbery, representative of the Western Electric Company in this section, has an adv. in this issue. Read it.

—The J. W. Russell Realty Co. has bought from S. S. Beck, Esq., attorney, the Sol Wright farm of 180 acres near Hanesville.

—A civil service examination for position as carrier-clerk will be held at the Chestertown postoffice on Nov. 2, at 9 o'clock a. m.

—The heaviest frost of the season occurred on Wednesday morning, when the ground was white with it. Much vegetation was killed.

—The lifting of the gasoline ban on last Sunday caused many autoists to be out, notwithstanding the fact that it was a bad day.

—Radcliffe Mill was badly crippled by Mr. Brooks, the proprietor, and all the workmen being sick. Mr. P. A. M. Brooks carried on the mill during his son's absence.

—Mr. James M. Kennedy, who purchased the Cosden property, near town, has purchased a farm of 130 acres near Cambridge and will move there in November.

—Senator Henry Brown has been appointed a delegate from Kent to the Farmers' Conference which meets in Florida in December. Senator Brown has made arrangements to go.

—Do everything possible to avoid the influenza. Keep yourself in the best possible health and "Intern" your coughs and sneezes so that others will not contract the disease thereby.

—The demand for the city papers giving the accounts of allied victories is so great here that Mr. Edward Armstrong and the other dealers are often swamped by the eager buyers.

—Fern, the two year old daughter of Mr.and and Mrs. Herman Blackway, who upset a cresoline lamp, spilling the fluid, from which she was severely burned from her waist down, is now much improved.

—Thieves entered the home of Mr. B. F. Potts, near Union, Queen Annes county, on Tuesday evening, broke open his desk and stole more than $200 in money and other valuable papers, making their escape and leaving no trace of their identity.

—Surtaxes adopted by the House of Representatives on individual net incomes below $100,000 would be lowered and those in excess of that amount increased under amendments to the War Revenue bill adopted Tuesday by the Senate Finance Committee.

—Kent countians will get very few turkeys this Thanksgiving. Produce dealers have been informed that the government has contracted for practically the entire supply of the cold storage turkeys and a large part of the fresh killed stock.

—Belgium has made a rough estimate of the damage done by the Huns to that country, which mounts up to nearly $2,000,000,000. But this does not count the human misery, citizens carried into slavery and the other outrages which have shocked the world.

Circuit Court Convenes Until Dec. 2

—Senator Henry Brown, of Kent county, since the close of the Maryland Legislature, has been working for the government in the interest of the Boys Working Reserve, on a no-salary basis. The boys have been doing good work over the entire country.

—It is hoped that in no part of the country will the shortage of coal be as serious this winter as it was in Kent and other parts of the state last winter, when only the wise manner in which what was on hand was handled kept people in Chestertown from actual suffering. If you haven't got your supply of coal yet, better see your dealer.

—Mr. J. D. Bacchus has purchased an attractive Chandler auto.

—All those Kent county farmers having muskrat marshes have good prospects of reaping big prices the coming winter. Trappers appreciating the opportunity, are getting in readiness to be on the job as soon as the law is out. Fur prices are going up, as the government uses large amounts of muskrat fur in winter uniforms for its soldiers and imports also have dropped.

DEATHS

Another week of suffering, apprehension, death and sorrow in Kent county, during which death has plowed a deep furrow across it which time cannot remove. Some of our best people have fallen into that dreamless sleep which kisses down the eyelids still. Homes that last week were happy with the pleasures of life are darkened by the relentless shadow. Wives and husbands that last week looked forward to years of happy family life, must walk the path alone. Children are parentless and parents are childless. Sorrow broods over the county like a somber cloud. What can we say to alleviate the suffering of the ones within the shadow? Words cannot console and we can but stand by, remembering the dear ones in the days of life, and think the words which we cannot utter.

After a short illness of influenza, followed by pneumonia, Mr. Connelly Beauchamp is no more. Mr. Beauchamp, while nursing his wife and daughter, contracted the disease last Friday. Pneumonia set in on Monday night and on Tuesday at 1 o'clock one of the kindest and best of Chestertown's young men had passed into the haven of rest—safe from all the storms and tempests of life. He was 36 years of age.

Big, jolly, kind-hearted, generous, Mr. Beauchamp seemed to live solely to make his family and the world about him happy and build about him a better, heartier and more wholesome sentiment among his fellow men. His wife and daughter were his idols and he never tired in his devotion to them.

For eight years Mr. Beauchamp had been engaged with C. E. Kirby as butcher. Mr. Beauchamp endeared himself to all of Mr Kirby's trade by his courteous manner to them, while between Mr. Kirby and the deceased had sprung a friendship that was equal to that of brothers.

Mr. Beauchamp was a great lover of animals of all kinds, particularly of horses and dogs, and possessed some good ones at various times earlier in his life, and talked interestingly of them and what they did. His kindness to animals was one of the characteristics of his life and was in keeping with his kind and affectionate disposition, which he showed to everyone in every walk of life.

Of the gifts that were given him none, to our knowledge, were ever used in the service of an unworthy cause. He believed in the power of kind words and good deeds and by his friendly manner he immediately drew to himself the friendship of every one with whom he came in contact.

He will be missed, not only by his family, but by us all, who mourn with them that are within the shadow.

The deceased leaves a devoted wife, who was before marriage Miss Rollison, and a daughter, Miss Gladys.

The funeral was held on Thursday at 3 p. m., interment at St. Paul's, Dr. H. B. Martin officiating. Undertaker Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall bearers were R Groome Parks, Charles Rollison, C E. Kirby, Dr. H. G. Simpers, H. F. Jefferson and Frank V. Simpers.

Mr. Fountain Crew, of Betterton, died in Baltimore early Friday morning, Oct. 18, after a short illness of pneumonia, in the 40th year of his age. He is survived by his wife, who was before marriage Miss Violet Moore, an aunt, Mrs. Mary Gordon, and four brothers.

Mr. Crew was one of Betterton's most highly respected citizens and had the confidence of all who knew him. He was a kind, firm friend and an indulgent and affectionate husband. In the home circle was his best and purest disposition shown. He was a good man—he was an honest man. Those who knew him best, best knew how to appreciate these sterling qualities which characterized him while living and to regret deepest while dying.

He was a member of Betterton M. E. Church and as a Christian was devout and unaffected in his duties and faithful in the services he rendered to his God.

The funeral took place at his late residence in Betterton Sunday morning, conducted by Rev. R. P. Nichols, interment in Still Pond Cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Cornelius, T. B., Robert and Caldwell Crew, Harvey B. and Carlton C. Moore. Mr. W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Hanson Stavely, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Stavely, of Lynch, died of pneumonia at the Army Training Camp at Pittsburg on last Wednesday morning, aged 27 years. In the death of Mr. Stavely Kent has lost one of her best citizens. His genial nature won for him a host of friends. He was a devoted member of I. U. Church and in all things stood for the highest and best in life. As soon as possible he enlisted in the service of his country and was soon to have received his commission. Funeral services were held at his late home at Lynch on Friday at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. S. S. Hepburn officiating, and interment was at I. U. cemtery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements. The bearers were William and Edward Hepburn, Edward Pennington, Harrison Cornelius, John Moffett and Julian Ford.

Mrs. Nannie Massey Brown, after a week's illness of influenza, followed by pneumonia, died last Saturday at her home near Church Hill, aged 33 years. Mrs. Brown was before marriage Miss Nannie Massey, daughter of the late Josiah and Mrs. A. E. Massey and was married to Mr. Robert J. Brown about six years ago.

On Sunday her only child, a little boy one year old, succumbed to the ravages of the same malady.

The two were laid to rest together in Chester cemetery on Monday afternoon, Fathers Earner and McGoldrick officiating. The bearers were her three brothers, Messrs. Josiah, Hubert and Paul, J. C. Catlin, William Godwin and John C. Smith. Undertaker W. H. Good, of Church Hill, had charge of funeral arrangements.

The death of the wife and son of Mr. Robert Brown saddened the whole community this week. The whole family have our sympathy.

Mr. W. H. Eisenbrey, whose boyhood was at Rock Hall, died on Thursday last at his home in Baltimore, aged 70 years. Pneumonia caused the end. He leaves a wife, brother, Edward, of Baltimore, and sister, Mrs. Ella Satterfield, of Rock Hall. Interment was made in Baltimore on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ethel C. Vansant died in Wilmington Sunday in her 34th year. Ten days ago she was stricken with influenza and her condition was not considered alarming until last Thursday when blood poison developed from an injury sustained to one of her limbs several years ago from a fall and her condition gradually grew worse until the end. Besides her husband, she leaves a ten months old baby girl, Martha Virginia, and is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Clements, and one sister, Mrs. David Clements, of Crumpton, and one brother, Mr. Joel R. Clements, of Crumpton. Her remains were brought to Millington by Tuesday's train, interment Wednesday in Millington cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Agnes Copper, wife of Walter C. Copper, after a week's illness of influenza and pneumonia, died in Chestertown Saturday. Besides her husband and three children, Rudolph, Virginia and Kathryn, she is survived by her parents, Ferman and Agnes Mulford, also two brothers and two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Copper and Mrs. J. Edward Goodman, Lloyd and Spencer Mulford. Funeral services conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp were held Monday at 2 p. m., with interment in Chester cemtery. The pall bearers were: Charles Fowler, J. A. Kennard, Edward Smith, Romie Patrick, Frank Taylor and Milton Fogwell. Undertaker C. L. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

After a long illness, Mrs. Gertrude Nickerson, wife of Mr. Elbert Nickerson, died Wednesday last at her late home at Swan Creek, aged 53. Besides her husband, she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Alfred S. Crouch, Mrs. Elizabeth Bedwell, and one brother, Mr. W. L Faulkner. Funeral was held at 2 p. m. yesterday, interment in Chester cemtery, Rev. Mr. Raum, officiating. The bearers were Laurence Stevens, Ringgold Jones, Samuel Tucker, B. N. Willson, Leroy Strong, Edward Clothier. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Julia A. Stevens, wife of Walter Stevens, died at her home in Baltimore on Oct. 15 of pneumonia. Her oldest daughter, Thelma Elaine, aged 11 years, died of the same malady within an hour of her mother. Mrs. Stevens was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coleman, of Rock Hall. The remains were brought to Kent on Oct. 18, interment at Wesley Chapel cemtery.

Miss Edith Aiken died on Wednesday at 6.30 a. m., at the home in Millington of her uncle, Mr. C. P. Jones, the cause of her death being pneumonia. Arrangements for funeral not known at time of writing.

Miss Grace Beck, daughter of W. J. and Susie B. Beck, died at her late home in Rustleton, Pa. Her remains were brought to Chestertown by train Tuesday evening. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at Wesley Chapel, with interment in Church cemetery. Rev. Mr. Raum officiated. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Dorothy Patrick, the 14th months old daughter of William and Sadie Patrick, died at the home of her parents, after a brief illness of influenza on Friday night. Funeral services conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp were held Sunday at 4 p. m., with interment in Chester cemtery. C. L. Dodd had charge of arrangements.

The body of Mrs. Annie Berryman was brought from Baltimore to Rock Hall by steamer on Thursday for interment, accompanied by her husband, parents and brothers.

Mary Elizabeth, wife of Amos Crouch and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, died at her home in Highlandtown October 15. She was brought to Rock Hall and interment was made at Piney Neck cemetery.

Mrs. Lillian Blackiston, wife of P. K. Blackiston, died in Baltimore Monday, October 14, after a short illness of influenza. She is survived by a husband and two children.

Francis M. Clift, son of R. S. G. Clift, died Oct. 23 of pneumonia, aged 5 years. Funeral was held at 4.30 p. m. Friday, interment in Chester cemtery, services being conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mrs. T. E. Crew, of Washington, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lulu Van Dyke.

Mrs. Rachel Hill and son, Mr. James Archibald, accompanied by his wife also left Saturday for South Carolina, where they hope to find the climate better for Harry.

Miss Jennie Bowers is sick at Dr. Urie's home with the influenza.

Miss Mabel Norris is helping in the post office and Mr. Dempsey has the influenza.

The W. C. T. U. will serve meals in Weer's Hall on election day. All contributions will be thankfully received.
