We are selling our goods this season at the same low prices as heretofore, and if any advance, it is so little as not to be noticeable to any extent. This is due to the fact that we made all our purchases early in the season before the goods advanced. As most of our goods are in, we invite you to come in now and make an early selection, we have just what you are looking for.

What Your Liberty Bond Will Do.

Under the heading, "What Your Liberty Bond Will Do" the following poem from the pen of R. E. McMillin, will be appropriate now that the drive is ended and Kent as well as the rest of the country have gone over the top:

It's forts and it's ships and it's shining guns,
It's squadrons that sweep the sea,
It's all of the circling band of steel
That shall keep all the home shores free.
It's grub and it's warmth for the sailor lad,
Far out on the wintry foam,
For the brave jack tar, as he fights afar,
It's the good old "Money from home."

It's rifle and helmet and bayonet,
It's shovel and shard and shell
For the soldier boy in the olive drab,
Out there on the edge of hell.
It's the soaring wings of the whirring planes
That battle on high alone,
For the lad who is daring "Over there"
It's the good old "Money from home."

It's succor and life for a bleeding world,
It's the glimmer of Peace at dawn,
It's the strength of a mighty arm to strike,
It's the gleam of a great sword, drawn.
Put, more than all, it's the pledge of love
To the lads whom we call "our own,"
To the boys on the land, afloat, on high,
It's the good old "money from home."
