GERMANY'S SURRENDER A FAKE REPORT

The report of Germany's surrender to the Allied Armies at 11 a. m. Thursday reached Chestertown at 2 p. m. and was celebrated here by the blowing of whistles, ringing of church bells and great rejoicing by our people. Many of our citizens offered prayers of thanksgiving to God, while many took it less seriously and showed their delight in other ways. The small boys and girls gave vent to their feelings by a large bon fire on the lot near the depot, on which the kaiser was burned in effigy. A great change took place among our people yesterday morning, when the news came that the reported surrender of Germany was a fake and that severe fighting was going on along the whole battle line.

KENT GOES REPUBLICAN

Gives Andrews A Majority of 58 Over Congressman Price

The election in this county on Tuesday was one of the quietest we have ever witnessed. Neither the Democratic nor Republican workers apparently showed any activity, and the votes cast were small in number, many voters not coming to the polls.

The result of the Senatorial and Congressional election throughout the country is somewhat disappointing to the Democrats. While they elected Congressmen in unexpected states, they lost out in other states where it was expected they would win. Maryland split even, lecting three Democrats, Linthicum, Coady and Benson, and three Republicans, Zimmerman, Mudd and Andrews. Congressman Price's defeat in this district was unlooked for as it was generally thought he would be re-elected. He has stood behind the President in all his war measures and for that reason if for no other he should have been returned to Congress.

The Republicans are in control of the Lower House of Congress by a majority of 41, while the Senate is still in doubt.

The result in Kent county is as follows:

UNITED WAR WORKERS MEET

Congressman Linthicum Speaks Here

A big meeting was held in the Lyceum on Thursday night in the interest of the United War Work Campaign. Congressman J. C. Linthicum, Herbert Roberts, Y. M. C. A. Secretary, and C. E. Powers, Esq., spoke. A large crowd was present and the speaking was good. Mr. Charles A. McCann, cantonment entertainer, brought down the house with his singing and music.

Congressman Linthicum spoke last Thursday evening in the Lyceum in the interest of the United War Warkers, his speech being, "Five Weeks on Top of World." Mr. Linthicum has just returned from France, and is helping this work by a tour throughout the State to reawaken the great interest of our people in the many organizations which are serving the boys in France and in the cantonments in our country.

In speaking of his trip, he mentioned the jeopardy in which all persons crossing the ocean are placed. He spoke of the wonderful achievements which America had made in landing more than one million and a half of soldiers on the other side, with slight loss, and this amidst not alone the dangers of the sea, but the added danger of the sub-marines.

He told of the splendid roads throughout France and how they played such a vast part in winning the war. "On one occasion," said he, "the Germans were attempting to break through the Frence lines and no doubt would have done so the next day, but between dawn and daylight the French conveyed from the western section of the salient to the eastern section some 75,000 soldiers, by the use of 10,000 motor trucks, so that when the Germans attempted their work in the morning they were confronted by this great number of French men in addition to what they had, and were thwarted in their battle and defeated."

Mr. Linthicum told of the terrible destruction in Northern France, and how city after city had been laid waste beyond reconstruction; how the great city of Rheims, with its more than 100,000 souls, was a complete wreck, with its devastated cathedral standing as a monument to the vandalism of the German armies. "Paris," he said, "is a great military cetre as far as men on leave are concerned, but the city is quite alive and not severely injured, and its people are doing business under the adverse conditions of air raids with a remarkable activity and heroism." "I saw," said he, "thousands of German prisoners, some immediately from the Front, but I did not see any old men or young boys in the ranks."

France and America are accomplishing a vast amount of work through the aid of the prisoners. They build roads, harvest crops, work in the salvage plants, and do all manner of things required of them owing to the scarcity of labor. The proudest thing I saw in all Europe was some of our colored troops guarding German prisoners, and they did it will. In fact, the colored troops are doing very good work indeed.

The admiration of everybody for the American soldiers in their adaptability for war work, their performance of all the duties required, and the energy and ability with which they perform them. One would imagine they had never done other than war work, and cannot realize that many of them are newly out of college or from some banking house or clerkship. American troops are the admiration of everybody; their fighting qualities cannot be better demonstrated than by their work at Chateau Thierry, when they were the only barrier between the German Army and Paris, between success and defeat.

These great organizations who are following up our boys and carrying the home comforts and cheer to them are doing a magnificent work, and when this war is all settled no man or woman can have a quiet conscience who did not assist them in financing them so that they may do even more work, and continue that which they are doing. No one can expend money to better advantage than by helping these organizations through the drive being made by the United War Workers.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

The following letter was recently received from Sergeant Colin F. Duyer, who is on the fighting front in France:

Have just removed from one front to another. It was the reason why I have not written anyone. You see we were on one front and could not do any writing and then being on the move for quite a while naturally put me behind in my correspondence.

I saw Bill Goss a few nights ago and he asked for you. He has gotten by so far without a scratch, like myself.

I was standing by the kitchen last night when a Boche plane came over about three hundred feet from the ground, and several American planes were in pursuit. An American brought him down not far from where we were. Quite a number of us got souvenirs off the plane, but it burned up almost immediately.

We are pushing forward on every front and according to Mr. Hoyle it will only be a short while before the whole German Empire will be crushed. Metz will be the next city to fall into the Americans hands, and from there the coal fields of Lorraine are only a short distance. It may mean a sacrifice of many lives, but perhaps with a lot of luck I will pull through all right. At any rate, I don't think my name is written on any German shell.

I have not seen Bates Russell or Fred Ford since we left the United States.

The following letter is from Priv. Ray Silcox to his sister. Private Silcox is in France. The letter is as follows:

Will try to write you a few lines tonight while I have time.

I received six letters Tuesday, but I was not in camp when they came; was away eight days. Went to the city to convoy some freight back to camp. There were two of us and we had some trip. We stayed a day and a night in the city to look around. It is lots different from a city in the States.

On our way back I saw the first corn since I have been in Europe. Also saw some fine vineyards. The train stopped one place where they were picking grapes and we tried to buy some from them. They gave us an armful and would not take a cent, so that is one time I got enough grapes.

Talk about beautiful scenery, we certainly did see some, but none looks as good to me as dear old Kent.

It has begun to feel like fall weather here. Some of the boys said it was snowing the other night, but I could not see it.

I have always wanted to see some of the world, so I am seeing it now.

I suppose the papers are full of war news now. They are giving it to them and I guess the old Kaiser has begun to change his mind about the American boys.

Anywhere you go in France you can see an American soldier.

Must close for this time.

Mr. Barber Bartley, of Camp Meade, was home for the first time this week the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bartley.

Word comes from Lieut. J. Thomas Kibler, who is in France and who was gassed several weeks ago, to the effect that he is in the hospital, but doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson received several letters from their son, Dr. Houston Toulson, who is in France. Dr. Toulson is in a hospital where there are over a thousand beds.

Mr. Eli Elliott, of Camp Meade, was home for the week-end the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodgkin were the first in Kent to receive the necessary label from their son, who is in France, which entitles him to a Christmas package.

Mrs. S. M. Crosby, of Rock Hall, recently received a letter from her son to the effect that while he had been sick in a hospital in France he is now improving.

The following seven draftees from Kent county are called to report at Camp Meade Wednesday, Nov. 13:

Chas. P. Slagle, Chestertown R. 3.
Edward A. Carroll, Chest. R. 3.
Robert V. Moffett, Chestertown.
George M. Pearce, Rock Hall.
Wilbert C. Collison, Rock Hall.
W. Harold Chance, Chestertown.

Mr. Horace E. Wood has enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam and will be assigned to the signal corps as wireless operator. He is daily expecting his call to report for training.

Lieut. A. J. Shartle, formerly a resident of Betterton and well-known in Chestertown, where he attended W. C., has been wounded in France. Lieut. Shartle enlisted nearly four years ago and was on the border during the trouble with Mexico.

Privates Graham Nelson and Joseph Downey, Jr., of Camp Meade, spent the week-end at home.

Private Charles Hadaway, Jr., has been in a hospital in France and is now on duty.

Mr. B. H. Titter, of near the Cliffs, received word Saturday from his son, George, that he had been gassed while in action. He is now in a hospital in Vichy, France, and doing well.

Lieut. Joseph Ayres wrote his parents, Capt. and Mrs. George Ayres, at Rock Hall, that he is spending a short time in a hospital somewhere in France.

It is now Sergeant Joseph Lambert—not Cook Lambert or Corporal Lambert. Sergeant Lambert was promoted a few weeks ago. He has been spending the past week with his relatives here and expects to spend next week here hunting.

Lieut. J. Thomas Kibler has been promoted to a captaincy. This is a well deserved promotion.

Sergeant Donald Stam has been moved from Camp McClellan to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Thomas H. Skipper received a very interesting letter from her husband, Sergeant T. H. Skipper, who is in France, this week. Sergeant Skipper has been in the big battles recently fought. He sent Mrs. Skipper two shoulder straps taken from German prisoners.

Mr. William Sachs, who is stationed in California, paid his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs, an unexpected visit this week.

Lieut. Norman Crouch has sustained an injury about the neck in France in an airplane accident and has been in a hospital. He is now doing well.

'My Own United States'

NOT A WAR PICTURE

The Billboard, America's foremost amusement journal, says of this picture: "After viewing this most patriotic, pleasing and educational photo-play one can only ask why there are not more of the same kind. It should be shown in every motion picture house throughout the country. It is Historically Correct; teaches and arouses the spirit of patriotism; shows the constancy of true love and emphasizes in an emphatic manner the curse of disloyalty to one's country. Parents should be encouraged to send their children to see this great historical and educational photo-play.

To the Subscribers of War Savings Stamps.

All persons who have pledged to buy WAR SAVINGS STAMPS are requested to pay their subscriptions as soon as possible, that it may be ascertained what additional stamps must be sold before Jan. 1, 1919, to complete Kent's allotment.

A very large number of subscriptions have not yet been paid. Kent must not fail to do her part and a supreme effort is to be made beginning November 9th to wind up the campaign.

Total pledges and sales to date amount to about $230,000.00; Kent's allotment is $339,140.00.

Pledges are filed at the Banks, Postoffices and Schools, as indicated in the subscriptions.

The National War Savings Committee, representing the U. S. Government, is making this urgent request.
