PRESIDENT WILSON has decided to attend the Peace Conference to be held in France next month and will leave shortly, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and the representatives of this government.

WHEN OUR BOYS COME HOME

When all our Kent county soldier boys who have served in the armies of the United States abroad and at home return, let's give them a joyous reception. Nothing we can do will be too much. Let's hold a big meeting in Chestertown with appropriate ceremonies.

THE signing of an armistice, the surrender of guns, the turning over of the war ships and U-boats and the evacuation by the soldiers of the French and Belgium territory makes the end of hostilities certain. When peace terms aer completed and signed and our armies demobilize and our boys return to civil life the world will return once more to quiet and happiness.

A visitation of every Sunday School in Maryland is planned for Sunday, Dec. 1, in charge of the secretary of the County Sunday School Association. The object is to arrange for a Christmas offering to help the sufferers in Armenia and Syria. The district secretaries and their assisting friends are asked to visit, if possible, every Sunday School during its session, and all pastors and superintendents are asked to give the visitor a welcome. Thousands of Armenians and other refugees are still dying of starvation and millions of dollars are needed to feed and clothe and reinstate them for self-support. Mr. M. Edward Newsome, of Chestertown, is the secretary for Kent county.

DEATHS

The body of Preston Jones was brought here by train on Tuesday and interred in Chester cemetery. The deceased was 27 years of age and was born in Chestertown, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Paul Jones, former residents of this town. On account of delicate health of his children Mr. Jones removed to Arizona about fifteen years ago. Preston, who was the youngest child, graduated at the University of Arizona, and for some months past has been acting as secretary to an official representative of the U. S., in Switzerland. Returning to New York several weeks ago he was attacked with influenza which developed into pneumonia and caused his death. He is survived by his father and one brother, Paul, a prominent artist of New York. Mr. Jones accompanied the remains of his son, and is spending a few days in town with his brother, Mr. E. B. Jones.

The pall bearers were: Wm. J. Maslin, Fred H. Davis, C. W. Kibler, Jr., H. C. Coleman, Dr. R. B. Von Kleinschmidt, F. G. Simpers.

Undertaker Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Dr. Pere W. Perkins, the third, son of the late Isaac Perkins, of this county, died at his home in Colliersville, Tennessee, Tuesday, Nov. 12, of pneumonia. He leaves, beisdes his brother, Mr. Al Perkins, of the South, two sisters, Mrs. E. W. Wroth and Miss Henney Perkins, of Westminister, Md., a son and seven grandchildren. Dr. Perkins left Kent county soon after the Civil War, studied medicine, graduated and built up a large practice. He leaves many friends to mourn his loss.

William Lee, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, died at the home of its parents on Friday last of influenza, age 5 weeks. Funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp; interment in Chester cemetery, C. L. Dodd undertaker.
