

Women's FALL Shoes More Beautiful Than Ever.

Though wartime necessity has made conservation of leather imperative, your shoes for Fall are not one whit less beautiful than in past seasons. Rather is the reverse true as you will be quick to realize when you see the charming models now on show at our store. You will see tans and greys in abundance in the new "regulation" patterns together with some very smart street shoes in black calf and gun metal—new military heels and numerous models in high heels both straight and curved.

LOCAL MATTERS

Buys Delco-Light Business.—Mr. John Speicher has purchased from Mr. H. E. Wood the Delco-Light business. Mr. Speicher will leave today for the Delco-Light factory where he will learn the business thoroughly and will return and resume business here. Mr. Speicher is a hustler and will no doubt make a big success of the Delco-Light business.

Another Convict Makes His Escape.—Another negro convict, a member of the gang from the Maryland Penitentiary, employed on the county road between Church Hill and Sudlersville, escaped one night this week. Two weeks ago the first negro made a successful getaway. A close watch is now being kept for fear that some concerted effort to escape may be made by the men. No clue has been found to the whereabouts of either man.

Tried To Saw Out Of Jail.—Jim Rasin, colored, was caught in an attempt to saw his way out of the Chestertown jail on Saturday night. Rasin had made a saw out of a case knife and would have escaped but for the vigilance of Sheriff Carter and Deputy Perkins who caught him in the attempt Rasin, who was in jail awaiting trial, is a well-known character to the police of Chestertown and has served several sentences.

Influenza Epidemic.—It is interesting to note that Phila. was hardest hit note that Philadelphia was hardest hit by the epidemic. More persons died from the disease in this country than died in the American army abroad from all causes. More soldiers' lives were lost in camps and contonments in the United States than were killed in actual battle in France. The Census Bureau gives figures from forty-six cities having a combined population of 23,000,000 and an epidemic mortality list of 82,306. Normally these cities would have lost 4,000 persons from influenza and pneumonia. Philadelphia had a rate of 7.4 deaths to 1,000 population. Baltimore was second, with a rate of 6.7.

Fairlee Grange Active.—Fairlee Grange held a very interesting meeting last Wednesday evening, Nov. 20. Everyone is looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the festal season of the Grange, with the Garner, good music and literary programs that our good lecturer has in store for the members. Victory celebration at help celebrate. Meting to open at 4 o'clock. All members come out and help celebrate. Meeting to open at4 o'clock sharp. Literary program at 4.30. Come and hear the Victory Program that our Lecturer has arranged. Supper at 6 o'clock. At 7.30 reception by the officers, with music and a social time in general. Come early and bring your baskets and make it a general victory Thanksgiving. Do not miss the after-supper toasts by Toastmaster and Lecturer.—M. E. C.

—To reassure families of soldiers and sailors overseas, now that the war is over, that their relatives in the service are safe, the United War Workers will distribute to the 2,000,000 men in European territory postcards to be mailed at once. The card will have spaces for the writer's name and regiment, with the information, "I'm safe and sound."

—Mr. Harry Lambert caught a number of flying fish and a two-pound codfish on Tuesday. Mr. Lambert says the flying fish was the largest he has ever caught, while the codfish is a rare fish in these waters. The flying fish is a peculiar looking fish about the size of a small perch, with small wings Mr. Lambert says they leave the water quite frequently and fly short distances. The flying fish is now on exhibition at Toulson's Drug Store.

—Our "cost of war" as figured in the list of casualities which daily continues to bring grief to hundreds of American homes, seems light, after all, when it is compared wiht the awful toll which has been required of Great Britain. The total casualities, on all the fronts, during the four years and three months of war, are recorded as 3,049,991. The number of men killed, or who died of wounds or disease, was 658,665, of whom 37,836 were officers.

—Messrs. Graham & Thomas have rented the store room on High street that had been occupied by R. F. Parks & Son for many years and will move their big hardware store from the Eliason building, further down the street, as soon as the Parks store room can be renovated. The warehouse in the rear of the Eliason building is owned by the above firm and will be moved to the rear of the Parks building for the storage of implements, etc. This property has a big lot in the rear and will make a good stand for the firm of Graham & Thomas.

Annual Meeting of Kent Co. Red Cross

The annual meeting of the Kent Co. Chapter American Red Cross was held at the Lyceum Theater November 20, 1918, at 2 p. m. The meeting was opened by a prayer of Thanksgiving by Dr. Henry Martin. A short sketch of the first Red Cross work in Kent County under the association for Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis was read by the Secretary of that branch of the Red Cross. The result of that work was the establishing of a County Health Nurse. With one-half the salary from Red Cross Christmas Seals sales and the other half appropriated by the Kent County Commissioners. The 1918 Christmas Seal sale furnished the money to carry on the work and the County Commissioners have given $1000 for the nurses salary. Owing to the resignation of Miss Ruth V. Norton we have been without a nurse since last October, but have the promise of one very soon.

At a meeting of the Woman's Council of Defense the first officers for American Red Cross work were elected which resulted in an organization of nine units for work under the Baltimore chapter.

After Mr. Henry Davidson's appointment as head of the American Red Cross a reorganization took place and each county had its chapter. The Kent County Chapter was organized October 29, 1917, the following officers being elected: Mrs. L. H. Wood, Chairman; Mr. Howard Turner, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. James G. Beck, Secretary; Mr. Allan A. Harirs, Treasurer; Mr. Wm. Elliott, Assistant Treasurer. The organization includes Galena Branch, Chestertown, Kennedyville, Worton, Still Pond, Rock Hall, Betterton, Fairlee, Millington, Pomona, Lynch Auxiliaries. Afterward colored auxiliaries were organized at Coelman, Janes M. E. and Bethel Churches, Chestertown, Georgetown, Pomona, Butlertown, Still Pond, Galena and one to be organized at Fountain.

The Chapter House was opened in March and all the organizations have been doing splendid work. Kent Chapter is one of two chapters in Maryland on the Honor Roll for Surgical Dressings and Muslin Work.

The 1917 membership drive raised $2150; the first war drive $870.20; the second war drive $6000.00.

Teh following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Jane V. Robinson, Chairman; Mr. Howard Turner, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. James G. Beck, Secretary; Mr. W. H. Elliott, Treasurer; Mr. Allan A. Harirs, Chairman Finance Committee.

The following officers were elected to extend to the outgoing Chairman, Mrs. Lewis H. Wood—who is soon to leave the county—a rising vote of appreciation for the splendid work in the organization of Kent County for the Red Cross.

The Red Cross is still continuing their work, as there is yet a large number of surgical dressings and hospital garments to be made. The classes will be continued as usual and the chairman asks for a full attendance at the meetings.

The Y. M. C. A. Huts

In the camps around our country and in countries far away
There's a lot of wooden houses that are marked Y. M. C. A.
And some are painted yellow and some are brown and green;
Now, say, who owns these houses and what do the letters mean?

They mean a bit of comfort and they mean a place to rest,
Where every tired soldier boy is welcomed as a guest;
They mean a bit of friendly talk, some music and some jokes,
And some quiet little corners for writing to your folks.

They mean a bit of human love amid the storm of war,
They mean the world of healing for spirits wounded sore,
They mean a simple message from God's own holy word,
And they mean the thought of the homeland where the sweet old hymns are heard.

You ask who owns these houses? I think you know His name.
You call Him Savior, Master, Lord, the meaning is the same—
'Tis the one who gave Himself for us,
the leader of our life;
We pray He'll lead and keep our boys
in peril and in strife.

O keep them strong and steady, and keep them clean and true!
Help them to battle for the right and put the victory through!
Be Thou their shield and buckler, but if one is stricken down, O Captain of Salvation, give him the Heavenly crown!

—HENRY VANDYKE.
