Vegas 'Bandits' Pay For Airport

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — The slot machines at McCarran Airport, which get heavy play by tourists as they arrive and leave Las Vegas, recorded record-breaking revenue last week of almost $19,000. Most of the money goes into Clark County coffers.

Slot machines at the airport usually generate more revenue for the county than landing fees charged all the airlines using the airport's facilities.

Senate sets hearings on housing bias

WASHINGTON — Robert L. Carter, president of the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing and a New York attorney, will be the first witness in hearings on the interrelationship of housing and school segregation, beginning Aug. 25 before the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Equal Educational Opportunity.

Carter, a constitutional law authority who has been NCDH president since 1968, is also co-chairman of the National Conference of Black Lawyers.

In his 20 years as general counsel of the NAACP, he argued or participated in preparation of most of the landmark school and housing cases decided by the U.S. Supreme Court, including the 1954 school desegregation decision Brown v. Board of Education and the 1968 housing discrimination ruling Jones v. Mayer Co.

NCDH executive co-director Edward Rutledge will appear before the committee with Carter, submitting to the Senators data drawn from continuing NCDH research projects.

WBAL-TV airs 4th D. GOP candidates

Fourth Congressional District Republican candidates seeking nomination in the Sept. 15 primary election will meet Baltimore area newsmen to present their political platforms when WBAL-TV airs "Congressional Forum" Sunday, at 6:6:30 p.m.

Appearing on the program are Ernest D. Young, James E. Ryan, David Fentress, Samuel A. Culotta and Walter E. Beuchelt. Jerry Moring, WBAL-TV News Department Manager, will act as moderator.

Newmen appearing on the program will be selected from local newspapers, and radio and television stations.

The program, third in a series of five, will follow a news conference format with candidates commenting on questions dealing with political issues on the Fourth Congressional District.

According to Brent O. Gunts, WBAL-TV vice president and general manager, the programs are being televised so voters will have additional information about candidates before going to the polls on Sept. 15.

The two remaining "Congressional Forum" programs will present Democratic candidates from the Seventh Congressional District on Sept. 6, at 6:6:30 p.m., and Seventh District Republican candidates on Sept. 13, at 6:6:30 p.m.

Chickie's pet beauty business

Mrs. Lowuazn UKoger of Baltimore, Md., popularly known as Chichie, opened a pet beauty salon called Chichie's Poodle Pub with $1,000 in December of 1965 in the heart of the ghetto in Washington, D.C.

After the riots in 1968 she moved her shop to the affluent Georgetown in Washington. Her shop was an instant success. She groomed all of Washington's V.I.P. dogs from Mrs. Auchincloss, Attorney General Mitchell, the Ambassador of France, to the Princess of Morroco.

Her shop sells pet accessories that include mink and chinchilla coats, the new Edwardian styles, raincoats, boots, sunglasses, beds, turtleneck sweaters, and toys.

Chichie then opened another shop in Bethesda, Maryland. This shop was also an instant success with her proven methods of operation.

Chichie's Inc. is now a pet franchise company trading as Chichie's Pet Boutiques. The first franchise was purchased by Mr. Jesse Whittington, a local Baltimore school teacher. Mr. Whittington's shop is located at 6000 Baltimore National Pike on Route 40 in the One Mile West on shopping center right next door to the Toys-R-Us store.

Mr. Whittington graduated from the Chichie's school of grooming. He uses the same quality work that Chichie's is known for. He grooms all the breeds of dogs and specializes in Poodles and Schnauzers.

Chichie's Pet Boutique plans two more shops in this area. Says Chichie of her success, "Hard work, a few breaks, and persistence have paid off for us". Chichie's believes that minority groups can get into the mainstream of the economic life in America, if given the proper chance".

She says "The only thing that we are asking, is that the chances be more frequent. We know that we have to try harder, we always have. If we can get the banks, the government and the people to try just a little harder with us, we will show them."

Chichie's Pet Boutique cost about $19,000.00, and they are showing a net profit of between $25,000.00 to $30,000.00 per year before taxes.

Birthday Tribute

DYSON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our father and grandfather and great grandfather, REV. JOHN C. DYSON, on his birthday, August 29, who passed away August 30, 1959:
Happy birthday, dear loved one,
May you have many more.
Not on earth, but in Heaven,
In that far off distant shore.
Tears come and not presents,
Flowers go to your grave,
O God deliver this message
We miss you, dear father,
On your birthday.
A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps his memoirs ever dear.
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
Loving CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN, and GREAT GRANDCHILDREN

I may wake up tomorrow but, why would I care.
All I want is behind me; you're gone — you're gone

Silently remind me you're gone — You're gone
Must a whole life be torn, does it all come apart?

Can a loser be born, or have I mastered the tired fate?
Will I ever believe. You're gone, You're gone; you're gone.
