Churches are invited to send news of special church activities to this column which will print it free of charge. Readers are also invited to send this column copies of their church programs.

Protestants, Catholics, and other denominations will be joining in choruses of praise at a gospel festival for Labor day weekend travelers on Saturday in Salisbury, Md.

The program will be from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. There will be special prayers, speakers singing groups, and other activities.

The festival is interdenominational in the sense that the active involvement of Christ in the layman's life cuts across all denominational lines and produces a new man and a new life.

The event will be held in the Salisbury Civic Center.

Refuge Way of The Cross Church of Christ will observe gospel fellowship night on Saturday, 5 to 7 p.m. at the church.

Guests appearing on the program will be the Bible Way Youth and Adult Choir, Golden Harmoneers, Famous Echoneers of First Apostolic Brown specials, The Christianairs, Mrs. Julia Freeman and other singing groups.

The Rev. Leroy H. Cannady is pastor of the church. The Rev. Hule Rogers pastor of Eible Way Church of Christ in New York will be the guest speaker.

The Younger Society of Greater New Hope Baptist Church, 1308-10 Riggs Ave. are sponsoring a fashion show on Friday, 7:30 p.m. Miss Sylvia Dennis is president. The Rev. Leonard Hicks is pastor.

The Towson Unitarian Universalist Church will meet at a new location this fall. Timonium Elementary School, 2001 Eastridge Rd. Services will begin September and Sunday school September 27.

The Rev. David Hicks McPherson is pastor.

2,500 Witnesses expected

A total of 2,500 Jehovah's Witnesses will leave Baltimore to gather at the Jehovah's Witnesses Assembly Hall in Crownsville on the successive weekends of Sept. 11, 12 and 13 and Sept. 18, 19, and 20.

Congregations from Baltimore's inner-city will attend these conventions of Bible instruction located on Sunrise Beach Road off Route 178 in Crownsville.

This educational program has as its theme "The Word of God is Alive." Sessions beginning at 6:45 P.M. on the Friday of each weekend and running through the following Sunday are considered "necessary to good spiritual health for all in attendance," a spokeman for the Witnesses said.

Dramatized presentations, Bible talks, and discussions will be used to emphasize the importance of accurate Bible knowledge and building a strong spiritual family unit by training children in the discipline of God.

Those in attendance will see and hear better ways of teaching others the Bible and experiences in the ministry.

• • •

Many of Jehovah's Witnesses are scheduled to speak and participate in this instructional program in the Assembly Hall. A special highlight of these meetings in the baptism of new ministers which will be held on both Saturday mornings.

The climax of the convention will be the free public Bible talk entitled "Who Will Conquer the World in the 70's" delivered by Peter D'Mura, district supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses, on Sundays, September 13 and 20 at 3 P.M.

Mr. D'Mura's discourse is designed to help listeners to overcome the fears produced by economic, religious and social pressures of today. Attention will be drawn to God's Word the Bigle and its use in building faith.

The convention free and open to the public, is to be in the new Assembly Hall located on the property of the late Baltimore dentist, Dr. William Mason who died in April, 1968.

Was school guard for over 10 years

Mrs. Audrey L. R. Weaver, a Baltimore City School crossing guard for over 10 years, died Wednesday morning after an extended illness and stay in the Baltimore City Hospital.

Funeral services for Mrs. Weaver, 41, 2037 Robb St., will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at the William C. March Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Her husband, Jame E. Weaver, employed over 24 years by the Edgewood Arsenal Transportation System, will receive friends at the March Funeral Home Friday from 7 until 8 p.m.

Mrs. Weaver Was a lifelong member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church and headed the Eastern Police District crossing guards association.

Survivors other than her husband include one daughter, Miss Elverlen Weaver; two sons, Anthony Lamont Weaver and James Weaver, Jr.; one grandson, Anthony T. Weaver; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Patrica Weaver; her father, Collins Talley; and her brother, Collins Talley, Jr.
