Johnny Johnson appointed Commissioner of the DMV

Gov. Marvin Mandel announced Thursday the appointment of Ejner J. Johnson as commissioner of the Department of Motor Vehicles, effective immediately.

Mr. Johnson, 38, has served as acting Commissioner of motor vehicle since June of this year when Commissioner John R. Jewell was named by Gov. Mandel to serve as Secretary of Licensing and Regulation.

In announcing the appointment, Gov. Mandel declared, "We are indeed fortunate to have a man of Mr. Johnson's background and qualifications for this most important position, particularly at a time when the Department of Motor Vehicles is preparing for its new role as a member agency of the Department of Transportation which begins operation next year.

"Mr. Johnson's performance as acting commissioner of the Department of Motor Vehicles during the last two months is evidence, in my opinion, that he is especially well-prepared for this assignment and that Maryland can be assured of continued outstanding leadership in the administration of its motor vehicle programs," the governor said.

Prior to becoming acting commissioner of the Department, Mr. Johnson had served as chief deputy commission since July, 1969. He joined the state agency as executive assistant to then Commissioner Jewell in May, 1965.

Previously, he was an executive assistant to former Governor J. Millard Tawes, serving as liaison officer between the governor's office and the Legislature and various state agencies.

Before joining the governor's staff, he worked in Baltimore as a reporter, covering state news and political affairs. In addition to local stories, his assignments included several in Latin America.

In addition to his responsibilities as acting commissioner of motor vehicles, Mr. Johnson has served as Gov. Mandel's personal representative to the Governors' Conferences for Transportation, Commerce and Technology.

He was chairman of the Legislative Subcommittee on Revision of the Motor Vehicle Code, and served as a member of the Governor's Task Force that planned the creation of the Department of Transportation.

He is Chairman of the Governor's Technical Advisory Committee on Highway Safety, and a member of the Vehicle Equipment Safety Commission and the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund Board.

Representing the State of Maryland at the Southern Conference Council of State Governments, Mr. Johnson also holds membership on the Vehicle Inspection and Regulation Committee of the National Academy of Sciences Highway Research Board, has served on the Management Information and Program Evaluation Committee for the State in 1968, and is a member of the Highway Safety Policy Advisory Committee and the Board of Directors of the Baltimore Safety Council.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1932, Mr. Johnson served in the United States Army and is a graduate of the University of Maryland. He and his wife, Grace, are the parents of five children and live in Severna Park.

Eastern teacher Eric Hollengren, on trial Monday

Eric Christian Hollengren, the controversial 25-year-old provisional public school teacher involved in Eastern High School spring disturbances is due to go on trial in Criminal Court on Monday.

Court records show he will appear before Judge Paul Dorf to faces charges of riot, inciting to riot, assault on a police officer and disorderly conduct arising from his arrest at the Flower Mart on May 13. At a preliminary hearing the teacher said he did not attend the Flower Mart.

Department of Education records show that Mr. Hollengren was transferred from Eastern High School to Patterson Park High School against his will after the Eastern High incidents.

During student uprisings at the all-girl school, Hollengren joined protestors who alleged discrimination because of race.

Dr. Thomas Sheldon fired him during a heated meeting when Hollengren was alleged to have used foul language.

The teacher was reinstated and then moved to Patterson Park. Before school closed for the summer, Dr. Sheldon again announced Hollengren's dismissal and the teacher appealed the ruling once again. He received pay until June 30, nevertheless.

However, latest records show that Mr. Hollengren "was not reemployed and a more qualified teacher was hired to replace him for the September term.

Hollengren, a resident of the 2900 block Calvert St., was due to arrive in Criminal Court for arraignment on the Flower Mart charges on July 7. He had been free on his own recognizance since his arrest.

Records indicate that he did not appear for arraignment and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

However, on July 13 Judge Anselm Solaro quashed the warrant when he showed up and entered pleas of not guilty to each of the charges.

Grand Jury indictments show that the teacher is accused of assaulting Tactical Squad Officer Charles J. Esler, encouraging persons to riot and helping to bring about a riotious situation at the Flower Mart at Charles and Mt. Vernon Square on May 13.

The trial was originally set in for Aug. 27 but removed from the docket by request of the Office of the States Attorney.

HE WILL WORK FOR YOU!

He worked in Washington for President Kennedy. He worked for Baltimore's 2nd District in the Maryland House of Delegates. He worked for Robert Kennedy in his campaign for President.

Now he wants to work for you—in the Congress of the United States.

Paul Sarbanes cares about the things you care about. Better schools, decent jobs and housing, clean and safe neighborhoods. He wants to halt rising prices and skyrocketing medical costs.

Sarbanes will work to change our government's spending—away from the costly war in Southeast Asia, away from expensive weapons systems, back to the pressing needs right here at home.

Sarbanes will work for all the people. Not for special interest groups, but for every citizen in the 4th Congressional District.

On Tuesday, September 15th, show your dissatisfaction with things as they are. Vote for a change in the Congress. Pull Lever 4-C, and Vote for Paul Sarbanes!
