H. SACHS & SON

Fall Season 1918-19 is very much in evidence at our store

New and up-to-date merchandise is coming in every day, and when complete we will have one of the best selections of LADIES', MEN'S and CHILDREN'S goods, than ever before, consisting of the following lines, namely:

Ladies' Department.

SUITS, COATS, DRESSES, FURS, MILLINERY, SWEATERS, SKIRTS, WAISTS, ETC.

Men's Department.

SUITS, OVERCOATS, PANTS, HATS, SWEATERS, FURNISHINGS, ETC.

Children's Department

WE CAN CLOTHE YOUR SCHOOL BOY OR GIRL COMPLETE.

DRESSES, HATS, SWEATERS, FURNISHINGS, BOYS' SUITS, MACKINAWS, PANTS, CAPS, BLOUSES and SHIRTS.

No doubt you have heard everywhere of the tremendous advance in prices of all classes of merchandise; you will find it quite different here.

We are selling our goods this season at the same low prices as heretofore, and if any advance, it is so little as not to be noticeable to any extent. This is due to the fact that we made all our purchases early in the season before the goods advanced. As most of our goods are in, we invite you to come in now and make an early selection, we have just what you are looking for.

A Letter From England

The following extract is from a letter to Mrs. W. O. Selby from Sir James Henry Strong, of Wyman Abbey, England, and will be of interest to some of our readers:

"I am sure I shall have your sympathy when I tell you that we lost our only son in action not far from Ypres on August 16. As transport officer to our local battalion, the 9th Royal Irish Fusiliers, he was leading his men who were bringing water and ammunition to the battalion which was engaged against superior forces. He was killed instantly by a small fragment of a shell that fell close to him, and a party of his men returned under fire next day and brought back his body for burial. The general of the division wrote me that if my son had lived, his skill and courage would have been brought to the notice of the military authorities.

"Capt. Norman Strong, the only son of my first cousin and the representative of our family in the next generation, is at present adjutant of a batalion of Royal Irish Rifles, having filled that post in several battles of the Ulster Division. He has greatly distinguished himself and holds the military cross and the Belgian croix de guerre. Until lately he went through countless dangers without injury. About a month ago he was blown into the air by a shell that fell at his feet and seriously wounded five men near him, while he escaped with a slight wound over the eye, some bruises and slight shock, and having been home for a few days is in France again.

"The cessation of hostilities is a relief to us all, and if some of us cannot rejoice quite as others do, we can at all events feel very thankful that the lives which have been given have not been given in vain. I hope that all your friends will return safe.

"I think that the American Army was given a very hard job to perform and that it was their advance with that of the French armies on their flank that made it impossible for the Germans to withdraw from Belgium and obliged them to conclude this armistice or be driven into Holland."
