THE LADIES' STORE,

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

(Other Items on Page 6)

Mr. Donald Stam has been mustered out of the army and is now the guest of his mother in Chestertown. He was in the chemical department and was stationed in Washington, D. C.

The many friends of Lieut. and Mrs. Robert R. Ayres were much pleased on Tuesday evening at their appearance in Kent county. Lieut. Ayres has been stationed at Camp Green, N. C., for several months, his wife residing at Charlotte nearby. Lieut. Ayres has been honorably discharged from the army—now that the war is over—and will probably make his home in Chestertown. He was much disappointed at not reaching France, as his regiment was all ready to go when the influenza epidemic stopped them.

Sergeant Colin F. Duyer writes his parents from France that he is not in the army of occupation and expects to be home within two or three months. He is now stationed at Langres, France, and has been attending a machine gun school. Sergeant Duyer said he expected to spend a week or two in Paris shortly. Capt. Carey Jarman, in a recent letter, said that Sergeant Duyer had charge of two machine guns during the big drive of 21 days.

Private Stanely Wilson, of Golts, is reported wounded in France.

James A. Thompson, colored, of Chestertown R. R. 2, was severely wounded in France during the last few days of the war.

While Mr. H. B. Matthews' name appears among the missing, later reports received by his parents direct from him says that he is in a hospital doing nicely.

The name of John W. Jester, of Millington, appears among the list of the wounded in France.

Ernest M. Barroll, colored, of Worton, died of disease in France.

Mr. Spencer Smith, of Lankford, was wounded in the arm in France. In a letter he says he expects to be home soon. He also says that his brother, Marion, has been made a sergeant.

A letter was received in Chestertown on Tuesday by a friend with a clipping from a New York paper telling of the bravery of Private Charles H. Robinson, who had been cited for bravery on the battlefield.

Mr. James Bacchus writes from England that he is well. Mr. Bacchus, now that the war is over, is anxious to get home—like all the rest of the American boys.

Mr. Gilbert Jarman has been honorably discharged from the navy. Mr. Jarman resides in Baltimore.

Lieut. Norman Crouch is now stationed at Paris doing clerical work, since he sustained his recent injury while flying.

Sergeant Frank Jarman is now stationed at a camp in Virginia, having recently returned from Europe. It is reported that Sergeant Jarman has been suffering with some form of rheumatism in his right arm.

Mr. William Oglesby, who has been stationed at Berkeley, Va., has been honorably discharged.

Captain J. Thomas Kibler is now stationed near Coblenz, Germany, with the American Army of Occupation. He will not, as a consequence, be home for some time.

Experts figure that Germany will be compelled to pay the Allies an indemnity of from 10 billion to 20 billion dollars.

The many friends of Dr. G. Allan Jarman, and the farmers of Kent and Queen Annes, will be pleased to know that Captain Jarman has been honorably ischarged from the army and is home again. Captain Jarman has recently been stationed at Fort Wadsworth. Capt. Jarman was among the first from Kent County to enlist, and secured the rank of lieutenant, but he was promoted in a short time to the rank of captain. He has the distinction of also having had three sons in the service.

Mr. Charles Ford returned to Chestertown on Thursday evening, having been honorably discharged from the army. He has been working in a gas plant for the government for several months.

HORSE NEWS

Breeding The Animals For Profit and For Use

In this department has begun a series of articles on Horse Breeding for Farmers. It will be divided into these topics: Profit in Breeding Farm Mares; Selecting a Stallion; Feeding and Management of Mares in Foal; Care of the Foal, and Feeding and Management of Young Horses.

To improve the breed of Maryalnd horses, a limited number of thoroughbred sires will be donated free of charge to farmers or horsemen who will give them good care. This offer is made to the readers of this paper in good faith by the Maryland Breeding Bureau, American Building, Baltimore. Write to it for particulars and to obtain the names of men having Maryland Breeding Bureau stallions in your neighborhood.

STILL POND
