THE time for the War Savings Stamp drive to end is near at hand—Dec. 31—and while the real hostilities have ceased, there is much war work yet to be done and much money is needed to accomplish this work. Without your assistance through the purchase of these stamps it will be impossible to give our soldiers the necessary support they need. Therefore, all citizens should buy stamps and help bring the war to a successful conclusion.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS TO OUR READERS

Before another issue of the Transcript reaches our readers Christmas will have come and gone. To all our friends, patrons and citizens we extend the greetings of the season and hope they may all have a joyous Christmas and that no misfortune or sorrow may enter their hearts or their homes. To those who have suffered afflictions during the year by having their loved ones taken we extend sympathy and hope the shadows that have fallen across their pathway may soon brighten by the dawn of new life.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

To Our Soldier And Sailor Boys Over There And Over Here

To our boys in khaki and in blue, who have so nobly defended our country's honor and helped win the greatest war that has been fought, we offer Christmas cheer and hope they may all have a bright and cheerful day; it is to them that all America and the Allied nations owe the victory. It is to their gallant and heroic service at home and abroad that enables the world to have a peaceful and happy Christmas. To the families of the soldiers who laid down their lives in the great struggle, we offer sympathy, and hope they may get some comfort in the realization that the sacrifice that has come to them has made the world a better place for those who are left to live in.

Red CROSS NOTES

A Challenge From Over In Talbot County

The following telegram speaks for itself:

"Mr. Howard Turner, Chestertown, Md.

"Talbot County challenges each county on the Eastern Shore to match it in obtaining the same proportion of Red Cross members to the population. Talbot's entire membership expired January 1. We expect to renew all of them and then go some. Try to beat us. Let. Mr. Shriver announce result Saturday night.

WILLARD G ROUSE,
Chairman Talbot Chapter Roll Call."

Talbot county is right after us, but the Red Cross of old Kent has accepted the challenge. Every Auxiliary and Branch of our chapter is working hard to beat our record of last year. Universal membership in the Red Cross is the American slogan in this drive, which ends Monday night, Dec. 23. Last year we enrolled 2330 members and Kent stood fourth in the state. Talbot stood fifth. We hope to largely increase our membership this year and it is up to the people of Kent to lead the Eastern Shore.

HOWARD TURNER,
Chairman Red Cross Christmas Roll Call.

Capt. Oliver P. Beeman has been a guest in town this week. Capt. Beeman left Canada in 1914 to join the English Army, Yorkshire Light Infantry. He has been in this country several months speaking constantly for the Liberty Loan propaganda and now the Red Cross. Meetings were held at Fairlee and Rock Hall Tuesday night. He is returning to speak at Millington Friday night. Capt. Beeman is an excellent speaker and his work is of particular value in helping along the great campaign for membership of the Red Cross in Kent County. Capt. Beeman's experience and personal knowledge of the work done by the Red Cross is most interesting, he having been wounded three times.

Lieut. Harwood will speak at the M. E. Church, Still Pond, Sunday at 3 p. m.

C. H. Literary Society Meets

A most enjoyable open meeting was held on Thursday evening by the C. H. S. Literary Society. The president of the meeting, Clark Davis, presided with dignity and ease. All the recitations showed careful preparation and were well rendered and the carols led by Prof. Creasy, were very inspiring. One of the most pleasing numbers was a quartette by Misses Helen Rouse and Dorothy Woodall and Messrs. Clarke Davis and Ralph Usilton.

The debate, "Resolved that the U. S. should feed Germany," was most interesting. The affirmative was taken by Clarke Davis, Mary Simpers and Pauline Hazell and the negative by Flora Corey, Robert Atkinson and Milburn Jones.

Both sides were well argued and the judges found it hard to make a decision but finally decided in favor of the affirmative.

The proceeds of the meeting went toward the payment of a Fourth Liberty Bond, which the Senior Class had promised to raise for the school.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, Prof. H. W. Fleming, of the School of Practipedics, of New York, and Chicago, of which school Mr. Abe Sachs, of Chestertown, is a graduate, gave an interesting talk on foot specialties. Anyone wishing any information on orthopedic appliances can get it from Mr. Sachs at his store on High street.

The room was prettily decorated and well lighted and all went home feeling they had been very agreeably entertained.

NOTICE TO PATRONS

Owing to war conditions, the County Board of Education was disposed to be very lenient in the application of the Maryland school attendance law. It was recognized that labor requirements demanded the utilization of all the resources available, and, in the absence of adult help, school children were compelled to work as never before. While the cessation of the war has not entirely relieved the situation, still the same necessity for child labor does not exist, and the Board of Education must insist upon more general observance of the attendance law. It is felt that the liberty accorded to children for what were considered legitimate and pressing needs, has been somewhat abused and children are now allowed to remain away from school for various unlawful reasons. The Board would like also to remind parents that outside of educational and legal reasons for keeping their children in school, the financial aspect is worthy of consideration, since state aid is largely dependent upon the general average of attendance. The Board takes this method of calling attention to the existence of the law, impressing upon parents their obligations in the case, warning them against possible prosecution for violations of the statute, and appealing to them from the standpoint of their children's educational welfare.
