OUR SLAIN
(By Mary Robertine Stokes)

They withheld naught of their treasure
That Peace reign on earth,
They gave red life with its song,
Gold youth with its mirth.

Out there under the alien sod
When the spring blooms come,
God, will they speak for lasting Peace,
The lips that are numb?

A SAD ACCIDENT

Aged Chestertown Man Killed On High Street On Christmas Eve

The whole community was deeply shocked and grieved on Christmas eve (Tuesday), when Mr. John Brown was killed by being struck by an automobile, driven by Mrs. Frank Jarrell, on High street, near Bordley's corner, at about 6 o'clock. Mrs. Jarrell was accompanied by Mrs. Louis Mietzsch when the sad accident occurred. Mr. Brown died a few minutes after being struck, being rendered unconscious immediately.

Witnesses of the accident say that Mrs. Jarrell was proceeding slowly up High street when the accident occurred. A number of young men in khaki had passed in front of Mrs. Jarrell's car, and Mr. Brown, carrying an umbrella raised (as it was raining) attempted to cross the road also, going in the direction of Mr. M. A. Toulson's drug store.

Mr. Brown failed to observe the approaching car, while Mrs. Jarrell also failed to see him, no doubt thinking that the three young men in khaki constituted the party who were crossing the street. Mr. Brown was in the rear of these men, his raised umbrella preventing him from seeing the car. As all Chestertown people know, at the time of the accident a heavy rain was falling, Mrs. Jarrell's wind shield being covered with the rain. This prevented her from seeing ahead any distance, and many automobilists have told us that they had narrow escapes from accidents the same evening because of the rain.

Mr. Brown was carried into the drug store of Mr. M. A. Toulson, but died in a few minutes.

Coroner Dodd deemed an inquest unnecessary, as the accident was said to be an unavoidable one.

The deceased was highly respected by all who knew him and was a gentleman that was particularly well liked in Chestertown. He has been acting as janitor at Lyceum Theatre and the postoffice for several years and was faithful to his duties at all times. He was 75 years of age and leaves a wife, who is said to be in feeble health, and a father, who is 99 years of age. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m., interment in Chester cemetery. Rev. T. F. Beauchamp officiated. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

The pall bearers were Allen A. Harris, F. G. Usilton, Frank Elburn, Henry Hughes, Thomas White and W. H. Waddell.

BETTERTON ITEMS

The influenza has again left Betterton and practically every one is well. The churches are again open and public gatherings are being held after being closed for three weeks.

Lieutenant Harwood gave a most interesting talk at the M. E. Church last Friday evening at the Red Cross Roll Call meeting.

Among those at home for the Christmas holidays were Misses Edith Turner, Marie Willis, Mary and Sarah Taylor, Elsie Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brice and son, Mr. Alfred Greenwood, Private Howard Brice.

Mrs. James T. Crew and daughters spent Christmas week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price have moved from their farm to the Price Cottage. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Price to Betterton.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bramble and son are spending the week in Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Moore.

—Mr. Frank Skirven holds the record for killing the largest number of partridges of any Kent county gunner.

NOTICE

I desire to extend my most sincere thanks to those of my patrons who so generously remembered me this Xmas. Wishing each and all a hearty and prosperous New Year.

Cordially,
