WARNING TO CONSUMERS OF WATER IN CHESTERTOWN

On Saturday, Jan. 4th., 1919, we stopped pumping at the plant with 82 lbs. pressure, which is stand pipe and tank full of water—112,000 gallons. At 3 a. m. this was all gone. Wasted by patrons who allowed their faucets to run on account of the cold night. The Board wants to warn every person who does this that they are endangering every building in Chestertown in case of fire. We wish to call special attention to Abuses Prohibited Rules No. 2 and 6, page 10, and 11 of the company which absolutely prohibits this practice. Should there be no water on account of this waste we want the people to know who is responsible. To those who continue this practice it may be necessary to cut off their supply to protect the safety of the property in the town.

The Story of the War

The following poem was composed by Ethel Blaustein, age 12, of Rock Hall, Md.:

The Germans had beaten the British,
The Germans had beaten the French,
The Germans then owned little Belgium,
Then sent Italy to the Trench.

The Germans were fifty miles from Paris,
When America showed her brave hand
She sent her bravest laddies
And others soon followed that band.

Our laddies soon showed them their will,
They made the Huns go back,
And after them the Yankees went
And no speed did they lack.

The Germans at last surrendered,
They found they could do no more,
And their guns and arms they surrendered
Into the hands of the victors.

The armistice was signed,
The men laid down their arms,
And peace and happiness reigned
Unto the fighters at the Marne.

The Kaiser at last was forced to flee
To Holland for his liberty,
His home, his land, his country gone,
That is the end of the Hohenzollern.

CHURCH NOTES

Union services will be held in the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday morning at 10.30; Sunday School at 2.15 p. m.

The Union Revival services are now in progress at the two Methodist Churches of Chestertown, under the direction of Rev. T. F. Beauchamp and Rev. J. L. Ward. Much interest is being manifested in the services, which will, no doubt, result in the conversion of many. Mr. Frederick J. Balmond, who has charge of the singing at the meetings, is a good leader and his singing is attracting considerable attention.

Rev. Mr. Donovan, of St. James Church, filled the pulpit at the Chestertown M. E. Church on Thursday evening and delivered an interesting and profitable sermon.

The following officers have been elected by the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church for 1919: Pres., J. W. Russell; V. P., Paul Adams; Sec., H. B. Hudson; Treas., Albert Wheat; Asst. Treas., George French.

The following officers have been elected for the M. E. Sunday School at a recent meeting: Supt., C. Norman Jefferson; Asst. Supt., J. E. Barnes; Sec., Argus Robinson; Asst. Sec., Jas. Kirby; Treas., C. L. Jarrell; Pianist, Miss Grace Nickerson; Asst. Pianist, Miss Mary Covey; Organist, Miss Daisy Barnes; Chorister, Miss Fannie Stuart; Librarians, Milbourne Jones and Norman Crow; Primary Dept. Supts., Mrs. H. F. Jefferson and Miss Hallie Toulson.

The W. C. T. U. will hold an executive meeting at the Red Cross Chapter House, Chestertown, on Wednesday, Jan. 15, at 10.30 a. m. Members of all unions are invited to be present. All officers and superintendents of departments are especially urged to attend.

Rev. Ralph T. Coursey, one of the best known ministers of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, pastor of the M. E. Church at Wyoming, Del., died Sunday evening at the Wyoming parsonage after an illness of but two days, due to Bright's disease. Mr. Coursey had been a member of the Wilmington M. E. Conference since 1887 and had served many of the most important pastorates in the conference. He was well and favorably known as the conference singing evangelist and was a native of Queen Anne County.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward pastor. Sunday services: Union Evangelistic Meeting in the M. E. Church 10.30 a. m.; Men's Meeting in the M. E. Church 4.00 p. m.; Prof. F. J. Bolwood will conduct these meetings. S. S., in Christ M. P. Church, F. G. Usilton, Supt., 2.30 p. m.; Evangelistic service in Christ M. P. Church 7.30 p. m., Rev. T.F. Beauchamp will preach. Prof. Bolwood will sing.

The Union Evangelistic services will be held in Christ M. P. Church next week.

President Wilson's Great Duty

Regarding President Wilson's epoch-making trip abroad, John Wanamaker, the great Philadelphia merchant, and a staunch Republican, said recently:

"To President Wilson it evidently was given to see the possibility of a reorganization and rebuilding of the world.

"In his personality is incarnated an almost incomprehensible truth.

"The President represents the belief of hundreds of thousands of men of both hemispheres, not in details but in principle, that wars of swords and guns and battleships shall forever cease.

"It is a man and nation saver the world is looking for today.

"Whatever others think, the President has no misgiving of the central facts of his mission.

"He felt undoubtedly the impulse of world duty. He has gone to respond to a summons that to him was as powerful and as irresistible as the Star that shone above Bethlehem was to the Wise Men of the East.

"Great world eras have always had their beginnings in things that, at the time, seemed unreasonable or unimportant.

"What a privilege it is to be living in such times, when continents and empires change, and when kings and parliaments look to the plain citizen President of the new power of the west for their guidance.

"Let us be careful of thought and considerate of speech, for certainly the eyes of the world are upon us. Surely these are hours of destiny. The hand of the American people is on the driving lever of the world events."
