Club helped in fire disaster

When a fire raced through a seven - family apartment building in the 500 block of Baker St., taking practically all the families, belongings, the Friendly Neighborhood Club showed just how friendly it could be.

The members got together under the leadership of their president, Mrs. Hilda E. Hayes, 2307 Division St., collected food, clothing and some money from neighbors nearby, and took it to the needy families.

LILMOND BARHAM JR. (A 1956 picture)

in Bordentown, N.J. The family moved to Baltimore in 1956 and Lilmond attended Elementary School No. 144.

While a student at No. 144, Lilmond entered the annual Pennsylvania Ave.-Lafayette Market Associations PALMA Lincoln - Douglass Essay Contest and won first place.

From there he went on to Gwynns Falls Park Junior High School, and under an accelerated program, completed the work in one and a half years. In 1960, he entered Poly where he was an A student, a member of the Architect and Chess Clubs.

MRS. ANTOINETTE MOSELY, 1606 Warwick Ave., a neighbor, told the AFRO that Lilmond often said his brother was "my best friend" and she described them as "ideal youngsters."

She said: "They had such wonderful personalities. It was good to see those two boys. They had such good manners and ambition to save their money and get ahead.

"They said that they would save enough money to help the others through school and also to help their mother."

The father is Linwood Barham Sr., an Acme Food Co. employee and a native of North Carolina. Mrs. Barham is from Roxbury, Mass.

In addition to his parents, Lilmond is survived by three sisters, Karen, 6; Leslie, 12; Pamela, 2; and three brothers, Walter, 13; Raymond, 9 and Kenneth, 7.

Federation takes stand on fax hike

WASHINGTON

The Federation of Civic Associations went on record this week in opposition to an increase in the real estate tax, but said it favored a tax rise on such items as alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, furs and automobiles.

This stand was taken in a telegram to the House District Committee, which is considering proposals to raise more revenue to take care of District affairs.

The federation urged the committee to seek the full Federal share that the government pays in lieu of taxes on property for the operation of the city.

against the unfavorable report and asking that at least one of them be returned to the floor of the House for action there.

Charles W. Coss (D. Washington); Francis X. Gallagher (D., 3rd D., Balto.); Hervey G. Machen (D., Prince George's); Noel S. Cook (R., Allegany); John H. Mitchell (D. Charles).

Also, Daniel M. Murray Jr. (D. Howard); Richard T. Rombro (D., 4th D., Balto); Lansdale G. Sasscer Jr. (D. Prince George's); Alexander Stark (D., 5th D., Balto.), and William C. Walsh (D. Allegany).

Ten of the 36 - man committee members were not present for the voting. Mr. Melvin, the chairman, did not vote.

THE PROCEEDINGS KILLING House Bills 27, 33 and 38 lasted 18 minutes.

Mr. Melvin launched matters by advising that the Attorney General's office had ruled that the exemption of some counties would not make the bills unconstitutional.

At the time under consideration was House Bill 27, which would make unlawful the denial of service because of race, creed or color in more kinds of public places of accommodations—than covered by House Bills 33 and 38.

Mr. Pilchard asked that his Worcester County be exempted, and then stated:

"I don't think this bill should go through. Let Baltimore and those who want it let them put in other legislation for their city areas."

MR. BARBEE then said:

"This is a State-wide matter. I wish to remove the exemption of Montgomery County and put it into bill, back on a State-wide basis."

MR. PILCHARD pressed for a motion for an unfavorable report on House Bill 27, and won out.

Then, Mr. Melvin was asked whether this 15 to 10 vote for an unfavorable report on House Bill 27 also applied to House Bills 33 and 38.

"It's my understanding," the chairman answered, "that the vote applies to all the bills on this subject in this committee, but I will put it to a vote on a motion."

The motion for an unfavorable report on these latter two bills was made and passed by a voice vote.

It was at this point that Mr. Hedrick asked that the bills be held in committee rather than be allowed to return to the floor of the house for possible further action.

"I think this is a subject that should be held in committee," he said. "It will involve a State-wide procedure and there are several counties which might not want to be involved in this."

A majority voice vote of the committee upheld Mr. Hedrick's proposal.

THE DEATH of these three House public accommodations bills left just one more such bill on the same subject before the General Assembly at the time.

Senate Bill 20, identical to House Bill 27, was still in the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee.

Senator J. Alvin Jones (D., 4th D., Balto.), its sponsor, said Tuesday it would report for action on it, in view of the fate of the three House bills.
