Bright, new dream begins in Washington baseball

WILMA RUDOLPH
Exhibitions for speed queen

WASHINGTON

Freshly painted visions take over the Washington baseball scene as the city prepares for its re-entry into the major leagues on Monday afternoon.

Local fans, responsive to the point of oversubscribing Griffith Stadium for the inaugural, are hailing the new Washington Senators with a promise of patience and understanding.

• • •

NOT ONE OF hundreds of fans to whom the AFRO has talked since early February is anticipating an early American League pennant for Mickey Vernon and his charges. But all have expressed the belief that the new team will become a contender in due time.

None was willing to picture the next 60 years producing only three titles (1924-25-33) as was the case in the last 60.

In nearly every case, there was a note of rejoicing that the old ownership had departed and that the new franchise holders appear to be men of vision and dedication.

• • •

THERE WERE some in fact — who openly confided that the arrival of owner Pete Quesada on the D.C. baseball scene signals, to them, a new frontier in the matter of race relations.

Many colored Washingtonians were never convinced that the departed Calvin Griffith was inclined to hire tan athletes of American birth. Until the day of his transfer to Minneapolis-St. Paul, these fans argued that Griffith's liberal use of colored Cubans was just bona-fide evidence of a desire to integrate the Senators.

They wanted qualified colored Americans — period!

THERE HAS been widespread reluctance to lose the likes of Earl Battey and Lennie Green, but, for one reason or another fellows like Julio Becquer, Jose Valdivielso, Carlos Paula, etc., were not fully accepted. Their leaving, apparently has never been mourned.

Arriving with the fresh, new dream are three new tan faces with Vernon and his vanguard: Bennie Daniels, Willie Tasby and R.C. Stevens.

• • •

DANIELS, a righthanded pitcher, is likely to get the No. 3 call on Vernon's starting mound staff.

Obtained from the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates in the trade that sent Bobby Shantz to the Buccaneers, Daniels represents a test of the new manager's ability to evaluate talent. Mickey demanded that the sinker-ball ace be included in the deal because of his high regard for Bennie's capabilities.

TASBY, a fleet outfielder with tremendous potential once he's given the chance to play in pleasant surroundings, will be seen in centerfield.

Willie was the first player drafted by the Senators in the pool set up this winter for stocking the two new entries into the league — the Senators and Los Angeles Angels.

Vernon and general manager Ed Doherty tabbed Tasby as the ideal man to patrol the vast expanses of the middle field at Griffith Stadium.

Stevens also came here from the Pirates in the Shantz transaction. A hard-hitting, smooth-fielding first baseman, R.C. will undoubtedly see much action this summer. — SAM LACY.

Young outfielder cracks Va. scholastic barrier

NORFOLK, Va. — A 16-year - old, third - year student — Reginald Young — cracked the racial barrier in Virginia varsity interscholastic athletics here Thursday afternoon.

Young played the last four innings for Maury High School in a baseball game with Norfolk Catholic. It was the first time in Virginia history that either of Norfolk's three integrated high schools had accepted publicly the principle of desegregation in sports competition.

• • •

WHEN COACH Bob Bates sent the youngster, wearing uniform No. 13, into left field in the sixth inning, Maury High fans applauded.

Maury won the game, 10-9. When Young entered the game, Norfolk Catholic was ahead, 8-2. He didn't make a play in the outfield his first two innings.

• • •

In the eighth inning he stopped two ground balls. One was a single, the other a ground ball missed by the third baseman. Young returned both balls to the infield.

• • •

AT THE plate he walked twice, the first time on four pitches. He took a called strike in his second appearance.

He didn't take a swing either time. He was credited with driving in a Maury run with one walk.

• • •

Racial policy to bar S. Africa from cricket

NEW DELHI, India (ANP) — When the Union of South Africa decided to leave the British Commonwealth of Nations, rather than change her racial segregation policy, she also forfeited the right to participate in other Commonwealth activities, including international cricket.

An announcement here last week stated that South Africa has lost her status in the Imperial Cricket Conference and will not be able to play in official test cricket with Commonwealth countries. The ICC's constitution specifices that there can be no such contest with a non-Commonwealth country.

• • •

THE ISSUE of South Africa's lost of status in Common wealth cricket is scheduled to be discussed at the ICC's next meeting in London in July.

It is believed that South Africa would try to change the ICC constitution but will run into the same roadblock from the West Indies, India and Pakistan with which she was confronted at the recent Commonwealth meeting.

The only change for South Africa to retain her test cricket status is to cast off her apartheid policy. Colored South Africans and other "colored" citizens are rigidly segregated under the policy.

Sifford in Dixie golf tournament

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Desegregation of Professional Golfers Association tournament play comes to the South next week when Charlie Sifford competes in the Greensboro open. The meet is scheduled April 13 - 16.

For Sifford, it marks the latest of a growing list of achievements. Since winning his fifth national championship in UGA (colored) competition, the 36 - year - old ex-Philadelphian has gained backing by the Kroydon (sports equipment firm) and has played steadily in major meets.

• • •

ACCEPTANCE OF the Sifford entry in the tourney marked the first time in history for colored participation in a PGA - sponsored event in the South.

Despite the fact he was forced to withdraw from the tourney trail after the four left California early last month, Sifford remains one of the top 25 money winners of the current links season.

He was well up in both the San Francisco Open and the Tucson, Ariz. Open. He placed in the money in six of the seven PGA meets this winter.

St. Emma cadets win 3rd rifle title

POWHATAN, Va. — St. Emma Military Academy has won the National Small Bore Rifle Championship for the third consecutive year, establishing a new record en route.

The cadet loss only to the powerful Fort Lee and Howard University ROTC teams, both by close margins.

Cadet Lt. Taylor Marrow Jr. of Princeton, N.J., who established a new national individual record in the U.S. Army Interscholastic Match is captain of team coached by Brig. Gen. Kenneth W. Hess, retired.

Griffith tagged 'Fighter of Month'

NEW YORK. — Welterweight chaihpion Emile Griffith picked up more than the world 147 - pound crown when he knocked out Benny (Kid) Paret at Miami Beach last Saturday night.

The former New York garment district worker on Monday was named "fighter of the month" by the National Boxing Association.

• • •

ALTHOUGH BORN in the Virgin Islands, Griffith is purely New York as far as his boxing is concerned. He began his ring career here less than three years ago, and has fought all but two of his 27 professional bouts in this city.

In stopping Paret, Griffith became the first man in his division to ascend to the throne via knockout, since Carmen Basilio belted out Tony DeMarco in 1956.

Basilio also grabbed off the title again in 1956, this time by the same kayo route. Johnny Saxton was the victim the second time.

Baylor hottest in pro playoff

Although his team was eliminated in a best-of-seven series for the Western Division title, Elgin Baylor was beyond question the hottest player in the National Basketball League's division playoffs last week.

The former Washington (DC) high school phenom led all players participating in the two separate series, with top performances in four of eight categories.

Bill Sharman of the Boston Celtics, set the pace in two departments, Jerry West, Baylor's teammate on the Los Angeles Lakers, led in one, and Dolph Schayes the Syracuse Nats, was top in the other.

ELGIN TALLIED the most points, 457. He showed the best per game average with a 38.1, picked off the most rebounds, 183, and was credited with the most points in one game, 49, in the March 15 contest against Detroit.

Sharman was the high man in field goal percentage with a mark of .520, and

How an exclusive discovery whips extra smoothness into Schenley whisky

This is a glass of unusual whisky. It is Schenley. Its extraordinary smoothness is the result of the greatest advance in whisky making in the last twenty-five years.

Taking the same fine whiskies and grain neutral spirits reserved for Schenley, we now put them through a costly new step. The whiskies are whirled in special vats by stainless steel blades and literally whipped into a smoothness never before attainable.

The result can only be realized by tasting Schenley whisky. We think you'll agree: smoothness in a whisky now takes on a new meaning. So start enjoying Schenley, the only whisky with extra smoothness whipped in. $4.70 Qt. $2.98 pint $1.50 ½ pint
