DIARY OF TRIP TO FLORIDA

Detailed Account Of Visit To Florida Enjoyed By Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown

The following is a diary of the entertainment and travels enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, of Kent County, who visited Florida in December as delegates to the Farmers' National Congress and to Farm Women's National Congress, Jacksonville, Florida:

December 4.—Free admission to Florida State Fair and Exposition, tendered by management, to see exhibits and attend auction sale of eighteen months old championship Florida steer weighing 1320 pounds, produced on the farm of Z. C. Chambliss, Ocala, which sold for fifty cents per pound, live weight, to Armour & Co.

Dec. 4.—Banquet at Mason's Hotel, 7 p. m., tendered by the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce.

Dec. 7.—Trip to Hastings by special train, enjoyed by about 150 delegates. Automobile ride through famous potato district and thence to St. Augustine. Fish fry and oyster roast at South Bend on Anastasia Island, tendered by the St. John's County Board of Trade, followed by shell gathering on the ocean beach and sight-seeing in St. Augustine, the "Ancient City." Returning to Jacksonville, left on special train at 6 p. m. Railroad travel, 91 miles; automobile travel, 35 miles.

The following was the tour of Florida arranged by The Association of Florida Fairs, C. W. Hunter, of Ocala, president; Mrs. A. Tweedy, of Ocala, Secretary:

Dec. 9.—Left Jacksonville at 9.45 a. m. in special car on Seaboard Air Line road. Arrived Gainesville 12.10 p. m. Met at station by committee from Alachua County Fair Association, W. M. Pepper, president, and taken in automobiles to White House hotel, where a luncheon was served. Afternoon devoted to automobile ride through University grounds and farming section, and inspection of peanut oil factory. Evening at hotel. R. R. travel 70 miles; automobile, 25 miles.

Dec. 10.—Left Gainesville at 8.30 a. m. in automobiles furnished by Alachua County Fair Association, for McIntosh, stopping at Micanopy to visit Herlong and Willis hog farms and Simonton cattle farm, and later stopping in orange grove to pick and eat oranges. Arrived McIntosh at noon and tendered a fish fry in city park by women of that city. Marion County Fair Association members met party at McIntosh with automobiles and after luncheon visited Rush farm to inspect Angus cattle, Gaitskill farm, to inspect Shorthorn cattle, and L. K. Edwards' farm to see Angus and Hereford cattle, arriving at Harrington Hall, Ocala, 5.30 p. m. Automobile travel 75 miles.

Dec. 11.—Gentlemen left hotel in automobiles at 8.30 a. m. for visit to Meffert and Anthony farms. Ladies taken in charge by hospitality committee of Women's Club and given automobile ride around city, both parties meeting at Silver Springs at noon, where free trip in glass bottom boats over springs was enjoyed. Chicken pileau with oyster roast and lots of oranges served by our hosts and hostesses. Afternoon devoted to visiting Camp's dairy, the knitting mills, and a reception and tea at Women's Club. During the evening we were guests of the Women's Club at a moving picture entertainment. Automobile, travel 40 miles.

Dec. 12.—Left Ocala in automobiles at 8 a. m., for Leesburg, stopping at Summerfield to inspect cotton gin. Another stop made at Marion county line for every one to put sand in left shoe. Arrived at Leesburg 10.30 where an abundance of oranges were served, while transferring to automobiles furnished by Orlando Board of Trade and trip continued through orange groves and farming section to Orlando with short trip through city and Winter Park. Banquet at San Juan hotel tendered by Orlando Board of Trade at 5 p. m. Left Orlando in special car on Atlantic Coast line train at 8 p. m. for Tampa, arriving 11.30 p. m. Met at station by W. G. Brorein, president South Florida Fair Association, L. P. Dickie, secretary Tampa Board of Trade, and others, and taken on street cars to De-Soto Hotel. Automobile travel, 100 miles; railroad travel 91 miles.

Dec. 13.—Delegates left hotel at 8 p. m. in automobiles furnished by Tampa Board of Trade, for city hall where a fine bird's eye view of city was obtained from tower. Then trip was continued to ship building plants, thru city and out to Van Epoel stock and dairy farm, returning through city to Sulphur springs and alligator farm, visited large cigar factories, fair grounds and Tampa Bay Hotel park, thence to Tampa Yacht and Country Club for luncheon tendered by Board of Trade on veranda over bay. Return made over beautiful Bay Shore Drive to city. Left Tampa on Favorite Line boat Manatee at 3.45 p. m. for Bradentown, arriving 9 o'clock. Fine moonlight ride on the bay. A. F. Wyman and J. W. Hewitt, of Bradentown, accompanied party to give information. Registered at Manavista hotel, near dock. Automobile travel, 50 miles; boat travel, 45 miles.

Dec. 14.—E. P. Green, secretary of Manatee County Fair, in charge of local entertainment. Party left hotel in automobiles at 8 p. m. for trip through Bradentown, and through the vegetable garden section, then to Atwood grapefruit grove for visit to packing house and inspection of grove, every one picking and eating all the grapefruit desired. View of grove and surrounding country obtained from cupola in packing house. Largest grapefruit grove in Florida, covering more than 200 acres. Return made through city of Palmetto and across bridge to golf club where a home products dinner was served, consisting of fried fish, fresh lettuce, tomatoes, celery, onions and potatoes, grapefruit and fresh strawberries with ice cream. Spent two hours after dinner on club house veranda enjoying the warm climate and watching a baseball game. Left Bradentown on boat Favorite for St. Petersburg at 4.30 p. m., arriving there at 7 o'clock. Registered at Central Hotel. Automobile travel, 40 miles; boat travel, 25 miles.

Dec. 15.—Stormy weather. Those who cared to attended church during forenoon. Street car ride after dinner to Gulfport to see pelicans catch fish and porpoises play in Boca Ciega Bay. Returned to city and rode out to the Jungle through suburban residence section. Left at 7 p. m. on chartered launch for Port Tampa, arriving 8 o'clock and took passage on steamship Miami for Key West, the boat leaving at 9 p. m. Street car travel, 45 miles; boat travel, 9 miles.

Dec. 15.—A rather heavy sea in the Gulf of Mexico made the boat roll unpleasantly for some members of the party, but those on deck saw large fish playing in the waters. Arrived at Key West 4 p. m., two hours overdue. Checked baggage at depot on wharf and toured the city on foot. Left over Florida East Coast railroad at 7 p. m. for Miami, arriving at 12.10 a. m. Bright moonlight, so we had opportunity to see very well the long bridge and the groves on islands. F. J. Pepper and members of his committee met us at station with automobiles and took us to Hotel Urmey, where special rates had been secured for our party. Boat travel, 225 miles; railroad travel, 156 miles.

Dec. 17.—Left hotel in automobiles piloted by Secretary Guy W. Livingston, of the Chamber of Commerce, at 9 a. m. for trip through the James Deering three million dollar estate, William Jennings place, and on to Cocoanut grove for visit to W. J. Matheson and Arthur Curtiss James' winter homes, and the Dinner Keys naval aero station where numerous machines were seen flying in the air or skimming over the water. By noon the party had made the rounds of the country south of Miami and were taken through Miami, and across Biscayno Bay to the Breakers on the beach for a delicious luncheon tendered by the Miami Chamber of Commerce. The afternoon trip included inspection of Mrs. Cady's grapefruit and orange groves, the Curtiss-Bright dairy farm, where 200 Holsteins were grazing on Para grass pasture; the M. A. Milam dairy farm, where pure-bred Jerseys and Angus cattle were on Para grass pasture; and Dr. J. G. Dupuis' dairy farm, where Dutch Belted cattle are favorites. The evening was spent at the Chamber of Commerce attending a meeting of that organization, at which a number of the delegates gave brief talks on their impressions of Dade county. Automobile travel, 75 miles.

Dec. 18.—Left hotel at 8.30 a. m. in automobiles furnished by Miami Chamber of Commerce for Fort Lauderdale, in Broward county, where a committee headed by H. E. Robinson, secretary of West Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce, met party with automobiles for remainder of trip to West Palm Beach, and across Lake Worth, arriving at Gus' Baths on the Palm Beach ocean front at noon, where a luncheon was served by the Chamber of Commerce. The early afternoon was spent in viewing the winter homes of famous wealthy people, and walking through the flower gardens at the Royal Poinciana hotel, the largest hotel in America. The party then were taken to Lake View Hotel in West Palm Beach to register and those who desired were taken back to the beach for an hour's opportunity to hear what the waves were saying. The delegates were guests of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at a banquet in the Lake Park hotel at 6.30. Automobile travel, 100 miles.

Dec. 19.—Left hotel at 8 a. m. in automobiles for Palm Beach Canal, five miles distant. Three speed boats were furnished to transport party to W. J. Conners' farm, 38 miles up the canal in the heart of the Everglades, stops being made to inspect the Loxahatchee dairy and other agricultural developments enroute. Picnic luncheon provided by Chamber of Commerce, and eaten at Mr. Conner's farm, with an abundance of fresh milk from Mr. Conner's dairy. Inspection of pure bred Holstein herd and pure bred Duroc-Jersey and Berkshire hog herds on Para grass pastures, tractor plowing on the muck land and planting 100 acres to sugar cane; followed the luncheon. Returned to hotel at six and left at 7.30 for Jacksonville. Automobile travel, 10 miles; boat travel, 76 miles.

Dec. 20.—Arrived in Jacksonville at 8.45 a. m. and party disbanded. Railroad travel, 300 miles.

Total distance traveled 1683 miles, including Hastings and St. Augustine trip, proportioned as follows: By railroad, 708 miles; by automobile, 550 miles; by boat, 380 miles; by street car in St. Petersburg, 45 miles.
