BIG REDUCTION IN COATS

The great drive to "clean up" our winter stock of Ladies' and Children's Coats is on for next week.

We have had a big coat business this winter, but with the tremendous stock we have carried (that is for a town of this size) there is bound to be some left-overs. These remaining ones are good style and we can still offer you a fair assortment in sizes 36 to 44.

Prices $10 to $55

WINTER UNDERWEAR
At Sacrifice Prices

Our purpose is to carry over very little winter underwear. Therefore prices will be much lower next week. We have quite a large stock of Ladies' Union Suits, long sleeves and high neck, and short sleeves and low neck.

Former price $1.75, $2; next week one price $1.25

Fine Wool Blankets

Seven (7) pairs extra fine Blankets will be sold at reduced prices next week. Examine them and get our prices.

New Goods for Spring Arriving

Plain and Fancy Voiles, Sheer Waistings, Gabardines for skirts, Dimities, Flaxons, etc., have arrived, and are now on the shelf. Exclusive patterns can not be duplicated, and those who do their spring sewing early can get the new materials here NOW.

Get the new things first.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

(Other Items on page 6)

The Baltimore Sun of last Wednesday gave an interesting account of the fleet of war ships headed by the flagship "Pennsylvania," which left Hampton Roads last Tuesday bound for Cuba, where the fleet will remain until June. One of Kent's boys, Owen Selby, of the Naval Reserve Force, and son of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Selby, of Rock Hall, is on the flagship "Pennsylvania."

Friends of Sergeant Frank Jarman will be pleased to learn that he is getting well of the rheumatism. Sergeant Jarman can now use his arm and hopes to be entirely well of the rheumatism in a few weeks.

Mr. Herbert Usilton, who has been quite sick at Richmond, Va., we are glad to report is convalescing nicely.

Corporal LeRoy R. Crosby recently wrote his mother that his wound is about healed.

Mr. Thomas Perry is with the American Army of Occupation in Germany.

Mr. W. F. Russell, Jr., has landed in New York from overseas and his parents and Chestertown friends expect him home most any day. This young attorney was one of the first to enlist soon after we entered the war.

Mr. William E. Harrison is visiting friends at his former home in Rock Hall, he having been released from military duty.

Private Lloyd Adley, of the Fifth District, has arrived from France and is now at Hoboken. The injury which he sustained from shrapnel will prevent him from working for many months yet.

Corporal Harry Brice was in the heavy fighting for over a month. In a recent letter he sees little prospect of coming home yet.

Lieut. Henry Kratzer saw Sergeant Irving Sparks in front of the Peace Conference Building, in Paris, shortly before sailing for this country. Sergeant Sparks has developed to such an extent that his friends will scarcely recognize him, says Lieut. Kratzer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus received a cablegram from their son, Mr. Jas. Bacchus, that he sailed from England for the United States yesterday.

Singing In Kent County

It is real pathetic to hear a Kent County audience sing the song every one ought to know, The Star Spangled Banner! They start off bravely, everybody whooping it up, "Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light." What so proudly (and here the sound diminishes, only half are singing) and the rest of the song goes like this: La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la! Um, um, um, um, for a few more bars, but then the question comes very plain, and with much emphasis: "Oh, sey, dose that Star Spangled Banner yet wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!"

Oh, say! it is the truth! Listen to it the first chance you have. Maybe in some communities they can sing the whole first verse, if so, I'm proud of them, "but will they sing the second?"

And oh, say! Does it mean that we are so unpatriotic that we won't learn it, or is it "plum laziness!"

And oh, say! How many folks know the words of Maryland, My Maryland. Kent county is in Maryland, my Maryland, so why not get acquainted with her, too? Anybody under 99 ought to learn the words of these two songs, so that the excuse when we pass you a book with the words in it, "I left my reading glasses at home," will be "non est."

I hope that the school children will attend some of the sessions of the Farmers' Institute, and that we shall have a real "singy" half hour at each place. I shall surely call for these two songs, anyway, and be real patriots! Sing them! If nothing happens, the famous trio from the recent play given at Betterton School House, featuring "Uncle Alick," will sing at most of the meetings.

Oh say! Can you see? If you can, get out your books and try to "Let the Star Spangled Banner" still wave at least for the Farmers' Institute! You know who's talkin'!

Tomatoes.—1919 Model will be on exhibition and for sale at the Still Pond Grange Tomato Party! Saturday, Feb. 15. Still Pond might sound quiet, but it really is not when the grange gets to work!

Rock Hall Grange Meets

An important meeting of the Rock Hall Grange was held in the Assembly Hall of the High School last Friday evening. State Organizer J. T. Anthony was present and presided over the meeting. There was quite a large attendance and the following officers were elected for the year 1919: Worthy Master, Brother Elwood Burgess; Overseer, Brother Walter Clark; Treasurer, Brother Frank Wilkins; Secretary, Sister Estelle J. Biddle; Lecturer, Sister Elwood Burgess; Steward, Brother Frank Puppe; Asst. Steward, Brother Wilbur Gale; Lady Asst. Steward, Sister Jessie Moffett; Chaplain, Brother A. F. T. Raum; Door-keeper, Brother George P. Orr; Press Correspondent, Sister Cora A. Moffett. An interesting program, consisting of music and recitations, was appreciated, especially "The Kaiser's Dream," as recited by Sister W. O. Selby.

Sandwiches, hot chocolate and coffee were served and after having spent a very enjoyable evening everyone departed for home, feeling that all had been benefitted by the meeting.
