BIG REDUCTION IN COATS

The great drive to "clean up" our winter stock of Ladies' and Children's Coats is on for next week.

We have had a big coat business this winter, but with the tremendous stock we have carried (that is for a town of this size) there is bound to be some left-overs. These remaining ones are good style and we can still offer you a fair assortment in sizes 36 to 44.

Prices $10 to $55.

WINTER UNDERWEAR
At Sacrifice Prices

Our purpose is to carry over very little winter underwear. Therefore prices will be much lower next week. We have quite a large stock of Ladies' Union Suits, long sleeves and high neck, and short sleeves and low neck.

Former price $1.75, $2; next week one price $1.25

Fine Wool Blankets

Seven (7) pairs extra fine Blankets will be sold at reduced prices next week. Examine them and get our prices.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

(Other Items on page 6)

Mr. Galen Vansant, who arrived in this country from France a few weeks ago and who has since been at Camp Lee, Va., arrived home in Chestertown on last Monday and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Vansant. Mr. Vansant enlisted in the hospital unit of Camp Lee soon after war was declared and was stationed in a base hospital in France, wnere he did good work. He says he is glad to get back to old Chestertown once more.

Mr. Goldey Hadaway, of near Worton, received his honorable discharge from service about a month ago and has resumed his work again, although unable to do heavy work yet. Mr. Hadaway participated in the fiercest fighting of the war and received two bad wounds, one of them a bayonet wound, and he was also badly gassed. A German, along with a number of companions, charged Mr. Hadaway's company suddenly one night. Mr. Hadaway's companion was killed, but the German who did it was "sent west" by a well-aimed shot from Mr. Hadaway's revolver.

Army discharges in demobilization in the United States had reached a total Saturday of 1,175,545 officers and men and the total number assigned for demobilization was 1,501,000. Of those discharged 71,235 were officers. The figures were announced by General March. Up to Feb. 11 305,000 soldiers abroad had embarked for home, 69 per cent of them being brought in American ships. In the first 10 days of February alone 68,000 had embarked. The total landed was given as 227,000, the remainder being still at sea.

Having for more than year mourned as dead the young Baltimore physician she first met while training in Mercy Hospital, that city, Miss Julia Anthony a popular young nurse of near Centreville, last week learned that Lieut. William Kinsey, the man she was to marry, instead of being killed in France had been in a German prison camp. And worse, perhaps, than even death, the gallant young lieutenant reached New York Monday, broken forever in both mind and body; ill with tuberculosis, contracted in filthy Hun detention camps, and with one side of his face shot away. Physicians say there is no hope for his recovery and that death is only a matter of weeks.

The first English-American wedding to take place in England, in which an Eastern Shore lad was one of the contracting parties, was solemnized on Christmas morning at 9.30 o'clock, in Old London Church, when Miss Violet Carr, of London, became the bride of Chief Petty Officer A. N. Stewart, of near Centreville.

Sergeant Frank Jarman, of Camp Meade, is spending the week the guest of his parents, Capt. and Mrs. G. Allen Jarman.

The following is a letter from Mr. Owen Selby to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Selby, of Rock Hall:

U. S. S. "Pennsylvania," Cuba.
Sunday, Feb. 9, 1919.

We have at last arrived in Guantanano Bay, Cuba, after a very interesting voyage. We anchored about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. It certainly is beautiful down here. The scenery is fine. The nearest town or settlement is about ten miles away. There is nothing here but a canteen and a recreation field and a few houses. I have not been ashore yet, but expect to go this afternoon. We are allowed to go ashore every Saturday and Sunday afternoon to see the baseball games, etc. So you see, father, you need not worry about me going hunting. There is nothing to hunt except ant-eaters. If there were anything to gun for, where would we get rifles to gun with? We are not allowed to use the government rifles except while on duty.

Cuba is very hilly and mountainous, that is, this part of it. Everywhere we look from here we can see nothing but a great forest of palms and cactus. It is beautiful. How I could enjoy it all if only you could all be with me. I am enclosing a program of religious services for the day. The Catholic Church service begins at 9.30 a. m. and the Protestant Church service at 10.30 a. m. It is not near so warm here as I expected it to be. I am going to see if I can get you some Havana cigars, father. Havana is quite a long way from here. We are in the extreme southern end of Cuba. I must close now as it is time to attend service. Will tell you more next time. Give my love to everybody in dear old Kent, keeping a big share for yourselves.

Mr. Clarence Usilton, of the U. S. Navy, has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Usilton, this week.

Mr. Norris Collyer has returned to Rock Hall from Vancouver, where he was a member of the 113th Engineers.

Mr. Norris Stevens, of Rock Hall, has notified his friends that he has arrived at Norfolk from overseas.

Major Leroy Boyer, a former Rock Hall boy, has been honorably discharged from service and has a lucrative position in Baltimore.

Mrs. Joseph W. Jester has been released from service in the navy and is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Jester, Rock Hall.

Upon his arrival in this country Private W. F. Russell, Jr., received notice that he was the father of a bouncing baby boy. Mother and son are at their home in Birmingham, Ala.

Sergeant Frank Jarman was offered a position on the twirling staff of the Peterburg, Va., baseball team the other day. Mr. Jarman is not likely to accept it.

Capt. J. T. Kibler is coach of a football team in France which has on it such stars as Legore, formerly a great Yale star and captain.

Private W. F. Russell, Jr., who is now at New York recuperating from shock received during the air raids in Paris, and who was connected with the division headquarters staff, says that 77 members of the 115th Infantry were recommended for Distinguished Service Crosses for their work during the fighting in the Argonne. Private Russell says that the number of men in the Maryland infantry unit who received such recommendations was nearly double the nearest competitor. Private Russell expects to be home in a few weeks and his Chestertown relatives will surely be glad to see him.
