THE CENTENARY MOVEMENT

A Brief Outline Of What Kent County Methodists And Methodists Of The Whole World Are Trying To Do

The Methodist Churches of Kent are distributing the following explanation of the Centenary Movement:

The Centenary Movement is commemorative of the 100th anniversary of Methodist Missions.

It is God's trumpet call to Methodism to face the world's greatest crisis.

It is a call to repent. While the Church has been praying "Thy Kingdom come on earth" it has not ministered to the hungry millions in foreign fields and nearer home.

So world-wide emergencies crowd upon us demanding vast expenditure of wealth and large enlistment of the sons and daughters of Methodism.

Adding to the seriousness of the situation comes the general warning to the church for "preparedness" for the great "after-war." The Church of Christ is soon to be tested as never in all its history.

The need of the hour is a revived and mightily spiritualized Church. The Centenary Movement, in God's providence, was raised up by the General Conference not primarily to supply millions of money but to fit Methodism to a new plane of spiritual vision and ministry from which it shall accomplish its part of the Christian Conquest of the World.

The Department for the Promotion of Christian Stewardship and Tithing is one of the providential agencies of the Centenary Movement looking to this new uplift of the Church.

The slogan is "A Million Tithers in Methodism."

Rural Maryland Answers Armenia's Call For Aid

Upon the aid sent by America within the next 60 days depends the fate of the bulk of the four million starved and ill war victims in the Caucasus. Clothing, food, medicine and housing are all absolutely needed to prevent the wiping out of these millions.

The above is the gist of a cablegram sent last week by the workers of the American Committee For Relief In The Near East to the New York offices of the Committee and it well explains why a hurry call is being sent throughout the nation that funds shall be forthcoming quickly and before it is too late. In other words the very life of four million Armenians and Syrians depend upon this country. The appeal is especially urgent when it is recalled that among these great masses of sufferers are more than four hundred thousand children, largely orphans, whose parents were slaughtered by Turkish brutes.

Americans, or at least a part of the nation, is giving. In some sections the people have not yet awakened to the full realization that upon their help depends whether a whole nation of people shall be permitted to die like dogs or given the opportunity to return to their homes and again become self-supporting and useful citizens in connection with the great League of Nations now in formation.

The people of the counties of Maryland are not among those who have failed to awaken to the appeals from the Near East. Instead the county people are going deep into their pockets in most cases and every indication is that the rural sections of the state will go over the top with a grand rush and that the full quota will be reached.

Reports which reached the Maryland county headquarters in Baltimore last Monday caused Charles R. Posey, state chairman, and John W. Mace, the state director, to make the prediction that the counties of Maryland will give at least $100,000 to the national $30,000,000 relief fund for the Armenians.

The campaign is now well on in every one of the 23 counties though a number are not yet prepared to make their reports. The returns from eleven counties alone, however, bring the rural contributions up to Feb. 24 to $39,700. Some of the counties were behind the others in getting their campaigns under way, due to local conditions, but the prospects are bright in every section.

Last week there was a hard contest going on between three of the counties for top honors with Washington county leading with $8,200, Garrett second with $7,100 and Harford third with $6,000. Other counties reported that they were going along at a good clip, however, and that they would be well up in the forefront before long in proportion to their quotas and populations.

Allegany county has given $5,200 from her war chest and Anne Arundel has already scored a mark of $3,200. Wicomico has not yet made a formal report, but her people have been making a vigorous campaign and indications are that she will pass her quota. Other counties which have reported give the following returns to Feb. 24: Frederick, $2,000; Prince George's, $2,000; Howard $3,000; Somerset, $1,000; Carroll, $2,000; Montgomery, $1,000.

Baltimore City has been a bit slow. Her returns up to February 22 were but $43,000, but indications then were that the $100,000 mark would be reached in the city by March 1.

Indians In The Late War.—A story of the heroism of two American indians has been told in the dispatches from France recently. On a scouting expedition back of the German line they found their way to a building used as staff headquarters, where a group of officers were smoking and drinking at their ease. The Indians threw hand grenades into the room. All the Germans but one were killed or wounded. It was perhaps the impression of those who read the report of this daring achievement that the Indian was a rarity in the American army. The fact, is, however, that about 10,000 Indians have served in the army and navy, chiefly with the land forces. Most of them volunteered.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Chestertown. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

Enoch Latham, shoemaker, High St., Chestertown, says: "Whenever I caught cold, it seemed to settle on my kidneys and I suffered untold pain. When I straightened up it seemed as though I were stabbed. My kidneys acted too frequently and I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. I had dizzy spells and on different occasions my eyes gave me trouble, a mist seemed before them. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. I purchased them from M. A. Toulson's Drug Store and they gave me great relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Latham had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
