LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Live local news on every page of The Transcript.

—A thief stole the curtains off Mr. W. O. Anderson's carriage the other night.

—Mr. Bonn Towner, of Morgnec, has a fine lot of lambs—about fifty in number.

—The C. H. S. basketball team went to Wyoming, Del., and played the team of that school last evening.

—Dr. J. T. Power has sold his drug store fixtures and stock in Galena to Raymond C. Jones, of Centreville.

—The war department states that the United States lost 104,444 men from all causes during the war.

—Mr. Albert Groves, tenant on the Gresham Hall farm, near Tolchester, has some of the finest lambs in Kent county.

—Mr. Thomas White has a ewe that gave birth to four lambs the other day. There are three of them still living.

—Messrs. W. O. Bringman and W. W. Clayton, formerly of Chestertown, have started a commission business in Chester, Pa.

—The W. C. basketball team was defeated by the Drexel Institute team of Philadelphia Friday night by the score of 32 to 28.

—Flatland and Hanesville schools are closed on account of the teachers, Misses Josephine Walters and Nettie Graham, being sick.

—Mr. W. A. Pote and family, of Kennedyville, have moved into one of Mrs. S. E. Stuart's dwelling houses on East Queen street.

—One of the first things to jump in Kent when the war began was bread. And it will, no doubt, be one of the last things to drop.

—The big incubators of Messrs. W. H. Truslow & Son hatched out several thousand baby chicks this week, which were shipped to northern cities.

—The aurora borealis showed plainly in the northern sky from Chestertown on Thursday night at about 11 o'clock, the whole northern sky being illumined.

—The one and only Charlie Chaplin, in "a Dog's Life," will be shown at Lyceum Theatre on Saturday, March 8. Alice Brady, in "Her Silent Sacrifice," will be shown the same evening.

—Messrs. C. N. Satterfield, W. F. Malin, W. T. Bennett, G. H. Burk and R. F. Elburn attended an open meeting of the Havre de Grace P. O. S. of A. Tuesday evening.

—A big force of workmen are engaged in erecting the big garage for Messrs. Bennett, Noland & Russell. It will be quite an improvement to the section when completed.

—Mr. Walter Wright has purchased two beautiful barred rock cockerels from E. B. Thompson, the leading barred rock breeder in the world, and is expecting them any day.

—Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. celebrated Washington's birthday on Tuesday evening at Fraternal Hall. Forty members were present. Eight new members were initiated.

—Beginning March 7, The Tolchester Co. will start their spring schedule to Tolchester, Sassafras and Susquehanna Rivers, as will be seen by advertisement in another column of this paper.

—There will be a special occasion at Fairlee grange Wednesday night, Mar. 5, at 7.30 o'clock, when all new applicants for membership are urged to be present to be initiated in the order. A buffet luncheon of sandwiches and coffee will se served after the meeting. A full tatendance of all members and all prospective members is requested.

DURING THE WAR

IT WAS

PATRIOTIC

NOT TO BUILD

Now we can best show our patriotism by building.

We can serve you as builders with our experience of years in building the best buildings on the Shore.

WE CARRY A FULL STOCK OF BUILDING MATERIAL, and can supply your wants, whether the smallest items or carload lots of Lumber.

W. S. & A. M. CULP

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Lumber, Mill Work, Coal, Cement.

—It is stated that Salisbury will lose one of its chief industries, it being printed in a Salisbury paper that the firm of Jackson Bros. Co. will move from that town to Fayetteville, N. C.

—A local colored man worked nearly a whole day recently on a tree, thinking he had a coon therein. Upon finally cutting it down and smoking out his quarry he found it to be a squirrel.

—It won't be long before the base ball lots of Kent will once more resound with lusty shouts as the batter hits the ball and the players scamper over the ground like "greased lightning."

—One of the long-range guns which bombarded Paris last summer is now in the possession of the French and will be placed in France—a grim reminder of the German bombardment of their fair city.

—This year promises to be the best year in the history of the chicken business in Kent county. Kent farmers are realizing more and more that the poultry industry is one of the chief branches of their business.

—Home gardens this year will be termed "victory gardens" instead of "war gardens." But, of course, it is far too early to predict whether the victory will be won by the amateur gardeners or by the cutworms and the other pests.

—George Barry, colored, of near Georgetown, Kent county, holds the record for catching raccoons in Kent county. Barry has caught seven coons this season in Tolchester swamps and says there is not a tree in the swamps which he cannot climb.

—Mr. Lemuel Powell has purchased of Mr. C. E. Parks the Gilbert Smith property in Queen Annes county. This property has changed hands several times recently. Mr. Parks has also sold the Stafford-Brown property at Pomona to George Graves.

—The Washington College basketball season ended last night at Annapolis, when they met the St. John's quint. If St. John's wins the two team will likely play the deciding game in Baltimore, as W. C. has defeated the St. John's boys in one game.

—In this issue will be found the advertisement of personal property of Mr. Wm. G. Smyth. Included in the list or articles for sale is some of Kent's finest cows, hogs and horses, together with a large lot of improved farming implements. This is the best time in the year to buy stock, as the purchaser saves the expenses of having wintered them. An opportunity like this does not often happen.

—Mr. Arlington L. Sparks has rented the store room next door to the Hotel Imperial, on High street, owned by Mrs. Hill, of Baltimore. Mr. Sparks will move into his new quarters the first part of April and will stay until he gets possession of the Third National Bank Building, which he will then have rebuilt to suit his purposes. The Chestertown Candy Kitchen will probably move into the Thomas Building next door to H. F. Jefferson & Bro.

—Farmers in Broad Neck have formed a "Road Force" and have been mending the roads along their lands. They are becoming much interested in good roads here, and efforts will be made during the spring to have the state complete the road from Fairlee to Rock Hall. A movement is also on foot to connect Tolchester with the State road leading to Chestertown. The road from Tolchester to the state road is almost impassable.

—An emergency truck, for use in case of accident has been placed in a garage in Chestertown. The federal government is making every effort to make the motor truck parcel post route between here and Wilmington a success and is providing every means to prevent interruption to the schedule. The business is growing every day, and the farmers and truckers in Kent will co-operate and make it a permanent means of getting their produce to the city markets.

—A tractor school will be held in Galena Hall Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 4, 5 and 6. Two sessions daily at 9.30 a. m. and 1.30 p. m. Lectures and demonstrations on the operation of tractors and gas engines will be given by a specialist from the Maryland State College. Luncheon served between sessions each day by the Galena Grange for the benefit of the new school building. Everybody invited to come and stay all day.

WESTCLOX

You'll have to get up early to beat a Westclox alarm. It will get you up any time you say and keep good time all day.

Westclox is a short way of saying Western Clocks. The word Westclox, is on the dial of every alarm we make. We put it there because we're proud of the quality we build in the clock. Every Westclox alarm has the same good construction that made Big Ben and Baby Ben so popular.

Folks who become acquainted with Westclox quality look carefully for the word Westclox on the dial and tag. It is the mark of good timekeeping. Prices $1.25 to $3.00.
