FLASH! The Anne Arundel County Branch NAACP is very is president, because of very grateful to all clubs, churches, other organizations and individuals for the fine support they gave to the Freedom Fund tag drive. The branch is especially grateful to the Reo Chelsea Club for its voluntary liberal contributions of $25. The total amount of the check forwarded to the national office as a result of the drive was $302. Dr. Theodore H. Johnson is the president.

The John Weatherfords, who are noted for their gracious hospitality, hosted a gala picnic at their beautiful home and grounds on Saturday when they entertained members of the Tennessee State University Alumni Association, Baltimore Chapter, and other guests.

Boating in the Weatherfords' boat out in the Chesapeake Bay, cards and swimming were among activities enjoyed. Charles Robinson, newly-elected president, held a brief business session.

Mrs. Harold Clark (Florzella) and daughter, Maria, brought their house guest, Alice Lee Boswell, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alger V. Boswell, vice-president of Tennessee State University for the occasion. She is a student at the university and will be in Baltimore for another week.

Maria, also a sophomore student at the university, recently made her debut. Others in their party included James Gilliam Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gilliam Sr., a freshman at Morgan, who entertained for Alice at a barbecue on Friday night, Veronica Clark, Maria's sister, an honor graduate of Forest Park High School, who will enter Albright College in Reading, Pa. in September, and Reginald Daniels Jr., the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Daniels Sr. (he's minister at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church), a recent graduate of City College, who will enter Morgan in September.

Small fry about were Harlyn Clark, Douglas Walker, Karen McGlothern, Charles Michele Elzey, Roslyn and Adrienne Taylor, Dominique Ervin and Lynette Owings.

Other alumni members and their guests were Messrs and Mesdames Frank Buck, James McGlothern, Charles Robinson, John Weatherford, Kenneth Ervin, Charles Owings and Dr. and Mrs. Lionel Desbordes, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Owings, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, Mrs. Harriet Jones, Eastern regional director for Tennessee State University, Mrs. Harriet Wayman and Mrs. Eloise Richardson.

THERE IS always a "thing of beauty" that emanates from the inside of all those who contribute to or participate in expressing appreciation to others who deserve honor for something they have done good for mankind.

Eight veteran fraternal leaders of Annapolis, members of the Heroines of Jericho, were honored by Dobson Court No. 6 at a testimonial dinner recently when over 300 people gathered at Asbury Methodist Church to pay tribute to them for the contributions they had made in their work over a period of years.

These honorees were Mesdames Louise Matthews, Estelle Hall, Prudence Adams, Mary Oliver and Miss Bertha Carter, who had served as Grand Ancient Matrons of Rahab Grand Court, Prince Hall Affiliation, and Messrs. Robert Chase, Robert Wallace and Wilson Dorsey, Past Grand Josiahs.

Speakers included the Rev. L. R. Berry, pastor of Asbury Methodist Church, the Rev. John H. Carter, pastor of the Asbury Broadneck Methodist Church, Mrs. Ida E. Harris, National Grand Secretary of the Household of Ruth, the Rev. S. Moore, pastor of Waymah Methodist Church at Jones; PGM Charles W. Mann of Baltimore, Mrs. Gladys Dixon of Baltimore, Grand Most Ancient Matron, Mr. Seth Robinson of Baltimore, Grand High Priest of the Royal Arch Masons, Hiram Holy Grand Chapter;

Also Mr. Alfred A. Dixon of Baltimore, Grand Commander of the Knights Templars; Rev. George A. White, pastor of the Mt. Tabor Methodist Church, PGWC Hattie Pierce of the Court of Calanthe for the jurisdiction of Maryland, Mr. Charles Walker, Past Exalted Ruler of Ancient City Lodge No. 175, Elks, Mrs. Pearl Smith of the Reindeers PGM Mary Randall of Sharon Court No. 16, Court of Calanthe;

Also Mr. Gray Thomas of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, No. 1118, PGM Annie W. Johnson of the Patrons and Matrons Council of Myra Grand Chapter of Baltimore, GJ Samuel Johnson of Baltimore, PGMHM Myrtle Johnson of Baltimore, and Mrs. Flora Chambers, Daughter Ruler of Pride of Annapolis Temple No. 76, Elks.

THE presentations were made by Mrs. Verdella White from the gift committee. Others who served with her were Mrs. Adell Walker, Past Ancient Matron of Dobson Court and Mrs. Mary Corbett.

Others who rendered musical numbers were Miss Audrey Goldsborough and Mrs. Annie Henry.

The women honorees looked especially attractive for the occasion. Miss Carter wore blue chiffon and a large purple orchid. Mrs. Matthews donned green chiffon and pink rosebuds and Mrs. Hall selected a pink creation of pure silk with a carnation corsage. Mrs. Johnson was in a printed blue crepe dress while Mrs. Adams wore black chiffon over a gold print with pink flowers. Mrs. Oliver was unable to attend because of illness. The mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. Sadie Day, was attractive in blue brocade.
