At this meeting the group evaluated the activities and accomplishments of the year and made plans for those to be carried out during the next club year.

When the club was formed more than 10 years ago, members had two primary objectives, that to keep their children entertained and trained along cultural lines to do as many worthwhile things as they were able to do for the Baltimore community.

They were pleased that they had included in this year's activities the raising of funds for a Life Membership in NAACP and C.O.R.E.

This year, too, their gifts to graduates of the group were in cash, with $10 each going to Antoinette Porter, daughter of Mrs. Vanessa Porter; Lucristia Armstrong, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Armstrong; David Turner, son of Mrs. Bernice Turner; Gregory Ferrell, son of Mrs. Leona Ferrell; Sheila Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Thompson; Re-Elda Williams, daughter of Mr. Minerva Williams; Marvin Coles, son of Mrs. Marie Coles. YOU CAN't miff the Earl L. Hagans by calling them doting parents. They freely admit they are.

They say they tell themselves every day how fortunate they are to have their Allyson, who was given less than an even chance to survive at birth because of her frail two and one-half pounds weight, and who spent the first seven weeks of her life in an incubator at Provident Hospital. Now, at three, Allyson is a healthy child, petit, but full of vim, vigor and vatality.

All of which is a prelude to the telling that Allyson celebrated her third birthday, Friday, and parents and tots alike had a rollicking good time at the birthday party which was held in Druid Hill Park's sparkling new Children's Zoo.

The concessionaire took care of all details of refreshments, and party favors, leaving everyone free to enjoy the friendly animals, the inviting play ground, and the colorful storybook surroundings.

Allyson met her little guests in the station of the Zoo Choo Train. The guests included Paula Branch, Janet Carter, Karen Giles, Waverly Hendricks, Jr., Cecelia Johnson, Deborah and Jo Ann Ward, David Watts, Karen Wallace and Ben Whitten, Jr.

Later in the day, relatives and neighbors gathered at the honoree's Cedardale Road home for a first hand report of the party and to enjoy a cook-out of barbecued "turkey, ice cream, cake and all that jazz" to qcote tre tyke herself.

Helping to round out a beautiful day were the grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Alleyne, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Roberts, Mrs. Rae Branch, Gene Hillen and daughter, Jean; Mrs. Phyllis Murphy and Norman Wharton.

NMA meets with President on hospital discrimination

WASHINGTON

The National Medical Association met with President Kennedy last Thursday and asked him to use the powers of his office to end discrimination in hospitals and other medical areas.

The meeting which marked the first time the NMA has been received by a President in its 68-year old history, was held with two purposes in mind.

The NMA wished to assure the President that they supported his program of medical care for the elderly and they wished to ask his support in restraining Hill - Burton funds from hospitals which discriminate against patients or doctors.

In reference to the "Medicare" bill, the NMA expressed concern that proposed legislation "does not assure him (a patient) of the necessary access to hospitals in his vicinity."

The NMA suggested that "there should be provision by law that would open hospitals to all citizens without discrimination or segregation."

In reference to the Hill-Burton Act, which supplied federal money for building hospitals, the NMA charged that "Colored physicians are still arbitrarily barred on account of race alone from the staffs of Hill - Burton aided hospitals."

At the close of the meeting with President Kennedy, the NMA praised him for his strong action "challenging the constitutionality of 'separate but equal' in hospital practices."

The NMA added that "it would be helpful now for the Public Health Service to make an inventory of just what racial practices are being followed in Hill - Burton aided hospitals."

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes
Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles
New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.
No matter what you've used without results—here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids—without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its gum-lubricating properties also help prevent irritation.
In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.
The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dickerson Jr. announce the marriage of their daughter Leona Helene to Airman 1/c Ernest W. Hensley III son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Hensley Jr.

They were married at the Asbury Methodist Church with the Rev. James D. Foy officiating.

The bride was charming as she came down the aisle on the arm of her father in an exquisit floor length gown of chantilly lace over taffeta. The lovely bodice was set off by a sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. Tiers on Chatilly lace formed the very full skirt that ended in a chapel train.

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion drifted from a cap of tulle and pearls.

MISS FREDA JONES, the matron of honor was dressed in pale yellow silk organza. The bridesmaids were Misses Yvonne and Yvette Barnes of Baltimore, Md. cousins, Brenda Jones, Judith Parker, Arlene Mahoney and Linda Alston. They wore gowns of lovely deep aqua and mellon.
