New Colts to get big look against Browns tomorrow

CLEVELAND, Ohio — At least two of the three t a n newcomers to the Baltimore Colts are expected to see considerable action here tomorrow (Saturday) night as they tangle with the Cleveland Browns in a pre-season football double - header.

The Colts and Browns take the field following a opening contest between the Detroit Lions and New York Giants.

THE STEEDS' game will be televised beginning at 9 p.m.

Scheduled for heavy duty, according to Colts coach Don Shula, are rookie end - halfback John Mackey and veteran fullback J. W. Lockett.

Also likely to get a frequent call is the speedy first year halfback -end from Jackson State College, Willie Richardson. Richardson is the personal project of ex-Colts star Buddy Young who scouted, appraised and signed the young speedball.

* * *

JIM MUTSCHELLER, former terminal star of the Colts, has been working with the candidates for the tight end position, one of whom is Mackey.

According to Mutscheller, the ex-Syracuse luminary is ideal for an all -purpose end. He is 6-2 and weights 217.

"HE'S ALSO spectacular," asserted Jim, "to the point where later developments may see him at a running back post."

"John really zips past those linebackers," remarked backfield coach, Don McCafferty. "His terrific speed has enabled us to throw the deep pass to him. He's already demonstrated that he can clear the safetyman. Certainly the potential is there." And there's a place on the man traffic jam at the Colts' tight end.

HEAD COACH Shula's main topic of conversation prior to the club's departure, was the newly - arrived fullback, J. W. Lockett. Lockett was obtained during the off-season in a trade with the Dallas Cowboys.

"Against the Eagles at Hershey last Saturday, he only carried the ball seven times (for 21 yards and one score) but Lockett infpressed me with his fullback play," cited Shula. "Not only did he hit the line the way we want our power runner to do it, but he also showed well as a blocker. He'll probably start."

THE COLTS enplaned from Baltimore today (Friday) and will spend the night here at the Hotel Sheraton-Cleveland.

On hand for the test also are the holdover stars of the Classes — halfbacks Lenny Moore and Lenny Lyles, fullback Joe Perry and tackleguard Jim Parker.

THE BROWNS' usual tough complement is headed by the sensational Jim Brown, who, in his own camp is as highly regarded as Moore is in Baltimore.

Followers of both teams will be anxiously watching the duel between these two.

READY, too, and awaiting the call of new Brownie head coach Blanton Collier are veteran halfbacks Ernest Green, Charlie Scales and Jim Shorter, holdover linebacker Sam Tidmore, plus linemen John Brown and John Wooten.

Browns rookies are halfbacks Clifton McNeil of Grambling, Dave Raimey from Michigan, and Bill Munsey from Minnesota, and tackle Jim Bobbitt.

From Cleveland will come the likes of Cliff Brown and Bob Tucker, James Lofton, Jim Wright and Jim Walker and Zeke Hartsfield of New York; Bobby Mayes, Charlie Devaughn and Walter Bishop of Philadelphia; Chink Stewart, Dick Thomas and Verland Terry of Baltimore; Willie Brown and Lee Elders of Texas; Willie Black from Dallas Cowboys.

WASHINGTON

This year's U.G.A. National Tournament will see the country well represented geographically.

Charlie Sifford of Los Angeles will stop and give the folks on the East Coast a look at our top colored professional.

Charlie has done very well in the Pro tour against the likes of Palmer, Nicklaus, Player and Company. He is currently having one of his best years financially.

The defending champion, Pete Brown from Mississippi will be here also. Pete has also been trying his luck on the Pro circuit. He hasn't done as well as Sifford but better things are expected of him. Sifford has the experience Brown lacks.

This is just a rundown of some of the top golfers, both amateur and professional, that will tee off at the hard golf course on the 19th of this month.

The ladies' division will be star-studded also. The brightest star will, of course, be Althea Gibson.

NEXT WILL come Mrs. Ethel Funches, Washington, D.C., one-time champion, followed by the defending champion Miss Carrie Jones of Jackson, Mississippi; Mrs. Vernice Turner of Atlantic City, also a national champion; Mrs. Evelyn Wright of New York; Mrs. Elizabeth Rice McNeal of Washington, D.C. and Mrs. Frances Mays of Washington, and Mrs. Lorraine Sawyer of Philadelphia, also a former champion.

Local pros and amateurs are expected to give a good account of themselves. Those given a good chance are: Pro money are Bill Mays, Stead Lipscomb, Pete Chase, James Andrews, Emory Levant and Bernard Ford.

A party for the junior golfers has been scheduled for Wednesday night - the place to be announced later.

The U.G.A. Party will be Thursday night Aug. 22. This will be at the Continental Hotel, Plaza Room.

Baltimore girl cops 3 net cups

Twelve - year - old Sandra Pennington returned to her proud parents in Baltimore last weekend with three trophies won at the American Tennis Association championships in Greensboro, N.C.

The youngster, a member of the Baltimore Tenn's Club, won two rusner - up trophies in doubles and a consolation prize in singles competition.

Teaming with Pat Koger, also 12, Sandra was runner-up in the under - 14 division, and paired with Leona Martin, 15, Miss Pennington took runner - up honors in the 14 - 16 classification.

Addtionally, Sandra was recipient of the consolation cup in the under-14 singles play.

HARPER'S smile would indicate that her tee shot was a good one. She's on a practice round awaiting United Golfers Association tournament at Langston, Aug. 19-23. It will be the D.C. secretary's first try at a tournament prize.

Atlantic Coast League launches season Sunday

NEW YORK — The 12-team Atlantic Coast Football League, which has doubled in size since its organization in 1962, begins its second season of operation Sunday night when the Providence Steamrollers travel to Portland, Maine, to meet the Sea Hawks.

This will be the first of 72 games for the ACFL, in which each team will play a 12 - game schedule.

* * *

THE REGULAR campaign will end on Nov. 9, following which will be the championship playoff game on Saturday night, Nov. 23 between the winner of the Northern Division and the winner of the Southern Division.

Last year, Paterson defeated Providence, 17 - 14, in sudden death overtime to win the league championship.

* * *

THE PATERSON Miners have moved their franchise to Newark and are now known as the Bears, a member of the Southern Division. In addition to Newark, the Southern Division includes the Baltimore (Md.) Bronchos, the Harrisburg (Pa.) Capitols, Jersey Giants (Jersey City), Pittsburgh Valley Ironmen and the Westchester Crusaders (Yonkers, N.Y.).

In addition to Providence, R.I., and Portland, the Northern Division includes the Connecticut Anaconia Black Knights, Boston (Nu-Way) Sweepers, Mohawk Valley (N.Y.) Falcons and the Springfield (Conn.) Arcons.

Birthday Tributes 1

BROOKS — In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. MARY ELIZA BROOKS, on her birthday, August 18, and who passed away November 22, 1961.

Dear mother on your birthday
What words can we impart
That would tell the loved one
We have within our hearts.
No words can tell love's message,
But this we know is true,
There's no one like a mother,
No mother quite like you.

Loving Daughters,
LENNIE GREEN and
AGNES POWELL
Grandson, JAMES GREEN

In Memoriam 3

HALSEY — In loving memory of our wife, and our mother and grandmother, ELISE, who passed away August 16, 1961.

Sad is the winter, spring and fall
But in summer we miss you most of all.

HUSBAND, CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

HARDEN — In loving memory of my dear son, F. DOLBERT HARDEN, who passed away August 16, 1960.

Why did he go, when life seemed so dear,
And no dark clouds were near?
To him, dim the memories of our lives,
Or just the bitter tear?
We thought not at the time of your death,
When night veiled earth and sky,
We were full of life and hope,
Would breathe his last good-bye.

BERTHA HARDEN

RICHARDSON — In loving memory of my dear husband ARICHE RICHARDSON, who passed away August 16, 1958.

Today the heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee
Sweet memories are my solace,
Dear husband ARICHE.

Now that God in Heaven can see
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
The long years have gave pass
