EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Citizen Will Interest You

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back?
In the "small", right over the hips?
That's the home of backache.
If it's caused by weak kidneys.
Use Doan's Kidney Pills.
Chestertown people testify to their worth. Read a case of it:

Mrs. James S. Lecates, High St., Chestertown, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and a very painful backache. My kidneys acted irregularly, causing great annoyance. On different occasions, I had spots before my eyes and dizzy spells. I suffered severely from shooting pains through the small of my back when I bent over. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and got relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lecates had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

CONFERENCE HERE NEXT WEEK

Occasion Will Be One Of Intense Interest To Our People

The fifty-first annual session of the Wilmington Conference will convene in the M. E. Church, Chestertown, next Wednesday. Dr. T. F. Beauchamp is the pastor of that church and has been untiring in his efforts to make the preliminary arrangements of the Conference a big success. Dr. Beauchamp has been the pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church for three years and has made many friends in Chestertown and Kent County.

The Town Commissioners of Chestertown have extended the following welcome to the Conference:

"The Wilmington Conference having met in our town on two former occasions and the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church on at least one, we are in a position to know of the beneficient influence that usually attend and following such gatherings.

"As members of the Wilmington Annual Conference and as fellow-toilers in the things of the Kingdom of God, we welcome you in the name of the people of Chestertown, to the best that our town affords."

Bishop William F. McDowell, who will preside over the Conference, was born in Millersburg, Ohio, Feb. 4, 1858, and graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University, 1879. The following degrees have been conferred on him: A. B., Ohio Wesleyan, 1879; Ph. D., 1893; S. T. B., Boston University, 1882; D. D., Baker University, 1904; University of Denver, 1904; Cornell College, 1904; Mt. Union, 1904; Northwestern, 1905. Bishop McDowell was ordained a minister in the M. E. Church in 1882, and served pastorates at Lodi, Oberlin and Tiffin—all in Ohio. From 1890 to 1899 he was Chancellor of the University of Denver, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education of the M. E. Church 1899-1904. He was elected bishop at the General Conference of 1904, and in 1910 delivered the Cole lectures at Vanderbilt University and in 1917 the Lyman Beecher lectures on preaching at Yale University. In 1905-1906 he was president of the Religious Education Association.

In 1910-1911 he officially visited India, China, the Philippine Islands and Japan. Bishop McDowell is the author of Syllabus, Life and the Bible, Studies in the French Revolution, The College Student and the Christian Confession (1898), In the School of Christ (which was the Cole lectures for 1910) Picket Lines of Missions, and A Man's Religion; Letters to Men.

Bishop McDowell lives in Washington, D. C., and has residential supervision of the Baltimore, Central Pennsylvania, Wilmington and Washington Conferences. He now presides over the Wilmington Conference for the second time, the first having been at Seaford, Del., in 1917.

Dr. Beauchamp, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, has issued an attractive booklet for the Conference, setting forth many interesting and important facts regarding the history of Methodism here, the Kent county people who will entertain the ministers next week, and other equally interesting things. We secured the brief sketch of the life of Bishop McDowell from this source, which was written by Dr. Beauchamp. The compiling of the booklet was quite a task and Dr. Beauchamp's success in it is worthy of commendation.

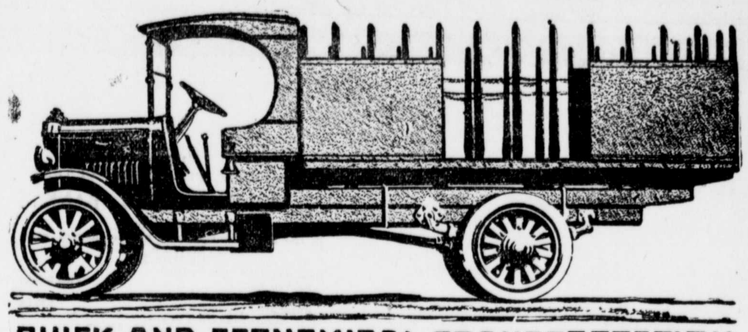

Regarding the early days of Methodism, Dr. Beauchamp says in the booklet: In the early days of Methodism Kent Circuit included almost the entire county with the following preaching places: Chestertown, Still Pond, Union, Rock Hall, Piney Neck, Hynson's Chapel and Bond Chapel. The first house of worship in Chestertown was built about 1799. The building stands yet opposite the Voshell House, owned by Harry Thomas, son of the late Dr. Samuel W. Thomas, of the Philadelphia Conference, and occupied by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co., fraternal orders, John D. Urie, Esq., and Dr. H. C. Hughes.

Within these historic walls the voice of the great apostle of Methodism, the tireless Asbury, first bishop of the church, has been heard and many noted events in the church's history occurred here.

About 1870 the need of a new church edifice was realized and preparations for building made. The late Thomas W. Eliason, Sr., who had been a pillar of the church for years, was chairman of the building committee.. Miss T. Bradshaw a faithful member of the church, bequeathed a legacy of $8000 toward the construction of the church, which was the nucleus of the building fund. Squire John N. Usilton, a prominent Methodist, since deceased, contributed the present beautiful site, and the present church edifice was soon completed at a cost of about $20,000. It was dedicated, free of debt, in 1877, and in 1878 the Wilmington Conference convened in the new edifice, Bishop Randolph S. Foster presiding, Bishops Scott and Ames also being pres-
