MERCHANTS' ANNUAL MEETING

PALMA cites 2; no Easter Parade; $500 to Provident

By B. M. MOSS

More than 200 persons attended the Pennsylvania Ave. - Lafayette Market Association (PALMA), annual meeting on Wednesday evening at the Southern Hotel.

Featured were awards of merit for two persons 'who have shared in making Baltimore a better community,' and orchids to Mayor McKeldin and other city leaders who worked for the civil rights bill enacted this week.

President Herman Katkow, in his annual report, praised the area's businessmen noting that 'year after year (the area) gains an increasingly strong reputation for being the most progressive' shopping neighborhood in the city.

He cited particularly the Association's support of churches civic, school register-to-vote, urban renewal, civil rights and charitable organization programs.

Because of the current drive for a new Provident Hospital, Mr. Katkow announced that this year PALMA will forgo its annual Easter Parade promotion.

Instead, he revealed, the merchants have voted to pledge $500 to the campaign for the new hospital, because "We believe we have a responsibility to the community from whence we derive our livlihoods.'

Mr. Katkow explained that for one month, beginning April 1, the community will be asked to join PALMA stores in a special Provident Hospital coupon purchase promotion. Details will be released shortly.

STANLEY SAMUELSON promotion committee chairman, was toastmaster.

The PALMA awards of merit went to David L. Glenn and Stanley Z. Mazer, 'who have done most toward fulfillment of the ideals of our association .... (through) effective community service.

Mr. Glenn, is one of the authors of the city's new civil rights bill, former Urban League and Equal Opportunity Commission Exec. now a C and P Telephone Co. personnel supervisor and president of the Jail Board.

He said he was)'grateful, deeply grateful and very humble,' and modestly suggested there were others who are more deserving.

MR. MAZER, former super visor of the senior adult division of the Baltimore Jewish Community Center, has served as special assistant to the Mayor in the newly created Human Renewal program.

In accepting his award, Mr. Mazer saw the greatest challenge facing Baltimore or any city is how we can survive as an urban center.

As to the new rights measure he said the bill itself will be nothing unless there is a commitment by each of us to work to eliminate barriers.

CITY OFFICIALS who were present and praised for their role in enacting the new rights bill were: Mayor Theodore McKeldin, City Council President Thomas D'Alesandro 3rd, City Council Vice President, William D. Schaefer and Councilmen Henry Parks, Maurice Soypher and Walter Dixon.

Also special guest was Western Police Capt. Wade Poole, whom it was noted had cooperated with the business area in its civic programs. Also, Mrs. Mary Peacou of the World Green Stamp Co.

Both Mr. D'Alesandro and Mayor McKeldin praised PALMA for its civic enterprise.

THE MAYOR, in obvious reference to tre weak features of the new rights bill, which his administration had tried to offset, said, "We do the best we can and prepare for the day when we get more. We hope to do better .... we'll make more progress.

Door prize winners included: Mrs. Naomi Morris, Earl Land, Mrs. Caroline Cromwell, Lou Small and Mrs. Dorothy Gibson.

Among guests was Leonard Evans, Chicago public relations official.

Entertainer was comedian-singer Jerome Berry.

THE LINCOLN - DOUGLASS Essay Contest, jointly sponsored by the Pennsyvania Avenue-Lafayette Market Association and the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN, drew hundreds of entries for the nine cash prizes and more honorable mention certificates. In the elementary school division of the contest, Virginia Moore (left) won $10 first prize and Ira Tucker (center) $$3 third prize. Both are from No. 64. Handing them their checks are PALMA representative Walter Hinden. Not shown is second prize winner Sheila Taylor, of school No. 150.

GOP committee asks to name delegates

The Republican State Central Committee has asked that it be allowed to name its delegates to the GOP national convention in San Francisco in July, should the postponed primary conflict with the state convention.

David Scull, chairman, advised Gov. J. Millard Tawes Wednesday that this was the decision of his committee:

"We request the General Assembly, in the event that the primary is set for a date which makes it impossible for our state convention to be held in time to certify delegates to the national convention, to provide for the year 1964 only that delegates to the national convention shall be selected by the State Central Committee."

Council okeys Morgan footbridge

An ordinance, granting the state permission to construct a footbridge across Cold Spring Lane connecting the campus at Morgan State College, was passed Monday evening by the City Council.

Gov. J. Millard Tawes alloted funds for the bridge in Morgan's budget for the current fiscal year, following several such repeated requests by Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, college president.

Praise students on truce

The student demonstrators of Princess Anne were commended Wednesday at regular meeting of the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations.

The students, said Parren J. Parren J. Mitchell, executive secretary of the commission, had observed reverently the 48 - hour truce declared on Monday.

He said they did this even after a bomb shattered the windows in the home of Leon Gates, an administrative employee of Maryland State College, and a cross burned near the college campus.

"I must admit," he declared, "the students have shown a restraint I had not expected."

ACCORDING TO Mr. Mitchell, who participated in negotiations with restaurant owners, members of the Princess Anne Biracial Commission, and city officals with the exception of one restaurant agreed to drop discriminatory practices.

The one restaurant, said Mr. Mitchell which held up "the entire works" was owner has declared that he is looking for a buyer.

Mr. Mitchell warned that: "The events of the past weekend in Princess Anne, could be, if unchecked, a prelude to yet another bitter confrontation between colored and white citizens on the Eastern Shore.

"It is imperative that those who want to prevent such a confronation act with effective dispatch."

MR. MITCHELL stated Tuesday that he visited the restaurant which had two demonstrators annoated on property destruction changes.

"I examined the door and found there was not apparent damage," he said.

The restaurant officials said a spring, controlling the proper opening and closing of the door had ben broken, he stated.

THREE COMISSION also discussed briefly the present situation in Cambridge.

Mr. Mitchell said "I'm not at all sure the Commission can play an effective role any longer there.

"The National Guard there is in complete command and demonstrators are no longer allowed. From my point of view, the situation in Cambridge is about the same as it was last year this time."

Mr. Mitchell implied further that the assistance of the Commission was neither wanted by the civil rights organization, headed by Mrs. Gloria Richardson,

ANOTHER MATTER discussed during the meeting was the charges by colored employees of the Montrose School for Girls, of alleged racial discrimination in hiring, and job assignemtns.

These charges came to the attention of the Commission through a letter from the National Association of Advancement of Colored People.

An investigation was ordered by the Commission, into the alleged discriminatory practices of the school.

Mr. Mitchell stated that a letter, requesting a meeting with Anne Arundel County officials to discuss matters of public accommodations had been sent.

He said "We have received no reply. I think it is a bit irritating that a commission such as ours can send out correspondence and not even be extended the courtesy of a reply."

The Commission ordered a second letter to be sent.

Dr. Jones, NCCJ head says demonstrations necessary

Dr. Lewis W. Jones, president of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, noted Tuesday that "unfortunately it is necessary that colored people must resort to demonstrations" to achieve their rights.

Dr. Jones, whose office is in New York City, was visiting the Baltimore chapter of the NCCJ.

"I would hope," he said, "that if such problems could be settled through the use of discusion, it would not be necessary to demonstrate."

THE HESITANCY Dr. Jones expresses about demonstrations is due to the explosive nature of the demonstrations and of the "white kick-back" to the marches.

"We are in the midst of a revolution," he said, "and many (white) people do not know what to do. People resist change and it is difficult to 'break through traditional patterns and habits.'"

Dr. Jones, who returned last month from a seven-week trip to Rome and Spain and who two years before spent two years in Europe, mainly at the Vatican, fears that a "conflict in leadership" between the nationalistic Black Muslims and the more conservative leaders "has made the (colored) people more militant than they want to be."

THE PROBLEM of race solved, is a "moral problem" said Dr. Jones, and it must be

The failure of the country to solve and to use the talents of economically depressed minorities cost the nation some $200 billion, said Dr. Jones.

How to bring attention to the plight of depressed minorities is a question serious in the United States.

Dr. Jones, an Episcopalian explained his feelings on ministers taking part in demonstrations thusly:

"First each clergyman has to go by his own individual conscious. That I have no objection to. But I am worried that when they demonstrate, they do not take risks.

"They go out of their own community, somewhere else when much work needs to be done in their own bailwick."

The Royal Litre Sports Car Club had its pre-spring rally on Sunday. It began at Mondawmin Shopping Center and ended in Druid Hill Park.

The objective of a rally is to cover a certain prescribed distance in a prescribed time. The distance covered on Sunday was 51.2 miles.

Officers or O.D.'s of the Day were James Marshall and Lawyer Burkes. They mapped out the course for the participants.

Drivers were George Barrett, Paul Yarfet, Richard Glascoe, Donald Smith, Charles Woodson, Robert Stovall, Richard Johnson, Robert Waters, Paul Harris and Julius Warren.

THEIR NAVIGATORS were Miss Margaret Stewart Edward Goldberg, Clarence Abrams. Mrs. Patricia Smith, Miss Brenda Morris, Miss Louise Cobb, Miss Mary Waters, Miss Ada Maris and Tyrone Logan.

Richard Glascoe, driving a Damier, won the rally with a one-hour and thirty-seven minute timing. Coming in second was Richard Johnson in an MG.

Julius Warren, placing third, drove an Austin Healey 3000 and made the trip in an hour and fifty-six minutes.

Association seeks funds

The Baltimore chapter of the Maryland Association for Retarded Children urged public support to help the passage of its $1,200,000 budget through the State Legislature.

Clarence W. Schultz, chapter president, said: "We have called on our members, their friends, and now I earnestly request any others interested in the retarded's welfare to write and urge their State Senators and Legislative District delegates to pass this budget."

More than $720,000 is earmarked for expansion of facilities at Rosewood and Henryton and for the planning of a new hospital and another $500,000 is earmarkde for the institutions to increase their professional staffs.

"All 17 of our children have one thing in common," declares Mrs. Carrie W. Green (front center). "They love to eat!" Mrs. Green was a cafeteria manager before her marriage—that helps. One of her favorite desserts is sweet potato pie made with Carnation (see recipe at right). Mr. Shade A. Green (second from right, front), was selected Businessman of the Year for 1963 by the Washington, D.C. Observer. All but one of the Green children are shown in this photograph.

Angelette and Bruce, at play in the always-lively recreation room of the Green home. "Angelette has just graduated from the bottle to the cup," Mrs. Green explains, "and of course we keep her on Carnation, mixed with water." Carnation is the milk with extra Vitamin D, for sound teeth and bones. Even when you add an equal amount of water, it is richer than sweet, whole milk.*

*U.S.D.A. Handbook #8, "Composition of Foods"

This well-known accountant, Businessman of the Year, has 17 exemptions

Every single one a Carnation baby!

Shade A. Green, all-state fullback at North Carolina College and later a government auditor, left the Treasury Department in 1946 to establish his accounting firm in Washington, D.C.

A minister's son, he is a deacon at Matthews Baptist Church. He teaches accounting and coaches basketball at Cortez Peters Business College. And he finds time to be active in the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Green's business and family "grew up" together—by leaps and bounds! The oldest boy, Shade Jr., 21, majors in psychology at North Carolina College. The baby, Angelette, is 1½.

"The doctor recommended Carnation for every one of the babies' formulas," Mrs. Green declares. Carnation in the red-and-white can is the world's leader for infant feeding—the milk every doctor knows.

recipe:

CARNATION'S FAILURE-PROOF SWEET POTATO PIE (Makes 9-inch pie)

1 cup granulated sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon cloves
1½ cups mashed canned sweet potatoes
1½ cups (large can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
2 eggs
9-inch single crust unbaked pie shell

Mix filling ingredients until smooth. Place in unbaked pie shell. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 15 minutes. Lower temperature to moderate (350°F.) and continue baking about 35 min. or until knife inserted in filling comes out clean. Cool.
