UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

Lieut. Houston Toulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson, has been advanced to a captaincy. Captain Toulson expects to sail at any time.

A letter from Sergeant Colin F. Duyer, who has been on a furlough to Nice, Italy, says he has been having the time of his life.

Lieut. H. Staunton Brown, of Brooklyn, formerly of Chestertown, has sailed for Europe in the interest of the government.

Mr. Frank Lambert received the following interesting articles from his son, Private Frank Lambert, Jr., last week: a paper knife, match box, buttons from the coat of a German, crucifix made from cartridges, painted glass from a destroyed church, snuff box, and ash tray. These articles all came from France or Germany. Priv. Lambert is with the American Army of Occupation.

Letters from Sergeant Herbert Skipper say that he will be among the last to come home from France. He thinks he will be home the last of July.

The following letter comes from Wagoner Harry L. Lee, who is on the Mexican border with Uncle Sam's forces:

Have been looking over The Transcript, which was handed to me just a few minutes ago. I greatly appreciate your kindness in sending me the paper. I find it much more newsy and interesting than I did while I was in old Kent.

We have been at Ft. Bliss since the first of last December and would be glad for a change. This is some place—just sand, horned toads, lizards and numerous other such varmints which live where water is so scarce. Have only had two or three good rains since we have been here. During the winter two or three small snows fell which left the next day or so.

I am always glad to read in the papers where Old Kent is doing so nicely towards raising money for Uncle Sam by the various ways with which they do it.

There are three of us Kent county boys at Fort Bliss, and we all agree that Kent county is a paradise compared to the Border. The Rio Grande and Janez are within sight of Fort Bliss.

The following letter is from Sergeant Colin F. Duyer to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence E. Duyer, of Chestertown:

I arrived back at my company's quarters last night (March 2) after the most wonderful trip I believe I ever had, and found many letters and mail. I wrote you from Nice, Italy, and sent you some post cards. I went to Monte Carlo twice and went through the gambling rooms, and saw where millions of dollars had been won and lost. Also a room where the Prince of Monaco plays, which is reserved for him alone. I also went to the Prince of Monaco's palace, went through the museum at Monaco which the Prince of Monaco built, and it was wonderful. He is a great hunter and a scientist; on the different sea animals he has caught he has the date of capture, where they were caught, etc.

I believe I could write quite an epistle about the wonderful scenery at Nice, Monte Carlo, and other places I visited. The cards I am sending can hardly show the grandeur of the scenes.

The papers state we will be home in June, but we all like to believe it will be much sooner. Let's hope so.

Sergeant Frank Jarman, of Camp Meade, is home on a furlough.

Sergeant Joseph Lambert, of Camp Meade, is spending the week near Chestertown.

Miss Mary Wallis, sister of Mrs. W. F. Malin, left March 8 for the United States. Miss Wallis went to Europe as a Red Cross nurse soon after the war started and has done good service for the country.

Major Robert Gill, son of Rev. John Gill, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel. In a letter to his father he states he expects to leave for home April 10.

Coe, is away attending conference, but Sunday School will be held as usual at 2 p. m., subject, "God's Hand in a Nation's Life," and Epworth League at 7 p. m., followed by a song and prayer service. Burrell will canvass Kent county soon in the interest of the Reserve, hoping thereby to secure a large enrollment. Membership is voluntary and a boy may be withdrawn at the discretion of his parents. If he is in school he will not be taken from his studies, but will be encouraged to utilize his vacation and spare time in training for productive activities.

SEEING AND KNOWING

When you look at shoes you don't always know what you are looking at, as the average person is not an expert judge on shoe values.

A SERVICEABLE SHOE is not always in style and a STYLISH SHOE is not always comfortable. THE BEST SHOES are not always the most expensive.

The proper thing to do is to rely upon the SHOE STORE that gives you the best VALUE, STYLE, SERVICE and COMFORT. WE ARE BUILDING UP OUR BUSINESS ON THESE PRINCIPLES.

OUR SPRING FOOTWEAR IS COMING IN RIGHT ALONG, AND ON ACCOUNT OF OUR LARGE VARIETY OF STYLES AND PRICES, WE ARE BETTER PREPARED THAN EVER TO FIT YOUR FEET CORRECTLY at a SATISFACTORY PRICE.

You can get a better idea of our footwear by wearing them than reading about them.
