THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value To Every Chestertown Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Chestertown citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Mrs. S. E. Kirby, Queen St., Chestertown, says: "About six years ago, I was troubled with slight disorder of the kidneys and backache. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from The Stam Drug Co., with good results."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kirby had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Lamb And Mutton

The difference of a few cents in the cost of a pound of meat frequently determines whether that meat appears on the table in many households. Yet that difference of a few cents just as frequently is caused by the limited knowledge of the housewife of the meat which she desires.

Take the cost of mutton and lamb; it is regarded as high. But the average housewife who so regards it speaks only in terms of chops and hind quarters. The fore-quarter of mutton is just as dainty, just as full of flavor, just as eatable in every way if it is properly prepared. It also is many cents cheaper per pound.

Your butcher, if he is up to date, knows how to bone and roll a shoulder of lamb or mutton so that it may be cut into Saratoga chips or made into a roast of unusual sweetness.

Breeders of sheep have paid more attention to raising a better flavored meat in the last few years, and their efforts show clearly in the resulting product.

Some objectors to lamb and mutton say that they cannot eat it because of the "wooly taste," and that they know of no way to remove it. That is merely a case of pulling the wool over your own eyes. If the fell, or tough outer membrane that covers the meat, is removed, there will be no "wooly taste."

You are taking no chances when you order lamb. The healthfulness and strength-building qualities of this meat have long been recognized by physicians, who have prescribed its extensive use in the diet of convalescents.

These facts are worthy of your studied consideration. They have long had that from the New England house wife, as is attested by our continued buying.

Henry Watterson On Religion

The following is from the eloquent pen of Henry Watterson, the famous ex-editor of the "Louisville Courier-Journal:"

I never had the young man's period of disbelief. There has never been a time when if the Angel of Death had appeared upon the scene—no matter how festal—I would not have knelt with adoration and welcome; never a time on the battlefield or at sea when if the elements had opened to swallow me I would not have gone down shouting!

Sectarianism in time yielded to universalism. Theology came to seem to my mind more and more a weapon in the hands of Satan to embroil and divide the churches. I found in the Sermon on the Mount leading enough for my ethical guidance, in the life and death of the Man of Galilee inspiration enough to fulfill my heart's desire; and though I have read a great deal of modern inquiry—from Renan and Huxley through Newman and Dollinger, embracing debates before, during and after the English upheaval of the late fifties and the Ecumenical Council of 1870, including the various raids upon the Westminster Confession, especially the revision of the Bible, down to writers like Frederic Harrison and Doctor Campbell—I have found nothing to shake my childlike faith in the simple rescript of Christ and Him crucified.

Good Fishing Promised.—All local fishermen will remember what a failure the fishing was in Chester River last summer and fall. The Maryland Conservation Commission report, just issued, gives promise of a profitable season for fishermen. It is expected that Chester River will be full of fish, this season, only waiting for the hook and bait. Over 300,000,000 small fish were planted in the waters of the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries during the past season.

Kent To Receive Game Shortly.—The State Game Warden is now in Northern Mexico, where quail are being trapped for restocking Maryland. About four months ago the warden made contracts with a dealer in Texas for 15,000 Mexican quail and later for 5,000 more. Recent reports from Mexico indicated that there would be a shortage in the delivery, due to unfavorable weather. This has caused Mr. LeCompte's trip. On the return trip he will stop at Kansas City, Mo., and interview a dealer there with whom he has placed contracts for 500 pheasants and 1,000 cotton-tail rabbits.

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

I hereby announce my candidacy for re-election as commissioner of Chestertown and ask for the support of my friends.
