DEVONSHIRE CLOTH

THE PERFECT WASHING FABRIC

To be exact, we just counted 35 pieces of good looking patterns of Devonshire Cloth in our stock. Nothing better for dresses, children's suits and the like. It is a little heavier weight than gingham. Try it. 32 inches wide--50c yard.

HATS, AND MORE HATS.

Spring Millinery is starting in strong, and this dept. of our store is meeting the demands made upon it admirably.

Remember, new things are coming in almost daily and if, perchance, you did not see yesterday exactly what you wanted, most likely that very thing is here to-day.

DR. WARNER PRESIDENT AGAIN

Re-elected At Annual Session Of M. P. Conference In Baltimore

Dr. Luther F. Warner was re-elected president of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at the opening session of that body on Wednesday in Lowe Memorial Church, Baltimore, making the second time he has been thus honored. Out of a possible 149 votes which were cast Dr. Warner received 125, the remaining 24 being divided as follows: Dr. James H. Straughn, 11; Dr. Geo. W. Haddaway, 5 and Revs. E. A. Sexsmith, R. L. Shipley, T. O. Crouse, J. W. Kirk, E. C. Makoskey and W. R. Graham each receiving one vote.

In accepting the honor conferred upon him, Dr. Warner after pledging his best and most active efforts to the interests of the denomination and to the church at large, stated that he represented no group of ministers nor churches, but that what ever he did and to whatever direction his duties as president of the conference might lead him, the members could rest assured that their interests were his interests and that the combined interests of the entire conference body were working faithfully for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

The other officers elected at the afternoon session were Rev. Jmaes H. Straughn, secretary; Rev. C. P. Nowlin, conference treasurer, and Rev. J. A. Dudley, conference steward. Dr. Straughn named as his assistant secretaries Revs. G. I. Humphries, R. L. Shipley and Klein K. Haddaway.

Chief among the problems before the conference was the plan of the denomination to raise this year $1,000,000 for general church work, and to aid the educational and other institutions of the church. Of this amount the Maryland Conference, which is the largest of them all, is asked to raise $25,000, and it was proposed in the report which was read by Rev. R. L. Shipley, that during the next conference year all other campaigns and drives for funds be subordinated to this Forward Movement Fund, in the hope of raising the entire amount this conference year. To this end, it was proposed that four Sundays be set apart for special appeals in behalf of this fund.

The First Reformed Methodist Church of Philadelphia sought entrance to the conference, which was favorably acted upon.

The conference was invited to hold its next session at First Church, Washington, and it is quite likely it will accept the invitation.

A memorial service was conducted on Wednesday in honor of Rev. J. A. Wiegand and Rev. Charles W. Cole, who died during the year. Four ministers' wives, Mrs. T. O. Crouse, Mrs. F. T. Tagg, Mrs. G. I. Humphries and Mrs. G. D. Edmondson, died during the year and eulogies were read in their honor.

What A Former Kent County Lady Is Doing In Ohio

Miss Margaret Brinsfield, formerly with the New York District Draft Board, now Field Secretary for the Child Conservation League of America, is the organizer of the Youngstown League. Miss Brinsfield is doing good work out in Ohio. The Youngstown Vindicator published the following item in reference to the league:

"The league meeting at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday was especially varied and helpful. Following Miss Merrill's excellent appeal, Mrs. U. F. Kristler, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Council of Defense, explained the new Red Cross teaching course which begins Monday in a way that was informing as well as pleasing. Mrs. Charles Frankling and Mrs. J. C. Barrett had the papers of the day, the former on "Overcoming Hereditary Taints by Environment and Training," and the latter dealing with "Heredity and Environment, and Their Effect in Crime and Delinquency." Mrs. E. N. Hale sang "Only a Rosebud" and "Year's at the Spring," beautifully. The next meeting will take place Mar. 26."

Miss Brinsfield is a Kent County lady and a former teacher in this county.

—The following is the baseball schedule of the C. H. S. team: May 2, Easton, at Chestertown; May 10, Hurlock, at Chestertown; May 12, Centreville, at Centreville; May 14, Elkton, at Chestertown; May 17, Wyoming pending; May 21, Elkton, at Elkton; May 23, Wyoming at Chestertown; May 28, Centreville at Chestertown; May 30, Easton at Easton; June 7, Hurlock at Hurlock.
