Lumber Questions.

"Why should I bother about where my builder buys his lumber? Isn't that his affair?"

Well, remember that you are going to live in the house, and he isn't. It's better to bother now than to be unhappy for years because you didn't.

And remember that a contractor who gets his lumber from a twenty-five-year-old concern is most likely to be a contractor who builds to last.

There are other good lumber firms—we know it; but you will wear out several good tires before you find one better.

No lumber is perfect. At the best you have to take some chances. Why take more than you have to?

Some day you'll build. Build to last. See that the lumber comes from CULP.

Large shipments of lumber now unloading and in transit.

LOCAL MATTERS

Postmaster Appointed.—Mr. Roscoe Wharton has been appointed postmaster at Worton to succeed Mr. Herbert Matthews, who resigned. Mr. Wharton received the highest average in the examinations, getting a mark of 92.

Straw Stack Burns.—The straw stack on the farm tenanted by Mr. Fred Davis, in Quaker Neck, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon. It is thought that some men were smoking around the straw stack and fire from their pipes started the straw burning.

Kent Wheat Fields Look Fine.—The wheat fields of Kent county are looking better this year than at the same time for a number of years in the past. The mild winter and the warm spring have brought wheat up a foot high in some sections. The outlook is for the biggest crop of wheat in the history of the country this year.

Fire Near Crumpton.—"Vinegar Hill" the farm of William R. Robinson, near Crumpton, was the scene of a disastrous fire last week, when the barn and stable were destroyed, causing a loss of about $400. The fire started from the sparks from some burning brush not far away, where workmen were engaged in clearing up the ground for the spring work. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Centreville Wins Debate.—The Chestertown High School was packed on Friday evening to hear the debate between the Chestertown High School and the Centreville High School. The subject, "Resolved that Compulsory Military Training Should be a Permanent part of our Scheme of Government." Virgil Troy and William Holmes represented the Centreville High School and took the affirmative, while Milbourn Jones and Miss Pauline Hazell defended the negative for the local High School. The debate, which was won by Centreville, was interesting and closely contested. The receipts were $71.00.

Wedding Announcement.—The marriage of Dr. L. E. Barrett, formerly pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church for a period of seven years, to Miss Lidia Terrell, an accomplished and attartctive young lady of Elkton, Maryland, will take place next Wednesday at Elkton, Rev. George J. Jones performing the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Barrett will make Chestertown their home and will board with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rote, on High Street. Miss Terrell was organist of the Elkton Church, where Dr. Barrett was stationed several years ago. We wish Dr. and Mrs. Barrett many years of happy married life.

Mr. Page Hickman Loses An Eye.—We regret to announce that Mr. Page Hickman, a progresive farmer on the Jarrell farm, near the College, was compelled to have one of his eyes removed in Baltimore on Wednesday. Mr. Hickman has been suffering with the eye for some time and he thought that a cataract was forming on it. Dr. Shafer, his eye specialist, called in several other specialists for consultation and it was found that he had a cancer instead of a cataract over the eye, and the doctors were compelled to remove it. We hope Mr. Hickman will soon be able to resume his duties again.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Chestertown launch owners are putting their boats overboard. Mr. Simon Westcott is the latest addition to the ranks of the launch owners.

—Mr. A. L. Sparks will remove to the Westcott-Hill building about April 21. The new stores on that corner will make a big improvement to that section.

—A notice is posted up in the local postoffice of an examination for government "chicken inspector" at $1200 to $1600 per year. See notice for particulars.

—S. S. Beck, Esq., has been appointed court auditor in place of Judge L. W. Wickes. R. G. Parks, Esq., succeeds Mr. Beck as one of the court examiners.

—The Barnett farm, near Pomona, was sold last week by the owner, Mr. C. F. Parks, to Mr. P. V. Hendrickson. The stock on this farm was also sold to Mr. Hendrickson.

—The premises of the residents of Chestertown are all taking on a spring appearance. Yards and lawns have been raked and on many of them some beautiful early flowers are in bloom.

—Capt. W. C. A. Thompson caught 50 bunches of nice perch in Chester river on Wednesday. On Thursday Captain Harry Lambert caught five fine shad and two big rock, the largest of which weighed 11 pounds.

—Chestertown has the champion cigarette stump "grabber" in the Hungarian at the Chestertown jail. The colored youths who used to "learn" on stumps, say that the streets of Chestertown are as void of stumps as the Sahara Desert is of water.

—James Jones, the Voshell House barber shop proprietor, had a narrow escape the other day when a cartridge went off in his pipe. He had the cartridge in his pocket with some tobacco and put it in his pipe accidentally. He thought at first that he was shot.

—War and Thrift Stamps were sold at the Kent postoffices in March as follows: Chestertown, $358.84; Betterton, $12.42; Black, $1.50; Galena, $19.17; Lynch, $8.00; Millington, $14.92; Still Pond, $11.53; Rock Hall, $97.33; Worton, $46.79; total, $570.50.

—Messrs. Harry and W. R. Price, of near Still Pond, have sold part of their Turner's Creek farm to Mr. H. L. Clothier, of the firm of Strawbridge and Clothier, Philadelphia. The tract will contain about 190 acres. Price about $112.50 per acre.

—The postoffice department has issued orders that small domestic animals, chickens, shell fish and blood worms will be received for parcels post on the parcels post route if properly crated. Conditions under which these articles will be received for shipment will be published later.

—The poultrymen and butter makers of this section are receiving numerous inquiries from city residents to furnish eggs and butter direct from the farm. The motor truck mail service between the Eastern Shore towns and the large cities is bringing the producer and consumer together.

—The old custom of putting the teacher out of school on April 1 is likely to go out of fashion after this in Delaware. Two boys were tried and convicted of assault and battery before a Justice of the Peace at Dover recently for putting out their teacher, Miss Edmonia Crawford, of Marydel.

—Sheriff Carter and his deputies made a raid on crap shooters and disturbers of the peace generally in the uptown colored settlement of Chestertown Saturday night and rounded up quite a number of offenders. They were fined from $5 to $10 each. All paid their fines except one, who is serving a term in jail.

—Mr. Page Hickman walked from Elkton to Chestertown the other night. Mr. Hickman had been in Baltimore for treatment for his eye and came to Elkton, hoping to catch some one coming to Chestertown. Unable to secure a ride, Mr. Hickman walked the distance of 37 miles. He left Elkton at 11 p. m. and arrived in Chestertown at 9 o'clock the following morning.

—At the sale of pure bred holstein cattle, held by Mr. John Anderson at Cecilton, Md., on April 2, good cattle sold high. Twenty head of pure bred and registered holstein heifers brought $4250.00, an average of $212.50 each. Quite a few of these good cattle came to Kent county. Mr. Anderson will hold another sale of pure bred holstein cattle about May 1 and expects to have a better lot for this sale.

—Mr. Woolworth, owner of the great Woolworth 5 and 10 cent stores, died on Monday. He began business in a very small way and became one of the nation's rich men.

—The State Convention of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will be held in Baltimore next week. Messrs. W. T. Bennett and G. H. Burk, delegates from Chestertown Council, and Mr. Charles N. Satterfield, from Rock Hall Council, will attend. Mr. W. F. Malin will also be present.
