Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

Church, officiated and Mr. J. L. Smith was the undertaker. Interment in the cemetery adjoining Blackiston's Church. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Mollie Hurlock, of Kennedyville, and Misses Mary and Sallie at home; also one brother, Mr. George Gordon, at home.

Mrs. Elmer S. Morris died at her home in Baltimore Tuesday night of last week. The deceased was the mother of the late Rayfield Morris, who died at the home of J. Romie McCauley recently. This makes four to die in this family in the past month.

Mr. James R. Crouch, of Middletown, Del., died on Monday. He lived in Kent for a number of years and resided on the Ringgold farm. The funeral was held on Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Groome Price, widow of the late Dr. Joseph Price, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter B. Strong, in Broad Neck, on Monday, of infirmities of age. She was 85 years old and is survived by three children, Mrs. Walter B. Strong, Mrs. Thomas W. Trew and Joseph Price. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Dickerson, interment at St. Paul's. The pall bearers were W. G. Smyth, T. B. Kilbourne, C. A. Jessop, Joseph Brice, Samuel Emory and Charles Skirven. Undertaker C. L. Dodd had charge of the arrangements.

The remains of Mrs. Adalaide Bell, widow of the late George N. Bell, were brought here Wednesday and interred at St. Paul's beside the body of her husband. Mrs. Bell died on Monday and her husband about three weeks ago.

A Good Lecture.—Mr. A. Hunt Vantier, of Phila., Pa., delivered an interesting lecture before the Chestertown Literary Club at Firemen's Hall on last Tuesday evening. Mr. Vantier was introduced by Mr. W. B. Copper, cashier of the Third National Bank. The speaker of the evening took for his topic, "In the Wake of the Victorious Yanks." Mr. Vantier was in England, Ireland and France doing Y. M. C. A. lecture work among the American soldiers and gave an interesting account of how the Germans were defeated. After the lecture R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., made a request for subscribers to the fund for the rebuilding of France. Firemen's Hall was well filled.

—The young men of Elkton are planning for an Easter dance to be held at the Armory on the evening of April 21, with music by Gaul's Orchestra of Baltimore. Their other dances have been most enjoyable functions, and they intend to make this one even better. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.
